Ministers' Dinner Meeting May Break Big 4 Deadlock

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter will meet with the other Big Four foreign ministers tonight at a dinner which could prove a turning point in the negotiations over a summit conference agreement.

Some high diplomats attached great importance to the dinner, though it is billed as purely social.

British and French officials said the assembly of 12 top men of the Big Four conference at Herter's villa offered an opportunity to get away from the repetitive formal debate of the regular sessions and come to grips with basic problems.

They even spoke of a possible series of such social affairs as a means of swinging the conference into more private negotiations.

U.S. officials, however, attempted to dampen growing interest in the dinner. They said there was no thought beforehand on Herter's part of trying to get any conference work done or to promote any secret diplomacy.

Officials of all three Western delegations conceded that it was literally impossible to predict ahead of time what would happen because Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko might create an opening or make a move which they cannot anticipate.

Gromyko is already beginning to prod the three Western ministers into letting them know what their terms are for agreement on a summit conference. Herter, Britain's Selwyn Lloyd and Maurice Couve de Murville of France are reported playing hard to get, chiefly because France and West Germany — meaning President Charles de Gaulle and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer—have insisted this is the best bargaining line to take.

The debate on contradictory Soviet and Western German peace plans is continuing but getting nowhere in the main conference sessions. The question all four big-power delegations are now worrying about is how and when to start secret negotiations.

East and West German delegations were not invited to the dinner. Herter, Lloyd and Couve de Murville have been putting out word for days that there would be no point in having private talks if the Germans were included because the meeting would be too big.

Herter invited each of the other three foreign ministers and two advisers each for himself and for them. On the U.S. side, he asked Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy and Asst. Secretary of State Livingston T. Merchant. In each of the other delegations he asked the No. 2 man and the top diplomatic adviser of the foreign minister.

Gromyko will bring along Valerian Zorin, deputy minister of foreign affairs; and Alexandre Soldatov, chief of the ministry's American department.

Unsure of what concessions if any the Soviets might be willing to make, they were refusing to fall in with implied Soviet suggestions that they put aside their sweeping master plan for German reunification and get down to bargaining on such individual issues as the future of Berlin.

Chiefly on French insistence, the Western ministers were holding back until Gromyko produced more acceptable proposals.

Gromyko's wary opening moves were made both in the formal sessions of the conference at the Palace of Nations and in private talks with the Western ministers, especially Britain's Selwyn Lloyd.

Western diplomats reported Wednesday night that the Soviet foreign minister told Lloyd he was definitely interested in negotiating seriously on four issues included in the Western package plan for a German peace settlement.

These call for a new arrangement for West Berlin, an East-West nonaggression declaration, creation of a committee of West and East Germans to bring the two Germanys closer together, and the establishment of a central European zone in which armed forces would be limited.

Will Be In Force 2 More Years

Ohio Utilities Win Fight On Rate-Making Formula

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio utilities have won their months-long fight and the state's traditional rate-making formula will continue in force for at least another two years.

The Ohio House Wednesday night scuttled a bill, despite a personal plea by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, to junk the RCN formula by which utility rate bases are figured. (RCN stands for "replacement cost new, less observed depreciation.")

The Democratic - dominated House defeated a proposed new formula 80-53 in a night session after hours of maneuvering in an effort to delay the vote until Tuesday.

Twenty-two Democrats joined 58 Republicans to junk the bill despite the 1958 Democratic state platform declaration: "The old formula for setting rates for public utility services has become outmoded and costly to the consumers."

Through their long fight, utilities insisted their rates are lower than those in nearby states and any change in the RCN formula would disrupt the entire rate - making picture.

The defeated proposal would have set up a formula to determine the present value of a utility's property—the rate base—by giving equal consideration and weight to net investment and an up-to-date appraisal.

In another major action Wednesday, the House passed 83-50 and sent to the Senate a bill creating a Dairy Marketing Division with power to prohibit selling milk and dairy products below cost to attract other business.

The measure was termed by one of its co-sponsors, Rep. Rhoderic G. Mills (D-Perry), as "the last ray of hope for survival of the dwindling dairies in Ohio. The smaller ones can't stand a long price war with the big dairies. When local business is forced out, prices will rise again."

Backers of the bill insisted it merely would set a price floor, but Rep. Harry Corkwell (R-Putnam) asserted:

"Your milk price is going to go up if this bill passes."

Other provisions of the bill include a ban on sale of milk at a lower price in one area than in another, except to meet competition; prohibit big dairies from giving equipment and making security loans to stores agreeing to handle their products, and ban premiums, bonuses or gifts in connection with the sale of milk."

The House completed passage of a Senate-approved bill lowering from one year to 40 days the residence requirement for eligible voters of other states moving into Ohio for the right to ballot for the president only.

The principle for the reduced residence requirement was established in a constitutional amendment approved by the voters.

The House passed and sent to the Senate a bill to repeal one of the Sunday blue laws—to permit fishing on Sunday. Of course, its enactment only would legalize what hundreds of thousands of Ohioans are doing every Sunday in spite of the old law.

Another bill sent to the Senate would require Ohioans to have fishing licenses to take frogs and turtles.

A bill also passed by the House and sent to the Senate would create municipal university taxing districts which school districts would be permitted to join.

The Senate, after long debate, passed and sent to the House a bill to exempt non-profit associations like hospitals from responsibility for injury or death of patients because of the acts of employes unless gross negligence is established. The vote was 29-1 with Sen. Danny D. Johnson (D-Tuscarawas), the chief opponent, abstaining from voting.

Conspired To Balk Probes

U.S. Indicts 27 Delegates To Underworld Meeting

Crackdown Made After Year's Effort

Defendants In 1957 Convention Arrested Quickly By Agents

NEW YORK (AP)—The power of the federal government today was turned upon the notorious 1957 underworld convention at Apalachin, N.Y., with 27 delegates indicted on charges of conspiring to balk probes of it.

Arrests of the defendants quickly got under way. Many already were in trouble, and some in jail, as a result of refusal to answer questions of various investigatory agencies previously.

The crackdown was the result of nearly a year's effort by a special crime-busting agency set up by the U.S. attorney general's office, with teams of agents working across the nation.

The Apalachin delegates came from many cities, and authorities since have been struggling to peg its purpose. The general opinion is that it was for tightening or altering control over a vast empire of rackets.

All 63 persons who attended the conclave were named in the indictment but only 27 as defendants.

The remaining 36 were tabbed as coconspirators. The reason for this was not immediately made clear. Usually such action is for lack of enough evidence. Sometimes those named as coconspirators have indicated willingness to cooperate with, or testify for, the prosecution.

The latter possibility seemed remote in this instance.

If convicted of conspiracy to obstruct justice, as charged in the indictment, the 27 defendants could receive five-year prison sentences and $10,000 fines each.

Some claimed those in attendance were top echelon figures of the Mafia, the notorious underworld society spawned in Sicily many years ago.

Participants in the gathering either refused to talk about it or claimed it was nothing more than an expression of friendship for the host, Joseph L. Barbara Sr., ill with a heart ailment.

Seven of those who attended have been held in jail here several months for refusal to answer questions of state crime probers. A eighth recently obtained freedom on appeal.

In the federal indictment, Barbara was named as a coconspirator, but not a defendant.

Beaver Vote For Primary Termed Light

Turnout Estimated 45%; Voting Cost Figured At $12,554

Final vote figures for Tuesday's primary in Beaver County were tabulated Wednesday afternoon for the 26 candidates who received nomination in both parties for some 12 offices including two commissioner posts.

Only a light vote was cast figured about 45 per cent of the registration. The cost of the election was $12,554, the Board of Elections at Beaver announced.

Republicans who received nominations include Sam M. McCune of Rochester Township, 13,368 votes, and Russell O. Wright of Franklin Township, 11,805, for commissioners, Mary L. Gordon of Chippewa Township, 14,378 for treasurer.

Henry J. Albaugh, of Hopewell Township, 12,121, for district attorney; William F. Butler of Beaver, 8,142, for register of wills; Thomas P. Murray of Ambridge, 18,147, recorder of deeds; Matthew Zvonar of Hopewell Township, 5,882 sheriff.

Henrietta B. Anderson of Hopewell Township, 12,916, clerk of courts; George E. Taylor of Chippewa Township, 17,585, controller; Harvey R. Robinson of Beaver, 17,991, prothnotary; Dr. John W. Colavincenzo of Patterson Township, 10,795, coroner; and Daniel C. Baker of Ohio Township, 17,957, surveyor.

Democratic nominations include Gordon Camp of Rochester Township, 8,156, and James E. Ross of Beaver, 7,136 for commissioners; Russell Milnes of Aliquippa, 7,355, treasurer; Richard P. Stewart of New Brighton, 10,567, district attorney.

John L. Neely Jr. of Rochester, 11,628, register of wills; Paul Doughty of Hopewell Township, 11,176, recorder of deeds; John W. Hineman of Brighton Township, 9,144, sheriff; Kathleen W. Evans of Rochester, 9,638, clerk of courts.

James F. Tress of Beaver Falls, 7,830, controller; Anthony J. Kubik of Aliquippa, 10,539, prothonotary; Dr. Thomas F. Todd of Aliquippa, 8,213, coroner; and Edward L. Ewing of Rochester, 20,632, surveyor.

Auto And Truck Collide

Man Loses Arm In Traffic Crash

A 45-year-old East Liverpool man suffered loss of his left arm and other severe injuries Wednesday at 4:29 p. m. on Shadyside Ave. in a spectacular crash in which his auto struck a truck and then slammed into a fire hydrant and a utility pole.

William Hunt, 201 Baum St., is in "critical" condition today at City Hospital with injuries suffered in the crash. In addition to loss of the arm, he suffered severe shock and multiple lacerations of the face, the hospital reported.

In two other crashes Wednesday, a tree was uprooted by a tractor-trailer forced off Dresden Ave. and an East Liverpool woman suffered a fractured arm in a two-car crash on Pennsylvania Ave., East End.

The Shadyside Ave. crash involved Hunt's southbound 1950 model auto and a northbound stake-body truck operated by Rupert J. Echols, 850 Township Rd., police said. The mishap occurred on lower Shadyside near its junction with the four lane East Liverpool-Wellsville "super-road."

Police said Hunt was driving toward W. 8th St. "at a high rate of speed" when his car hit the left rear of the truck, then crashed into the fire hydrant and the utility pole, demolishing both. Hunt's car also was a total loss, officers said.

The tree was uprooted in the short straightaway in the 1000 block of Dresden Ave. last night by a big rig driven by John E. Bennett, 35, of Alliance. He was driving north in a rig owned by Master Feed & Seed, Inc., also of Alliance, officers said.

Bennett told police he was forced to the right by an oncoming truck,

Sprenz Given 25 Years For Bank Robbery

Pleads Guilty To Theft In Hamilton; Faces Other Counts

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—A 25-year prison sentence stretches ahead for Frank L. Sprenz, 29-year-old "flying bank robber."

He pleaded guilty Wednesday to $25,955 robbery of the First National Bank at Hamilton, Ohio, last March 2.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge John H. Druffel imposed the 25-year term.

Then, in a surprise move, Sprenz signed waivers to allow transfer here from Vermont, Pennsylvania and Maryland of federal charges of automobile and airplane thefts. He will be arraigned on those charges later.

Then comes a trial in Butler County, Ohio, for bank robbery in the Hamilton holdup. Still later, he'll stand trial in Summit County, Ohio, where he is wanted for armed robbery and jail breaking.

When all of those other charges are disposed of Sprenz will start serving the 25-year-term imposed Wednesday. Any sentences given him in the state courts will have to be served after the federal terms are completed.

During the long flight since his escape from the Summit County jail in Akron 13 months ago, Sprenz has flitted from Toronto, through a score of states, and finally into Mexico where he was caught several weeks ago. He is known to have stolen at least three planes during that time.

Sprenz was captured in Mexico several weeks ago. At the time he was on the FBI's list of 10 most warted criminals.

Standing between two court-appointed attorneys Wednesday, he changed his plea in the Hamilton case from innocent to guilty after Judge Druffel informed him a psychiatrist had found him mentally competent.

The psychiatrist made the examination at the request of defense attorneys Harry Abrams and Samuel Rubenstein after Sprenz refused to eat jail meals and claimed someone was trying to poison him.

Sprenz replied "no" to a question from the judge as to whether he had anything to say in his own behalf. Asked by the judge how much previous time he had served in prison, Sprenz said only two years—A term imposed when he was 17 years old.

City Continues Water Service During Repair

Although at first it feared service would be limited severely or lacking entirely, the city water department managed to maintain normal supplies for 2,500 to 3,000 East Liverpool homes today after it drained the high service reservoir on Huston Hill to replace 2 faulty 10-inch valves.

By manipulating valves, constant pumping at the plant in Klondyke and feeding at a maximum rate out of the twin 165,000-gallon Henry Ave. standpipes, the department was maintaining service to homes in West End and the St. Clair Ave.-Bradshaw Ave.-Avondale St. district despite the fact its high service reservoir was drained overnight for the repair project.

At 10 a. m., when the work had been under way for 3 hours, Supt. Frank K. Robinson said the department believed every home in the affected area was being supplied with water. Although original estimates were that the valve repair would be completed within six hours, Robinson said he expects now it will require until late this afternoon — based on the progress within the first three hours.

However, there will be no hardship, as the department expects to continue to maintain service to all the affected homes, Robinson said.

In an advance warning yesterday, the department told householders to draw supplies of water before midnight last night, as their

Firemen Bring Rescue Craft

6 Adrift In 2 Boats Reach Shore After River Trouble

Six people, adrift in two boats, managed to reach ashore safely Wednesday night after the owner of one and a friend jumped into the river to shove one craft out of the path of an approaching tow boat.

Emmanuel Fellouzis, 1714 Allison St., was taking two of his employes, Charlie Bell and Ravenna Bell of Chaffin St., for a ride while the other boat owned by Jack Cook was operated by his brother, Harold Cook, with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Broadbent as passengers.

The Cook boat ran out of gas, Fellouzis said, and he started to tow it back to an East End dock when his ignition became wet. While attempting to dry it out, they saw the approaching tow headed downstream.

Fellouzis and Bell started to shove their boat toward the shore, drifting about a mile downstream from where they started. As they neared a barge tied up along the River Rd., Bob Burson saw their difficulties and threw them a line from the barge and pulled them ashore.

Fellouzis and Bell returned to the East End dock. While there, they called to a passing boat and found it was a Red Cross rescue boat from Central Station manned by Asst. Chief Alfred VanDyne, and Firemen William Lister and Richard Plumley.

Meanwhile, using a small piece of wood from the boat, Cook paddled his boat slowly to shore.

After learning of their predicament, firemen towed both boats back to the East End dock.

Firemen said they received a call about the stranded boats at 9:13 p. m. from William Lovejoy, of Chester.

Starkweather Slated To Be Executed Friday

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Charles Starkweather, 19, confessed slayer of 11 persons, is scheduled to die in the electric chair Friday morning.

The execution is set for shortly after 8 a.m. (DST) at the Nebraska Penitentiary.

Starkweather, who has spent recent days reading the Bible and finishing a Western scene drawing, is to die for the slaying of a Bennett, Neb., school boy.

For participation in this slaying his former sweetheart, Caril Ann Fugate, 15, is serving a life term.

GUATEMALA (AP)—The Guatemalan government accused Cuban Communists Wednesday night of being on the way to invade Guatemalan territory. A communique said four armed schooners from Cuba had been spotted off British Honduras.

Bishop Seeks Sentence Stay In High Court

Dallas Bishop, former special officer convicted and sentenced to 1-15 years in the Ohio Penitentiary for a 1952 city burglary, has filed a notice of appeal to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Atty. Hugo Alexander of Steubenville, Bishop's counsel, filed the notice Wednesday with the Clerk of Courts office at Lisbon.

The 7th District Court of Appeals earlier this week affirmed Bishop's 1958 conviction for breaking and entering the Smith & Phillips Co. store, thus rejecting an appeal filed by the defendant.

In Atty. Alexander's notice filed yesterday, he claimed "errors in proceedings prejudicial to the appellant," and violations of constitutional rights as guaranteed by law.

Bishop was one of five regular and two special officers indicted in 1956 on nine counts of burglary.

County Prosecutor G. William Brokaw today took to Youngstown legal papers which would enable the Court of Appeals to make a final entry on its affirmation ruling.

Brokaw said Bishop, currently free on $5,000 bond, could be picked up at any time, and it would be up to the Appellate Court on whether a stay of execution of the prison sentence would be granted pending the new appeal to the higher court.

Die In Unused Icebox

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Two brothers were found dead Wednesday night in an unused refrigerator in the basement of their home. Paul Kelly, 11, and Edward Kelly, 4, were discovered by a sister, Pauline, during a family hunt for the missing boys. It was her 16th birthday.

Hopes To Recover Them Intact

Air Force Ready To Fire 4 Mice Into Orbit Today

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Unofficial sources say the Air Force hopes to fire four mice into orbit around the earth today—and later recover them intact.

Western Aviation magazine stated: "Four mice will ride as passengers aboard a Discoverer III in a launch from Vandenberg Air Force Base with an attempt to be made for recovery of the payload capsule near Hawaii."

The Los Angeles Examiner said the launching would possibly be today.

Air Force officials released no information.

If the mice do go aloft, they will be the first animals the United States has tried to shoot into space and recover.

Discoverer II was launched April 13 from Vandenberg, 150 miles northwest of Los Angeles. Air Force planes from Hawaii were poised to recover the satellite's payload capsule, but a timing device failed and the payload wasn't dropped until the satellite was over the arctic on its 17th pass.

The nose cone was believed seen parachuting near Spitzbergen Island, north of Norway. A widespread search was made for it, but it was never reported found.

Western Aviation, a monthly trade publication, said that planes —trailing trapeze-like nets — will have 10 minutes to snare the falling capsule from Discoverer III if it parachutes into the Pacific area as planned.

The Air Force announced earlier that specially bred mice, of a strain thought sturdy enough for a space career, were being flown to Vandenberg for satellite tests.

Affectionate Tribute Paid Dulles By House

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House has paid affectionate tribute to cancer-stricken John Foster Dulles.

No change was reported in the condition of the former secretary of state, whose cancer illness has been complicated by pneumonia.

House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts said Wednesday, "We miss him very much. I wish him well and pray that God showers His abundance on him."

McCormack said he had no doubt that history will recognize Dulles as one of the greatest secretaries.

Representatives Walter H. Judd (R-Minn) and Fred Schwengel (R-Iowa) said Dulles already ranks as America's greatest secretary of state. They expressed hope some miracle might spare his life.

Auto And Truck Collide

Man Loses Arm In Traffic Crash

A 45-year-old East Liverpool man suffered loss of his left arm and other severe injuries Wednesday at 4:29 p. m. on Shadyside Ave. in a spectacular crash in which his auto struck a truck and then slammed into a fire hydrant and a utility pole.

William Hunt, 201 Baum St., is in "critical" condition today at City Hospital with injuries suffered in the crash. In addition to loss of the arm, he suffered severe shock and multiple lacerations of the face, the hospital reported.

In two other crashes Wednesday, a tree was uprooted by a tractor-trailer forced off Dresden Ave. and an East Liverpool woman suffered a fractured arm in a two-car crash on Pennsylvania Ave., East End.

The Shadyside Ave. crash involved Hunt's southbound 1950 model auto and a northbound stake-body truck operated by Rupert J. Echols, 850 Township Rd., police said. The mishap occurred on lower Shadyside near its junction with the four lane East Liverpool-Wellsville "super-road."

Police said Hunt was driving toward W. 8th St. "at a high rate of speed" when his car hit the left rear of the truck, then crashed into the fire hydrant and the utility pole, demolishing both. Hunt's car also was a total loss, officers said.

The tree was uprooted in the short straightaway in the 1000 block of Dresden Ave. last night by a big rig driven by John E. Bennett, 35, of Alliance. He was driving north in a rig owned by Master Feed & Seed, Inc., also of Alliance, officers said.

Bennett told police he was forced to the right by an oncoming truck,

Sprenz Given 25 Years For Bank Robbery

Pleads Guilty To Theft In Hamilton; Faces Other Counts

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—A 25-year prison sentence stretches ahead for Frank L. Sprenz, 29-year-old "flying bank robber."

He pleaded guilty Wednesday to $25,955 robbery of the First National Bank at Hamilton, Ohio, last March 2.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge John H. Druffel imposed the 25-year term.

Then, in a surprise move, Sprenz signed waivers to allow transfer here from Vermont, Pennsylvania and Maryland of federal charges of automobile and airplane thefts. He will be arraigned on those charges later.

Then comes a trial in Butler County, Ohio, for bank robbery in the Hamilton holdup. Still later, he'll stand trial in Summit County, Ohio, where he is wanted for armed robbery and jail breaking.

When all of those other charges are disposed of Sprenz will start serving the 25-year-term imposed Wednesday. Any sentences given him in the state courts will have to be served after the federal terms are completed.

During the long flight since his escape from the Summit County jail in Akron 13 months ago, Sprenz has flitted from Toronto, through a score of states, and finally into Mexico where he was caught several weeks ago. He is known to have stolen at least three planes during that time.

Sprenz was captured in Mexico several weeks ago. At the time he was on the FBI's list of 10 most warted criminals.

Standing between two court-appointed attorneys Wednesday, he changed his plea in the Hamilton case from innocent to guilty after Judge Druffel informed him a psychiatrist had found him mentally competent.

The psychiatrist made the examination at the request of defense attorneys Harry Abrams and Samuel Rubenstein after Sprenz refused to eat jail meals and claimed someone was trying to poison him.

Sprenz replied "no" to a question from the judge as to whether he had anything to say in his own behalf. Asked by the judge how much previous time he had served in prison, Sprenz said only two years—A term imposed when he was 17 years old.

City Continues Water Service During Repair

Although at first it feared service would be limited severely or lacking entirely, the city water department managed to maintain normal supplies for 2,500 to 3,000 East Liverpool homes today after it drained the high service reservoir on Huston Hill to replace 2 faulty 10-inch valves.

By manipulating valves, constant pumping at the plant in Klondyke and feeding at a maximum rate out of the twin 165,000-gallon Henry Ave. standpipes, the department was maintaining service to homes in West End and the St. Clair Ave.-Bradshaw Ave.-Avondale St. district despite the fact its high service reservoir was drained ovc night for the repair project.

At 10 a. m., when the work had been under way for 3 hours, Supt. Frank K. Robinson said the department believed every home in the affected area was being supplied with water. Although original estimates were that the valve repair would be completed within six hours, Robinson said he expects now it will require until late this afternoon — based on the progress within the first three hours.

However, there will be no hardship, as the department expects to continue to maintain service to all the affected homes, Robinson said.

In an advance warning yesterday, the department told householders to draw supplies of water before midnight last night, as their

Firemen Bring Rescue Craft

6 Adrift In 2 Boats Reach Shore After River Trouble

Six people, adrift in two boats, managed to reach ashore safely Wednesday night after the owner of one and a friend jumped into the river to shove one craft out of the path of an approaching tow boat.

Emmanuel Fellouzis, 1714 Allison St., was taking two of his employes, Charlie Bell and Ravenna Bell of Chaffin St., for a ride while the other boat owned by Jack Cook was operated by his brother, Harold Cook, with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Broadbent as passengers.

The Cook boat ran out of gas, Fellouzis said, and he started to tow it back to an East End dock when his ignition became wet. While attempting to dry it out, they saw the approaching tow headed downstream.

Fellouzis and Bell started to shove their boat toward the shore, drifting about a mile downstream from where they started. As they neared a barge tied up along the River Rd., Bob Burson saw their difficulties and threw them a line from the barge and pulled them ashore.

Fellouzis and Bell returned to the East End dock. While there, they called to a passing boat and found it was a Red Cross rescue boat from Central Station manned by Asst. Chief Alfred VanDyne, and Firemen William Lister and Richard Plumley.

Meanwhile, using a small piece of wood from the boat, Cook paddled his boat slowly to shore.

After learning of their predicament, firemen towed both boats back to the East End dock.

Firemen said they received a call about the stranded boats at 9:13 p. m. from William Lovejoy, of Chester.

Starkweather Slated To Be Executed Friday

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Charles Starkweather, 19, confessed slayer of 11 persons, is scheduled to die in the electric chair Friday morning.

The execution is set for shortly after 8 a.m. (DST) at the Nebraska Penitentiary.

Starkweather, who has spent recent days reading the Bible and finishing a Western scene drawing, is to die for the slaying of a Bennett, Neb., school boy.

For participation in this slaying his former sweetheart, Caril Ann Fugate, 15, is serving a life term.

Accuses Cuban Reds

GUATEMALA (AP)—The Guatemalan government accused Cuban Communists Wednesday night of being on the way to invade Guatemalan territory. A communique said four armed schooners from Cuba had been spotted off British Honduras.

Bishop Seeks Sentence Stay In High Court

Dallas Bishop, former special officer convicted and sentenced to 1-15 years in the Ohio Penitentiary for a 1952 city burglary, has filed a notice of appeal to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Atty. Hugo Alexander of Steubenville, Bishop's counsel, filed the notice Wednesday with the Clerk of Courts office at Lisbon.

The 7th District Court of Appeals earlier this week affirmed Bishop's 1958 conviction for breaking and entering the Smith & Phillips Co. store, thus rejecting an appeal filed by the defendant.

In Atty. Alexander's notice filed yesterday, he claimed "errors in proceedings prejudicial to the appellant," and violations of constitutional rights as guaranteed by law.

Bishop was one of five regular and two special officers indicted in 1956 on nine counts of burglary.

County Prosecutor G. William Brokaw today took to Youngstown legal papers which would enable the Court of Appeals to make a final entry on its affirmation ruling.

Brokaw said Bishop, currently free on $5,000 bond, could be picked up at any time, and it would be up to the Appellate Court on whether a stay of execution of the prison sentence would be granted pending the new appeal to the higher court.

Die In Unused Icebox

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Two brothers were found dead Wednesday night in an unused refrigerator in the basement of their home. Paul Kelly, 11, and Edward Kelly, 4, were discovered by a sister, Pauline, during a family hunt for the missing boys. It was her 16th birthday.

Hopes To Recover Them Intact

Air Force Ready To Fire 4 Mice Into Orbit Today

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Unofficial sources say the Air Force hopes to fire four mice into orbit around the earth today—and later recover them intact.

Western Aviation magazine stated: "Four mice will ride as passengers aboard a Discoverer III in a launch from Vandenberg Air Force Base with an attempt to be made for recovery of the payload capsule near Hawaii."

The Los Angeles Examiner said the launching would possibly be today.

Air Force officials released no information.

If the mice do go aloft, they will be the first animals the United States has tried to shoot into space and recover.

Discoverer II was launched April 13 from Vandenberg, 150 miles northwest of Los Angeles. Air Force planes from Hawaii were poised to recover the satellite's payload capsule, but a timing device failed and the payload wasn't dropped until the satellite was over the arctic on its 17th pass.

The nose cone was believed seen parachuting near Spitzbergen Island, north of Norway. A widespread search was made for it, but it was never reported found.

Western Aviation, a monthly trade publication, said that planes —trailing trapeze-like nets — will have 10 minutes to snare the falling capsule from Discoverer III if it parachutes into the Pacific area as planned.

The Air Force announced earlier that specially bred mice, of a strain thought sturdy enough for a space career, were being flown to Vandenberg for satellite tests.

Affectionate Tribute Paid Dulles By House

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House has paid affectionate tribute to cancer-stricken John Foster Dulles.

No change was reported in the condition of the former secretary of state, whose cancer illness has been complicated by pneumonia.

House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts said Wednesday, "We miss him very much. I wish him well and pray that God showers His abundance on him."

McCormack said he had no doubt that history will recognize Dulles as one of the greatest secretaries.

Representatives Walter H. Judd (R-Minn) and Fred Schwengel (R-Iowa) said Dulles already ranks as America's greatest secretary of state. They expressed hope some miracle might spare his life.

SAFETY CHECK UNDERWAY. About 200 cars were inspected in a vehicle safety check which started Wednesday afternoon at Wellsville. George Marsteller confers with Bernard Ferrance, in the driver's seat checking the brakes, while Police Capt. Pete Trainer inspects the rear tire. The check, being conducted by the Wellsville Fraternal Order of Police Associates Lodge, will conclude Saturday. The check resumed at 2 this afternoon on Clark Ave. and will start at 10 a. m. Friday and Saturday in the uptown district. Yesterday's inspections were on Riverside Ave. The check is voluntary on the part of the motorists.

Burglars Flee With $4,000 In Golf Supplies

Burglars obtained clubs and other golf supplies worth $4,000 to $5,000 Wednesday night or early today when they entered the pro shop at the Salem Golf Club, just south of Salem on State Route 45, sheriff's deputies reported at Lisbon.

Vice Leskosky, the club's pro, said the burglars took approximately 14 sets of woods, six sets of irons, 12 putters, two or three lawn umbrellas, seven empty golf bags, 40 shirts and a quantity of golf balls.

Twelve empty boxes which had contained clubs were found near the No. 9 green, directly behind the pro shop.

The burglars gained entrance by breaking a window on the south side of the building, then reaching through the opening to turn the lock.

Leskosky said the loss probably will be greater when he completes an inventory.

Carl Barnard of Salem, grounds keeper, discovered the burglary when he reported for work at 6:40 this morning. Insurance covers $4,000 of the loss.

Deputy James Miller said the burglary may be linked with the theft of a car near Leetonia last night.

George Marsteller confers with Bernard Ferrance, in the driver's seat checking the brakes, while Police Capt. Pete Trainer inspects the rear tire. The check, being conducted by the Wellsville Fraternal Order of Police Associates Lodge, will conclude Saturday. The check resumed at 2 this afternoon on Clark Ave. and will start at 10 a. m. Friday and Saturday in the uptown district. Yesterday's inspections were on Riverside Ave. The check is voluntary on the part of the motorists.

Burglars Flee With $4,000 In Golf Supplies

Burglars obtained clubs and other golf supplies worth $4,000 to $5,000 Wednesday night or early today when they entered the pro shop at the Salem Golf Club, just south of Salem on State Route 45, sheriff's deputies reported at Lisbon.

Vice Leskosky, the club's pro, said the burglars took approximately 14 sets of woods, six sets of irons, 12 putters, two or three lawn umbrellas, seven empty golf bags, 40 shirts and a quantity of golf balls.

Twelve empty boxes which had contained clubs were found near the No. 9 green, directly behind the pro shop.

The burglars gained entrance by breaking a window on the south side of the building, then reaching through the opening to turn the lock.

Leskosky said the loss probably will be greater when he completes an inventory.

Carl Barnard of Salem, grounds keeper, discovered the burglary when he reported for work at 6:40 this morning. Insurance covers $4,000 of the loss.

Deputy James Miller said the burglary may be linked with the theft of a car near Leetonia last night.

What Happens To All That Money?

Ohio's whopping budget bill of $1,808,496,400 that passed the House and was sent over to the Senate this week covers proposed spending from next July 1 to the same date in 1961. It covers two years.

It doesn't help too much to remember that it is for two years, instead of one year, like federal budget totals. But this state still hasn't hit a billion a year.

There are two important things to remember this time.

First, Gov. DiSalle has tied the budget to the appropriations bill and will resist the tendency of the Legislature to win as many votes as possible with larger appropriations while alienating as few as possible with higher taxes. Either the revenue will be in sight, or the governor will not sign the appropriations bill. Ohio cannot go into deficit spending.

The other thing is where the money goes.

The truth is that Ohioan's do not know, though there is no secret about it. Mostly, they do not want to know, because it would inhibit their complaints about the ways things are done in Columbus.

ABOUT HALF of all the money is spent on public schools and public colleges and universities.

Of the half that's left when educators have been provided for, nearly half is paid out to Ohioans who need help because they are blind, orphaned, old, or destitute. Of the one fourth still left, two-thirds is spent on Ohioans who are under treatment in state institutions.

This leaves about 14 per cent of all the money collected for all ordinary services of government—the things that once constituted the whole of government. Out of this small fraction Ohio runs the machinery of the executive, legislative and judicial branches. It takes care of public health, parks, agriculture, law enforcement and state regulations.

State highway spending, including all the money that reverts to local governments, is handled in a separate account though the total necessarily is lumped with the biennial budget.

THE POINT is that in Columbus, in Washington and in local government the high cost of government is not chargeable to government as such but to the massive cost of public responsibility for welfare.

This is not clearly understood by taxpayers. When they protest against the high cost of government, they think they are protesting against something far away, when the fact is they are complaining about the high cost of their own demands.

When and if the people, themselves, quit asking government to take care of them there will be no political profit in promising to spend more public money and the cost of government will come down. And not until then.

Hoffa Is In Politics, Too

The violent reaction from James R. Hoffa's threat of a nationwide strike if Congress were to make unions subject to antitrust laws is a sample tempest in an experimental teacup.

Congress is not about to make unions subject to antitrust laws. It will happen some day, but it will not happen while a majority of the members of the majority party in both houses of Congress are so scared of union bosses they have been known to tremble when their names are mentioned.

Nor is the president of the Teamsters Union about to depart from his senses and do the one thing that every unionist knows would lace unionism into a straitjacket for generations to come. It might even bring about the immediate installation of "chastity belts" John L. Lewis spoke of in his recent testimony on a relatively mild bill to keep unions moderately honest for the benefit of the rank-and-file members who rarely know what is being done with their money.

THE TEAMSTERS' redoubtable leader, whatever else he is charged with being, never has been charged with pernicious stupidity, which is what a nationwide strike would be.

It would be as stupid as the Germans running berserk in Europe when all they had to do was be patient, because things were coming their way.

It would be as stupid as the Japanese going amuck in the Pacific when all they had to do was await developments already in the making.

It would be as stupid as John L. Lewis doing business with left-wing organizers to get the CIO started, then having to get rid of the left-wingers before they destroyed the union movement — a threat not entirely dispelled to this day.

The catch is that human beings make a hobby of stupidity sometimes and choose unerringly to do the one most nearly calculated to undo them. It could be that Teamsters president Hoffa harbors such a hobby. If he ever did call a nationwide strike, Congress would have no choice but to lower the boom on abuses of union power.

ALL OF THIS Hoffa knows. Perhaps this is the time to remember that he is in politics too — the pressure-cooker politics of big unionism. He was talking to delegates at a convention when he made his threat.

He is not the first speaker to say what he thought his audience wanted to hear, not the first orator to go fishing for a spontaneous burst of applause.

Ask The Man Who Has Been There

In the argot of Americans, Lower Slobovia is just over the hill from Outer Mongolia. In point of distance, the two are one and the same. They're the end of the earth.

This makes it interesting to know that V. M. Molotov, once the symbol of Soviet relentlessness, is reported to be well and happy in Outer Mongolia. His name popped into the news again last week when it was revealed he would not be named Soviet ambassador to the Netherlands, a possibility that had been sputtering since last January.

A diplomatic traveler who had seen the former deputy premier of the Soviet Union in Ulan Bator, capital of Outer Mongolia, said Molotov expressed no regrets over failing to get the job and that he was happier and healthier than he had been during the years when his activities made him one of the best known figures of the Kremlin.

For readers with short memories Molotov was accused publicly of having plotted against Nikita Khrushchev. He has been in Outer Mongolia since the late summer of 1957. His sudden tumble from favor was one of the periodic shakeups that highlight official life in the Soviet Union and a noteworthy reminder that Khrushchev was confident enough to depose his politicial foes; that he did not feel compelled to kill them.

The important thing is that Molotov is well and happy. It somehow makes Outer Mongolia come a little closer to know that life in Ulan Bator can be sweet and wonderful enough to mellow even the oldest living Bolshevik — old Iron Pants, himself.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The U.S. Weather Bureau is giving "a discomfort index" with forecasts. It has developed a yardstick for measuring influence of weather on man. When the humidity is slightly below 70, 10 per cent of folks feel uncomfortable; when it passes 75 half the people feel that way and above 79 it's "the miseries."

The bureaus in many cities will now add comfort outlook to the weather outlook. Possible forecast:

For tomorrow light dissatisfaction and variable influences on your disposition, followed by a possible rise in your miseries. The area has had moderate squawking conditions for the past 24 hours but, due to a belt of extreme discomfort sweeping up from the south, a sharp change is indicated. An emotional disturbance centered in Oklahoma, may hit the East in the next day or two upsetting contentment along the Atlantic.

The outlook for the weekend is that about half the people will feel lousy, while the other half will have things less disturbing to their temperaments. Index is above 75 in Illinois and Ohio, indicating increased irritability and squawks up to 50 miles an hour with gale force yakety-yaking at some points

A cold belt coming from Canada may mix up the situation and New England is advised to take in the tender young children and see that adults watch their skin. If skin is working normally the biological effect may not be too bad. Otherwise it would be well to have electric fans, fireplace logs, umbrellas, swim suits and bearskin overcoats easily available. Washington advises that thin people with tight skins may be in for a rough weekend.

CONNECTICUT has killed the bill permitting thoroughbred horsetracks. Sister states of Massachusetts, Rhode Island and New York have them within a short distance and the Nutmeg State folks in front of mutual windows are many. But they cling to the idea the routine would be sinful if indulged in within its own boundaries. . . .

Broadway is to see a revival of a cut-rate theater - ticket agency. It's called "Ticket Corner" where seats will be available at reduced prices for shows not in the big hit category. Who remembers the drugstore in Times Square where thousands used to swarm nightly to get tickets at bargain prices? (And when the top price for the biggest hit was around $3?)

The court has just closed the case of the Andrea Doria-Stockholm collision of July 25, 1956. Everything was settled out of court but the sensational book "Collision Course," giving all details of the tragedy, alleges that separate lanes prescribed for east and westbound ships after Titanic were never subscribed to by many lines and that they are ignored today.

THE FLAT-BRIMMED straw hat, called the "skimmer," is back this summer. Haberdashers refer to it as the "boater" but we never heard of it as such. The return of this bonnet should do much to put Americans back into good physical shape. Straw hat blows off easily and, Buster, how fast and far it rolls!

Odd Facts

The movable - type kind of printing was invented in about 1440 by Johann Gutenberg in Germany. This invention made possible the printing of books at comparatively low cost and printing them spread quickly to many parts of Europe.

First man to drive a car 100 miles an hour was the Frenchman, M. Rigolly, who, on July 21, 1904, in a four - cylinder, angular-bodied Gobron-Brillie, averaged 103.56 miles per hour for one kilometer along a dusty road as Ostend, Belgium.

It's Getting There That Counts

Eisenhower Displays His Tact

By Victor Riesel

President Eisenhower looked back in anger about a year ago, Ike's ire was stirred by what he believed were unfair and unwarranted attacks upon him by virtually all important labor leaders. His fury also was provoked by the arrogance of the underworld and its challenging second government. He decided to become his own labor adviser and strategist.

Victor Riesel

Today Mr. Eisenhower appears to have cracked the solid labor front. And he is about to smash a strong section of the underworld.

It is this story of tactician Eisenhower which is the inside story of the dramatic half-hour vist of United Steelworkers President David McDonald last Thursday in New York's Waldorf Towers suite of the President of the U.S.

IT WAS McDONALD, whose tongue these days is as silvery as his hair, who telephoned the White House on Tuesday, May 12. One of McDonald's contacts had, of course, first passed on word that he would ask to see the President.

Mr. Eisenhower made the decision personally and swiftly. His secretary, Tom Stephens, rang McDonald back and said the President would be "delighted." And Stephens had exactly the word for it.

Gen. Eisenhower, who follows these things very closely these days, knew that he had angered Steelworkers everywhere by crying out against what he termed inflationary wage increases. Seeing McDonald, leader of a million Steelworkers, would reveal the pleasant relationship between the two men. It would wipe out any inference that the Steel Union leaders were unfriendly to Eisenhower.

And if I've ever heard anyone try to give an impression over and over again, it was Dave McDonald when he left the President's suite in the Waldorf Towers. By actual count, McDonald repeated 18 times in a 20-minute interview that he was a close "friend" of Mr. Eisenhower.

FURTHERMORE, when the President received news of McDonald's call last Tuesday, the chief executive knew that the Republican administration and its leaders were in for a terrific propaganda lambasting by labor's high command at its spring executive council meeting (now in session).

What better way to neutralize labor criticism than to have McDonald, leader of the AFL-CIO's biggest union publicly on a record as a close "friend" whose observations and advice are sought out on even international matters during the critical hours of the Geneva Foreign Ministers session.

Nor is this the end of all this White House fraternizing with McDonald, the labor man who put Adlai Stevenson in nomination at the 1952 Democratic convention. The White House, through USIA director George Venable Allen, has asked McDonald to visit Moscow and the World Trade Fair there at the same time Vice President Nixon arrives with a chartered plane-load of newsmen.

NONE OF THIS is keeping the President from his vendetta with the mobs inside labor. When the President looked back in anger a year ago, he decided that he would never speak out on labor laws without mentioning Sen. McClellan and the racket committee's exposure of disgusting corruption.

Since then, each time the President has expressed himself, in writing or off-the-cuff, he has mentioned McClellan. The senator was the only legislator named in the State of the Union Message, for example.

This was the President's personal decision — not to permit the public to forget the symbol of underworld exposures. This the President decided for two reasons.

He wants a strong labor reform bill. He has ordered his staff up the Hill again to work with the 140 or 150 representatives who already can be counted on to vote for a tougher law than that passed by the Senate. The President is seeking the balance of votes among Southern and Western Democrats.

His second motivation is to stir the Justice Department into even tougher action. He appears to have succeeded. The White House has received word that new indictments of racketeers "will shake the country, perhaps even the world."

That Gen. Eisenhower, he's not a bad strategist.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: Speaking of education, as I was in my letter last week and as you were in your reply, I hope some private college lines up Vice Admiral Hyman G. Rickover for its presidency when he quits building atomic power plants for seagoing craft.

His ideas about education are sound. They are so sound they would get him fired out of any tax-supported school at the end of a week. But there are some voluntary institutions that could give him a free rein—places with higher education and nothing else for sale.

Rickover advocates nothing more revolutionary or radical than making educatees work their youthful tails off—to work to the limit of their capacity. This, of course, would go over like an iron balloon in a public school.

The main idea in a public school is to have a little something for everybody so everybody will have a little something to make him look good. This is supposed to be in the spirit of democracy and the dignity of man.

Unfortunately, it is not in the spirit of education—real education, as opposed to pupil training and trade school instruction. Adm. Rickover, as I understand it, would separate trainees from educatees and go to work in earnest on the latter. He thinks they are neglected.

His immediate objective would be to bring our educatees up to the level of educatees of the same level in the Soviet Union, who are working their little tails off in mathematics and the sciences. But his long-range objective would be to set up an educational elite—a class of people who would be as respected for their mentalities as athletes are for their physical coordination.

He would abolish the absurd notion prevalent among fussy mamas that too much school work is bad for little Harold and Helen. He would repeal the conviction that little minds would be strained by too much home work and little lives blighted by too much learning.

That's why I am putting in a vote for the admiral to become president of some private college that dares to put on academic pressure. There are more of these than there used to be.

We never have really understood the spirit of democracy and the dignity of man, or public schools would be able to put on the academic pressure as relentlessly as the best private schools. We would give our bright kids a break.

We have been obsessed with making the least educable pupils look better than they are, because democracy always feels an obligation to take care of laggards. But we have done this at the expense of the most educable pupils, because it was easy to believe they would work things out for themselves.

But they have not done this well enough to convince a hard-nosed critic like Rickover that we are not going to come in a poor second to Russia, a once-backward country that is upgrading itself systematically by putting major emphasis on education. We never have put on major emphasis.

It never has seemed important. The hero here is still the self-educated man who is sure he did a bang-up job because he doesn't know how much he doesn't know. The great American success story is still the citizen who came into possession of great wealth, even if all he did was bore a hole in the ground so oil could squirt out and inundate him with riches.

The man who can meet a payroll is more important than the man who can grapple with an abstract thought, or think his way through an equation. And if the man doesn't meet the payroll, no one writes him off as a failure who wasn't geared to the world he lived in. They say he was the victim of some egghead who loused him up.

They always blame the eggheads, I notice—never themselves. But never mind. I hope they don't let Hyman Rickover get away. If he were in charge of a school, its graduates would be as famous in their way as if they had been named on all the All-American football teams.

Your aunt says for a kid who sank to his hubcaps in the eighth grade I certainly am showing a peculiar devotion to education. Regards to the family.

U.S. Stands Firm

By David Lawrence

Russians Continue To Play It Shifty

GENEVA

Face to face, the secretary of state of the United States, Christian Herter, has told the foreign minister of the Soviet Union, Andrei Gromyko, that America will not go to the summit conference under duress — that is, while any threat to impose a new military setup in West Berlin is still in effect.

David Lawrence

This episode, which occurred at a dinner given by the British foreign secretary, Selwyn Lloyd, a few nights ago, means more than all the so-called package proposals and counterproposals which have been aired at the formal sessions of the Four-Power Conference of Foreign Ministers in Geneva.

Gromyko argued that, in the ultimatum to the Western Allies to get out of West Berlin, the deadline of May 27 was just a date pulled out of the air and that he did not intend to mention it till the end of the current conference.

It was the Soviet foreign minister's hint that the Moscow government might revive the threat which prompted Secretary Herter to say very calmly but firmly that a revival of the duress factor would cause President Eisenhower to absent himself from any summit meeting later on.

ACTUALLY there is no duress being exercised today in a formal sense, for the Soviets withdrew their ultimatum before the present conference began and simply said they were considering the signing of a peace treaty with East Germany.

The brief conversation, however, between Mr. Herter and Mr. Gromyko not only illustrates the shiftiness of the Communists but demonstrates the utter futility of these foreign ministers' conferences and summit meetings. There is really no evidence at all of an intention by the Soviets to negotiate in good faith.

Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko has flagrantly disregarded even the rule of the conference that the East or West German envoys should speak only if no objection is raised by the members of the Four-Power Conference.

It had been agreed at the outset that, when either the East or West German representative wanted to talk, the chairman would ask the other foreign ministers if there were any objection. Mr. Gromyko took advantage of his turn as chairman to let the East German representative make a speech without giving the other three foreign ministers a chance to object.

Mr. Herter was scheduled to speak but Mr. Gromyko went ahead and gave the nod to the East German, anyhow.

THE INCIDENT was not important in itself but it showed how untrustworthy is the word of the Soviets. They have been eager to give the impression that this is a "six-power" conference and that East Germany is on a basis of equality with all the other countries here. This is supposed to be effective propaganda behind the Iron Curtain.

Incidents like these are rapidly steering the conference into the realm of deadlock and failure. The Soviets now have taken advantage of the widely reported story that, if the present conference fails, there will be a summit meeting anyhow and that no agreement is even then necessary because there would be a succession of summit conferences thereafter.

This writer asked someone close to one of the Western delegations whether this concept was favored and was told that the proposal was regarded as a big mistake, originated by Sen. Fulbright, Democrat, chairman of the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

It's an example of congressional meddling in diplomatic negotiations, responsibility for the conduct of which is really vested by the Constitution in the executive branch of the United States government.

If a series of foreign ministers' conferences and summit meetings are to be promised, then there is no pressure for agreement now—indeed, no sense of urgency at all. That's why the current conference is floundering.

One of the chief difficulties at Geneva is the propaganda build-up in advance of the conference. The word from America was that the President couldn't possibly turn down a bid to go to a summit meeting because of political opposition. The news reports implied also that the Allies had a "package" plan but already were prepared for "fall back" proposals.

This was given a wrong twist this week in some newspaper articles, which said that American officials were ready to talk about the status of Berlin alone and had abandoned their advocacy of the "package" plan.

THE TRUTH is that, in a general discussion the other day, some officials said, in effect, that, if the conference failed to reach any agreement on the whole "package," it might have to decide on the status of Berlin during any recess or adjournment.

There is one thing clear. The United States is not going to proceed on the assumption that the signing of a peace treaty between East Germany and the Soviet Union changes one iota the legal rights of the Allies to police the area known as West Berlin as specified in previous agreements approved by the wartime allies, including the Soviet Union.

It would be tragic, of course, if no progress were made at the current conference but the whole proceeding may be of great value nevertheless as an eye-opener to the many credulous persons on this side of the Iron Curtain who have thought the Soviet regime was abandoning its trickery and was ready to qualify as a respectable and honest government in world society.

Par For The Course

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

This Congress—as congresses go—is no fireball. Its work for the year so far is about par for the course: in mid-May a few pieces of major legislation finished, a lot more pending.

Congresses usually wind up in a rush in the last few weeks before quitting in midsummer. This one can be expected to do the same. If there's any surprise this year, it's this:

Relations between President Eisenhower and the Democratic-run Congress are still pretty gentle. Except for demanding that the Democrats keep down spending to balance his budget, he hasn't tried to use a whip.

There were guesses earlier this year — after the Democrats got overwhelming control of both houses in the 1958 elections—that they would take things into their own hands and romp over Eisenhower.

Particularly they complained early that he was asking far too little money to meet what they considered the country's needs. But his repeated demands for economy, which he made a major issue, seem to have chilled them a bit.

The one time they tried to rough him up—by hitting him with a bill they thought they could pass even over his veto—he knocked them flat, vetoed the bill, and made it stick.

This was when they tried to take some power away from Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. This was not really a money bill at all. It would have taken from Benson his present power to veto loans by the Rural Electrification Administration.

Eisenhower's veto was the 138th he had made stick since taking office in 1953, without a single upset.

It may have forced the Democrats into more modest notions about pushing him around. But it's too soon to say.

The Democrats already are flirting with another veto, this time on a housing bill.

Other tests may lie ahead on airport aid and aid to depressed areas, for which pending bills passed by one or both branches exceed Eisenhower's proposals.

But the current fight is over housing.

Earlier this year Eisenhower proposed a $1,600,000,000 housing program. This was cut-rate stuff to the Democrats. So the Senate passed a $2,600,000,000 bill and sent it to the House.

There, after knocking down a Republican attempt Wednesday to get approval for a $1,300,000,000 bill, House Democrats went on to consider a $2,100,000,000 measure. That is 500 million dollars more than Eisenhower asked and 500 millions less than the Senate thought necessary.

No matter what kind of bill the House finally passes, if it's different from the one which got through the Senate, no bill can reach Eisenhower until both houses reconcile their differences and agree on one bill in all details.

Already the House Republican leader, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, has warned the Democrats that even if the House bill gets passed in its present form, Eisenhower will veto it.

And the Democrats have no reason to think they can override this veto, either, after what happened on the last one.

What Happens To All That Money?

Ohio's whopping budget bill of $1,808,496,400 that passed the House and was sent over to the Senate this week covers proposed spending from next July 1 to the same date in 1961. It covers two years.

It doesn't help too much to remember that it is for two years, instead of one year, like federal budget totals. But this state still hasn't hit a billion a year.

There are two important things to remember this time.

First, Gov. DiSalle has tied the budget to the appropriations bill and will resist the tendency of the Legislature to win as many votes as possible with larger appropriations while alienating as few as possible with higher taxes. Either the revenue will be in sight, or the governor will not sign the appropriations bill. Ohio cannot go into deficit spending.

The other thing is where the money goes.

The truth is that Ohioan's do not know, though there is no secret about it. Mostly, they do not want to know, because it would inhibit their complaints about the ways things are done in Columbus.

ABOUT HALF of all the money is spent on public schools and public colleges and universities.

Of the half that's left when educators have been provided for, nearly half is paid out to Ohioans who need help because they are blind, orphaned, old, or destitute. Of the one fourth still left, two-thirds is spent on Ohioans who are under treatment in state institutions.

This leaves about 14 per cent of all the money collected for all ordinary services of government—the things that once constituted the whole of government. Out of this small fraction Ohio runs the machinery of the executive, legislative and judicial branches. It takes care of public health, parks, agriculture, law enforcement and state regulations.

State highway spending, including all the money that reverts to local governments, is handled in a separate account though the total necessarily is lumped with the biennial budget.

THE POINT is that in Columbus, in Washington and in local government the high cost of government is not chargeable to government as such but to the massive cost of public responsibility for welfare.

This is not clearly understood by taxpayers. When they protest against the high cost of government, they think they are protesting against something far away, when the fact is they are complaining about the high cost of their own demands.

When and if the people, themselves, quit asking government to take care of them there will be no political profit in promising to spend more public money and the cost of government will come down. And not until then.

Hoffa Is In Politics, Too

The violent reaction from James R. Hoffa's threat of a nationwide strike if Congress were to make unions subject to antitrust laws is a sample tempest in an experimental teacup.

Congress is not about to make unions subject to antitrust laws. It will happen some day, but it will not happen while a majority of the members of the majority party in both houses of Congress are so scared of union bosses they have been known to tremble when their names are mentioned.

Nor is the president of the Teamsters Union about to depart from his senses and do the one thing that every unionist knows would lace unionism into a straitjacket for generations to come. It might even bring about the immediate installation of "chastity belts" John L. Lewis spoke of in his recent testimony on a relatively mild bill to keep unions moderately honest for the benefit of the rank-and-file members who rarely know what is being done with their money.

THE TEAMSTERS' redoubtable leader, whatever else he is charged with being, never has been charged with pernicious stupidity, which is what a nationwide strike would be.

It would be as stupid as the Germans running berserk in Europe when all they had to do was be patient, because things were coming their way.

It would be as stupid as the Japanese going amuck in the Pacific when all they had to do was await developments already in the making.

It would be as stupid as John L. Lewis doing business with left-wing organizers to get the CIO started, then having to get rid of the left-wingers before they destroyed the union movement — a threat not entirely dispelled to this day.

The catch is that human beings make a hobby of stupidity sometimes and choose unerringly to do the one most nearly calculated to undo them. It could be that Teamsters president Hoffa harbors such a hobby. If he ever did call a nationwide strike, Congress would have no choice but to lower the boom on abuses of union power.

ALL OF THIS Hoffa knows. Perhaps this is the time to remember that he is in politics too — the pressure-cooker politics of big unionism. He was talking to delegates at a convention when he made his threat.

He is not the first speaker to say what he thought his audience wanted to hear, not the first orator to go fishing for a spontaneous burst of applause.

Ask The Man Who Has Been There

In the argot of Americans, Lower Slobovia is just over the hill from Outer Mongolia. In point of distance, the two are one and the same. They're the end of the earth.

This makes it interesting to know that V. M. Molotov, once the symbol of Soviet relentlessness, is reported to be well and happy in Outer Mongolia. His name popped into the news again last week when it was revealed he would not be named Soviet ambassador to the Netherlands, a possibility that had been sputtering since last January.

A diplomatic traveler who had seen the former deputy premier of the Soviet Union in Ulan Bator, capital of Outer Mongolia, said Molotov expressed no regrets over failing to get the job and that he was happier and healthier than he had been during the years when his activities made him one of the best known figures of the Kremlin.

For readers with short memories Molotov was accused publicly of having plotted against Nikita Khrushchev. He has been in Outer Mongolia since the late summer of 1957. His sudden tumble from favor was one of the periodic shakeups that highlight official life in the Soviet Union and a noteworthy reminder that Khrushchev was confident enough to depose his politicial foes; that he did not feel compelled to kill them.

The important thing is that Molotov is well and happy. It somehow makes Outer Mongolia come a little closer to know that life in Ulan Bator can be sweet and wonderful enough to mellow even the oldest living Bolshevik — old Iron Pants, himself.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The U.S. Weather Bureau is giving "a discomfort index" with forecasts. It has developed a yardstick for measuring influence of weather on man. When the humidity is slightly below 70, 10 per cent of folks feel uncomfortable; when it passes 75 half the people feel that way and above 79 it's "the miseries."

The bureaus in many cities will now add comfort outlook to the weather outlook. Possible forecast:

For tomorrow light dissatisfaction and variable influences on your disposition, followed by a possible rise in your miseries. The area has had moderate squawking conditions for the past 24 hours but, due to a belt of extreme discomfort sweeping up from the south, a sharp change is indicated. An emotional disturbance centered in Oklahoma, may hit the East in the next day or two upsetting contentment along the Atlantic.

The outlook for the weekend is that about half the people will feel lousy, while the other half will have things less disturbing to their temperaments. Index is above 75 in Illinois and Ohio, indicating increased irritability and squawks up to 50 miles an hour with gale force yakety-yaking at some points

A cold belt coming from Canada may mix up the situation and New England is advised to take in the tender young children and see that adults watch their skin. If skin is working normally the biological effect may not be too bad. Otherwise it would be well to have electric fans, fireplace logs, umbrellas, swim suits and bearskin overcoats easily available. Washington advises that thin people with tight skins may be in for a rough weekend.

CONNECTICUT has killed the bill permitting thoroughbred horsetracks. Sister states of Massachusetts, Rhode Island and New York have them within a short distance and the Nutmeg State folks in front of mutual windows are many. But they cling to the idea the routine would be sinful if indulged in within its own boundaries. . . .

Broadway is to see a revival of a cut-rate theater - ticket agency. It's called "Ticket Corner" where seats will be available at reduced prices for shows not in the big hit category. Who remembers the drugstore in Times Square where thousands used to swarm nightly to get tickets at bargain prices? (And when the top price for the biggest hit was around $3?)

The court has just closed the case of the Andrea Doria-Stockholm collision of July 25, 1956. Everything was settled out of court but the sensational book "Collision Course," giving all details of the tragedy, alleges that separate lanes prescribed for east and westbound ships after Titanic were never subscribed to by many lines and that they are ignored today.

THE FLAT-BRIMMED straw hat, called the "skimmer," is back this summer. Haberdashers refer to it as the "boater" but we never heard of it as such. The return of this bonnet should do much to put Americans back into good physical shape. Straw hat blows off easily and, Buster, how fast and far it rolls!

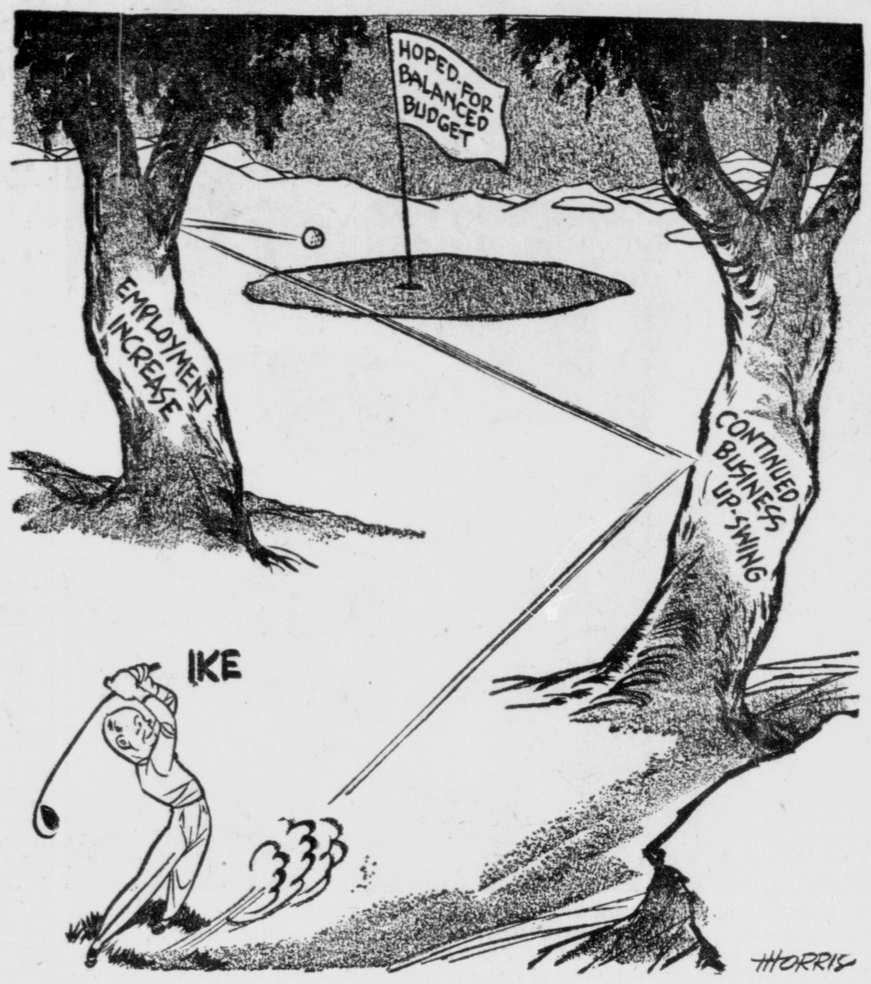
It's Getting There That Counts



Eisenhower Displays His Tact

By Victor Riesel

President Eisenhower looked back in anger about a year ago, Ike's ire was stirred by what he believed were unfair and unwarranted attacks upon him by virtually all important labor leaders. His fury also was provoked by the arrogance of the underworld and its challenging second government. He decided to become his own labor adviser and strategist.

Victor Riesel

Today Mr. Eisenhower appears to have cracked the solid labor front. And he is about to smash a strong section of the underworld.

It is this story of tactician Eisenhower which is the inside story of the dramatic half-hour vist of United Steelworkers President David McDonald last Thursday in New York's Waldorf Towers suite of the President of the U.S.

IT WAS McDONALD, whose tongue these days is as silvery as his hair, who telephoned the White House on Tuesday, May 12. One of McDonald's contacts had, of course, first passed on word that he would ask to see the President.

Mr. Eisenhower made the decision personally and swiftly. His secretary, Tom Stephens, rang McDonald back and said the President would be "delighted." And Stephens had exactly the word for it.

Gen. Eisenhower, who follows these things very closely these days, knew that he had angered Steelworkers everywhere by crying out against what he termed inflationary wage increases. Seeing McDonald, leader of a million Steelworkers, would reveal the pleasant relationship between the two men. It would wipe out any inference that the Steel Union leaders were unfriendly to Eisenhower.

And if I've ever heard anyone try to give an impression over and over again, it was Dave McDonald when he left the President's suite in the Waldorf Towers. By actual count, McDonald repeated 18 times in a 20-minute interview that he was a close "friend" of Mr. Eisenhower.

FURTHERMORE, when the President received news of McDonald's call last Tuesday, the chief executive knew that the Republican administration and its leaders were in for a terrific propaganda lambasting by labor's high command at its spring executive council meeting (now in session).

What better way to neutralize labor criticism than to have McDonald, leader of the AFL-CIO's biggest union publicly on a record as a close "friend" whose observations and advice are sought out on even international matters during the critical hours of the Geneva Foreign Ministers session.

Nor is this the end of all this White House fraternizing with McDonald, the labor man who put Adlai Stevenson in nomination at the 1952 Democratic convention. The White House, through USIA director George Venable Allen, has asked McDonald to visit Moscow and the World Trade Fair there at the same time Vice President Nixon arrives with a chartered plane-load of newsmen.

NONE OF THIS is keeping the President from his vendetta with the mobs inside labor. When the President looked back in anger a year ago, he decided that he would never speak out on labor laws without mentioning Sen. McClellan and the racket committee's exposure of disgusting corruption.

Since then, each time the President has expressed himself, in writing or off-the-cuff, he has mentioned McClellan. The senator was the only legislator named in the State of the Union Message, for example.

This was the President's personal decision — not to permit the public to forget the symbol of underworld exposures. This the President decided for two reasons.

He wants a strong labor reform bill. He has ordered his staff up the Hill again to work with the 140 or 150 representatives who already can be counted on to vote for a tougher law than that passed by the Senate. The President is seeking the balance of votes among Southern and Western Democrats.

His second motivation is to stir the Justice Department into even tougher action. He appears to have succeeded. The White House has received word that new indictments of racketeers "will shake the country, perhaps even the world."

That Gen. Eisenhower, he's not a bad strategist.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: Speaking of education, as I was in my letter last week and as you were in your reply, I hope some private college lines up Vice Admiral Hyman G. Rickover for its presidency when he quits building atomic power plants for seagoing craft.

His ideas about education are sound. They are so sound they would get him fired out of any tax-supported school at the end of a week. But there are some voluntary institutions that could give him a free rein—places with higher education and nothing else for sale.

Rickover advocates nothing more revolutionary or radical than making educatees work their youthful tails off—to work to the limit of their capacity. This, of course, would go over like an iron balloon in a public school.

The main idea in a public school is to have a little something for everybody so everybody will have a little something to make him look good. This is supposed to be in the spirit of democracy and the dignity of man.

Unfortunately, it is not in the spirit of education—real education, as opposed to pupil training and trade school instruction. Adm. Rickover, as I understand it, would separate trainees from educatees and go to work in earnest on the latter. He thinks they are neglected.

His immediate objective would be to bring our educatees up to the level of educatees of the same level in the Soviet Union, who are working their little tails off in mathematics and the sciences. But his long-range objective would be to set up an educational elite—a class of people who would be as respected for their mentalities as athletes are for their physical coordination.

He would abolish the absurd notion prevalent among fussy mamas that too much school work is bad for little Harold and Helen. He would repeal the conviction that little minds would be strained by too much home work and little lives blighted by too much learning.

That's why I am putting in a vote for the admiral to become president of some private college that dares to put on academic pressure. There are more of these than there used to be.

We never have really understood the spirit of democracy and the dignity of man, or public schools would be able to put on the academic pressure as relentlessly as the best private schools. We would give our bright kids a break.

We have been obsessed with making the least educable pupils look better than they are, because democracy always feels an obligation to take care of laggards. But we have done this at the expense of the most educable pupils, because it was easy to believe they would work things out for themselves.

But they have not done this well enough to convince a hard-nosed critic like Rickover that we are not going to come in a poor second to Russia, a once-backward country that is upgrading itself systematically by putting major emphasis on education. We never have put on major emphasis.

It never has seemed important. The hero here is still the self-educated man who is sure he did a bang-up job because he doesn't know how much he doesn't know. The great American success story is still the citizen who came into possession of great wealth, even if all he did was bore a hole in the ground so oil could squirt out and inundate him with riches.

The man who can meet a payroll is more important than the man who can grapple with an abstract thought, or think his way through an equation. And if the man doesn't meet the payroll, no one writes him off as a failure who wasn't geared to the world he lived in. They say he was the victim of some egghead who loused him up.

They always blame the eggheads, I notice—never themselves. But never mind. I hope they don't let Hyman Rickover get away. If he were in charge of a school, its graduates would be as famous in their way as if they had been named on all the All-American football teams.

Your aunt says for a kid who sank to his hubcaps in the eighth grade I certainly am showing a peculiar devotion to education. Regards to the family.

Russians Continue To Play It Shifty

GENEVA

Face to face, the secretary of state of the United States, Christian Herter, has told the foreign minister of the Soviet Union, Andrei Gromyko, that America will not go to the summit conference under duress — that is, while any threat to impose a new military setup in West Berlin is still in effect.

David Lawrence

This episode, which occurred at a dinner given by the British foreign secretary, Selwyn Lloyd, a few nights ago, means more than all the so-called package proposals and counterproposals which have been aired at the formal sessions of the Four-Power Conference of Foreign Ministers in Geneva.

Gromyko argued that, in the ultimatum to the Western Allies to get out of West Berlin, the deadline of May 27 was just a date pulled out of the air and that he did not intend to mention it till the end of the current conference.

It was the Soviet foreign minister's hint that the Moscow government might revive the threat which prompted Secretary Herter to say very calmly but firmly that a revival of the duress factor would cause President Eisenhower to absent himself from any summit meeting later on.

ACTUALLY there is no duress being exercised today in a formal sense, for the Soviets withdrew their ultimatum before the present conference began and simply said they were considering the signing of a peace treaty with East Germany.

The brief conversation, however, between Mr. Herter and Mr. Gromyko not only illustrates the shiftiness of the Communists but demonstrates the utter futility of these foreign ministers' conferences and summit meetings. There is really no evidence at all of an intention by the Soviets to negotiate in good faith.

Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko has flagrantly disregarded even the rule of the conference that the East or West German envoys should speak only if no objection is raised by the members of the Four-Power Conference.

It had been agreed at the outset that, when either the East or West German representative wanted to talk, the chairman would ask the other foreign ministers if there were any objection. Mr. Gromyko took advantage of his turn as chairman to let the East German representative make a speech without giving the other three foreign ministers a chance to object.

Mr. Herter was scheduled to speak but Mr. Gromyko went ahead and gave the nod to the East German, anyhow.

THE INCIDENT was not important in itself but it showed how untrustworthy is the word of the Soviets. They have been eager to give the impression that this is a "six-power" conference and that East Germany is on a basis of equality with all the other countries here. This is supposed to be effective propaganda behind the Iron Curtain.

Incidents like these are rapidly steering the conference into the realm of deadlock and failure. The Soviets now have taken advantage of the widely reported story that, if the present conference fails, there will be a summit meeting anyhow and that no agreement is even then necessary because there would be a succession of summit conferences thereafter.

This writer asked someone close to one of the Western delegations whether this concept was favored and was told that the proposal was regarded as a big mistake, originated by Sen. Fulbright, Democrat, chairman of the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

It's an example of congressional meddling in diplomatic negotiations, responsibility for the conduct of which is really vested by the Constitution in the executive branch of the United States government.

If a series of foreign ministers' conferences and summit meetings are to be promised, then there is no pressure for agreement now—indeed, no sense of urgency at all. That's why the current conference is floundering.

One of the chief difficulties at Geneva is the propaganda build-up in advance of the conference. The word from America was that the President couldn't possibly turn down a bid to go to a summit meeting because of political opposition. The news reports implied also that the Allies had a "package" plan but already were prepared for "fall back" proposals.

This was given a wrong twist this week in some newspaper articles, which said that American officials were ready to talk about the status of Berlin alone and had abandoned their advocacy of the "package" plan.

THE TRUTH is that, in a general discussion the other day, some officials said, in effect, that, if the conference failed to reach any agreement on the whole "package," it might have to decide on the status of Berlin during any recess or adjournment.

There is one thing clear. The United States is not going to proceed on the assumption that the signing of a peace treaty between East Germany and the Soviet Union changes one iota the legal rights of the Allies to police the area known as West Berlin as specified in previous agreements approved by the wartime allies, including the Soviet Union.

It would be tragic, of course, if no progress were made at the current conference but the whole proceeding may be of great value nevertheless as an eye-opener to the many credulous persons on this side of the Iron Curtain who have thought the Soviet regime was abandoning its trickery and was ready to qualify as a respectable and honest government in world society.

Par For The Course

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

This Congress—as congresses go—is no fireball. Its work for the year so far is about par for the course: in mid-May a few pieces of major legislation finished, a lot more pending.

Congresses usually wind up in a rush in the last few weeks before quitting in midsummer. This one can be expected to do the same. If there's any surprise this year, it's this:

Relations between President Eisenhower and the Democratic-run Congress are still pretty gentle. Except for demanding that the Democrats keep down spending to balance his budget, he hasn't tried to use a whip.

There were guesses earlier this year — after the Democrats got overwhelming control of both houses in the 1958 elections—that they would take things into their own hands and romp over Eisenhower.

Particularly they complained early that he was asking far too little money to meet what they considered the country's needs. But his repeated demands for economy, which he made a major issue, seem to have chilled them a bit.

The one time they tried to rough him up—by hitting him with a bill they thought they could pass even over his veto—he knocked them flat, vetoed the bill, and made it stick.

This was when they tried to take some power away from Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. This was not really a money bill at all. It would have taken from Benson his present power to veto loans by the Rural Electrification Administration.

Eisenhower's veto was the 138th he had made stick since taking office in 1953, without a single upset.

It may have forced the Democrats into more modest notions about pushing him around. But it's too soon to say.

The Democrats already are flirting with another veto, this time on a housing bill.

Other tests may lie ahead on airport aid and aid to depressed areas, for which pending bills passed by one or both branches exceed Eisenhower's proposals.

But the current fight is over housing.

Earlier this year Eisenhower proposed a $1,600,000,000 housing program. This was cut-rate stuff to the Democrats. So the Senate passed a $2,600,000,000 bill and sent it to the House.

There, after knocking down a Republican attempt Wednesday to get approval for a $1,300,000,000 bill, House Democrats went on to consider a $2,100,000,000 measure. That is 500 million dollars more than Eisenhower asked and 500 millions less than the Senate thought necessary.

No matter what kind of bill the House finally passes, if it's different from the one which got through the Senate, no bill can reach Eisenhower until both houses reconcile their differences and agree on one bill in all details.

Already the House Republican leader, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, has warned the Democrats that even if the House bill gets passed in its present form, Eisenhower will veto it.

And the Democrats have no reason to think they can override this veto, either, after what happened on the last one.

Wellsville Awards Assembly Held On 'Scholarship' Theme

"Scholarship" was the theme of the annual awards assembly held Wednesday by Wellsville High School. Supt. S. E. Daw spoke on "The Greater Need for Scholarship."

Bob Walker, chairman, led the salute to the flag and the award announcements were made by Mary Falconer.

Junior Chamber of Commerce Scholastic awards went to Shirley McDevitt, senior valedictorian, and Charlotte Urie, salutatorian. Kurt Schneidmiller, a junior, was honored for having made a grade of 3.75 or better. Sophomores honored by the Jaycees for having a grade average 3.75 or better were David Brookman, Marianne Dalrymple, Mary Falconer, Rodney Ferguson, Charla Grindle, Sondra Herman, Kathy Kazora, Robert Kiggins, Rosemary Pasquale, Alex Skavenski and Keith Tipton. Freshmen given recognition were Becky Clutter, Mary Ann Piatt, Richard Presutti, Jackie Stone and Mary Kay Wellington.

Wellsville High School scholastic awards went to those making an average of 3.0 or better. Cited were David Boyd, Theresa Comparetto, Bruce Falconer, Carolyn Heffner, Emily Johnson, Judy Johnson, Jack Jordan, Ronald Kampfer, Robert Keeper, George McCready, Shirley McDevitt, Pat Morrell, Charolotte Urie, Terry Weaver and Nancy Wellington, all seniors, and Clara Boyd, Pauline Craig, Pauline DeSellum, Judy Dornick, Peggy Excell, Vivian Findley, Becky Gatho, Emmie Lou Harris, Tom Hoffman, Joann Malone, Kurt Schneidmiller, Jackie Smith and Diane Wilk, all juniors.

In the special award category, Robert Keeper received the annual Bausch & Lomb honorary science award, while Jack Jordan was cited for receiving honorable mention in the state scholarship test. Agnes McIntosh received the Betty Crocker Homemaker award and the Key Club Sandy Nininger award went to James Delposen. Rita Kay DeSarro and Mary Kay Wellington were cited for outstanding achievement in Freshmen English.

Wellsville Elks Lodge 1040 selected Miss McDevitt and Miss Urie for candidates for the Ohio Elks scholarships.

Commercial citations went to 6 students for typing 70 words per minute, 2 for 65 words, one for 60 words, 6 for 55 words, and 13 for 50 words.

Emily Johnson, Carolyn Heffner, Pat Morrell and Terry Weaver were given recognition for having made an "A" average in bookkeeping while Phyllis Coen, Gerry Farina, Joyce Fraser, Joyce Keister, Pat Matheny, Carolyn Ross, Bill Smith, Jackie Smith and Betty Watson, were cited for making "A" average on shorthand.

Emily Johnson was cited as the outstanding business education student and Theresa Comparetto was named the best typist.

Tom Clark and Mike Mellott were given special awards for having made the most use of the library. Fifteen students received one-year service library awards, three were presented two - year service pins and one was given a three-year pin.

Fourteen received girls intramural awards. Thirty-two boys received awards for participation in intramural sports such as basketball, volleyball, and badminton and for having served as officials.

The Student Council award assembly committee included Mary Falconer, chairman, Phil Baldwin, Becky Gatho and Maurice Livolsi.

County's PTA Council To Elect And Install

Election and installation of officers will be held by the Columbiana County Parent - Teacher Association Friday night at 8 at Beaver Local High School.

Donald Wellington of Wellsville, a past president, will be the installing officer. The nominating committee includes Augin Bowling, chairman, Mrs. Russell Dysert, Mrs. Dorothy Bunfill and Mrs. Doris Adams.

Mrs. Floreine Broderick of Wellsville is the retiring president. Mrs. Mary Jo Kirkland of West Point and Mrs. Betty Whelan of Salineville will report on the rules to govern a scholarship. The scholarship will be awarded the first time next year.

Wellsville Awards Assembly Held On 'Scholarship' Theme

"Scholarship" was the theme of the annual awards assembly held Wednesday by Wellsville High School. Supt. S. E. Daw spoke on "The Greater Need for Scholarship."

Bob Walker, chairman, led the salute to the flag and the award announcements were made by Mary Falconer.

Junior Chamber of Commerce Scholastic awards went to Shirley McDevitt, senior valedictorian, and Charlotte Urie, salutatorian. Kurt Schneidmiller, a junior, was honored for having made a grade of 3.75 or better. Sophomores honored by the Jaycees for having a grade average 3.75 or better were David Brookman, Marianne Dalrymple, Mary Falconer, Rodney Ferguson, Charla Grindle, Sondra Herman, Kathy Kazora, Robert Kiggins, Rosemary Pasquale, Alex Skavenski and Keith Tipton. Freshmen given recognition were Becky Clutter, Mary Ann Piatt, Richard Presutti, Jackie Stone and Mary Kay Wellington.

Wellsville High School scholastic awards went to those making an average of 3.0 or better. Cited were David Boyd, Theresa Comparetto, Bruce Falconer, Carolyn Heffner, Emily Johnson, Judy Johnson, Jack Jordan, Ronald Kampfer, Robert Keeper, George McCready, Shirley McDevitt, Pat Morrell, Charolotte Urie, Terry Weaver and Nancy Wellington, all seniors, and Clara Boyd, Pauline Craig, Pauline DeSellum, Judy Dornick, Peggy Excell, Vivian Findley, Becky Gatho, Emmie Lou Harris, Tom Hoffman, Joann Malone, Kurt Schneidmiller, Jackie Smith and Diane Wilk, all juniors.

In the special award category, Robert Keeper received the annual Bausch & Lomb honorary science award, while Jack Jordan was cited for receiving honorable mention in the state scholarship test. Agnes McIntosh received the Betty Crocker Homemaker award and the Key Club Sandy Nininger award went to James Delposen. Rita Kay DeSarro and Mary Kay Wellington were cited for outstanding achievement in Freshmen English.

Wellsville Elks Lodge 1040 selected Miss McDevitt and Miss Urie for candidates for the Ohio Elks scholarships.

Commercial citations went to 6 students for typing 70 words per minute, 2 for 65 words, one for 60 words, 6 for 55 words, and 13 for 50 words.

Emily Johnson, Carolyn Heffner, Pat Morrell and Terry Weaver were given recognition for having made an "A" average in bookkeeping while Phyllis Coen, Gerry Farina, Joyce Fraser, Joyce Keister, Pat Matheny, Carolyn Ross, Bill Smith, Jackie Smith and Betty Watson, were cited for making "A" average on shorthand.

Emily Johnson was cited as the outstanding business education student and Theresa Comparetto was named the best typist.

Tom Clark and Mike Mellott were given special awards for having made the most use of the library. Fifteen students received one-year service library awards, three were presented two - year service pins and one was given a three-year pin.

Fourteen received girls intramural awards. Thirty-two boys received awards for participation in intramural sports such as basketball, volleyball, and badminton and for having served as officials.

The Student Council award assembly committee included Mary Falconer, chairman, Phil Baldwin, Becky Gatho and Maurice Livolsi.

County's PTA Council To Elect And Install

Election and installation of officers will be held by the Columbiana County Parent - Teacher Association Friday night at 8 at Beaver Local High School.

Donald Wellington of Wellsville, a past president, will be the installing officer. The nominating committee includes Augin Bowling, chairman, Mrs. Russell Dysert, Mrs. Dorothy Bunfill and Mrs. Doris Adams.

Mrs. Floreine Broderick of Wellsville is the retiring president. Mrs. Mary Jo Kirkland of West Point and Mrs. Betty Whelan of Salineville will report on the rules to govern a scholarship. The scholarship will be awarded the first time next year.

Summer Schedule Set Up By Child Counseling Here

The Child Counseling Center, with offices in Mary Patterson Memorial, will remain open this summer during June and July, but close for August.

The schedule, which will be in effect until full-time operations resume again in September, was adopted by the Board of Directors at a meeting Wednsday night in line with recommendations by the center's Advisory Council.

Elmer Namy, the center's present psychologist, will terminate his services in June to continue his education and until his successor is named the directors have provided an interim counseling program.

Mrs. Ann D. Smith, an executive of the center who has been active in its work, will accept emergency situations for counseling during this period; Paul Blair, assistant to Supt. Ralph W. Betts, will handle any matters requiring school counseling; lay counselors will be available for situations requiring religious and legal consideration, and Dr. C. H. Bailey will be on call for medical counseling.

Miss Kathleen Potter, receptionist and secretary, will be on duty during June and July to receive applications for service and to make appointments.

The function of the center also was redefined by the Advisory Council at the suggestion of the directors. The advisors' statement follows:

"The Child Counseling Center is an agency geared primarily to the counseling of both parent and child. Testing is a tool to be used only in confirming diagnosis and to plan for treatment. All referrals are accepted on an intake basis to determine need of child and parent and the problem at hand. In some instances there will be question of reading problems and retardation. It is the function of the center to determine whether such problems are emotional or a question of limited I. Q. It is recognized that the reason for referral is not always as it appears in the initial statement of the problem and, therefore, complete exploration is necessary to determine disposition."

Election of officers was deferred until the June meeting because of the illness of Mrs. J. Donald Thompson, a member of the nominating committee.

Blair, the center's vice president, presided last night during the absence of the president, Judge Louis Tobin, who is attending a meeting in Cincinnati.

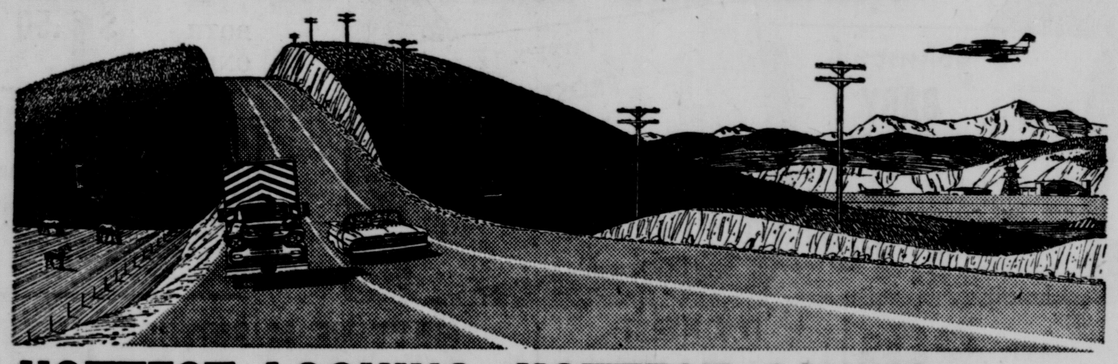
CHEVY'S THE HOTTEST ONE AGAIN!



HOTTEST LOOKING, HOTTEST SAVING,

A V8-powered Impala Convertible . . . unmistakably '59!

HOTTEST SELLING OF THE LEADING LOW-PRICED 3

What we mean—this new Chevy's whipped up a one-car heat wave. Its fresh style caught on right away, of course. But—whether you prefer a V8 or 6—where Chevrolet really leaves the other cars in the shade is out on the road. A pair of Chevy 6's came in one-two in their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run. And the winning average was 22.38 m.p.g.

Why not drop down to your dealer's and see for yourself why Chevy's this year's hottest selling car?

CHEVROLET

Try the hot one—see your local authorized Chevrolet dealer!

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Richard Frontone are residing in a new home in the Hammond Park Addition in Wellsville, following their marriage April 18 in the rectory of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church of Wellsville with the Fr. William Lawler officiating for the single-ring ceremony.

The bride is the former Miss Mary Jane Ready, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Ready of Donora, and she resided at the Mary Patterson Memorial. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Frontone, 419 Commerce St., Wellsville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blue embroidered dacron shirtwaist dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white orchids.

Miss Patricia Ready of Pittsburgh, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and wore a Navy dress with accessories to match and a corsage of pink carnations.

Angelo Sabbato, uncle of the bridegroom, was the best man.

The bride's mother wore a Navy silk dress with matching accessories and the mother of the bridegroom chose a black and white print silk suit with accessories to match. Both wore pink rosebud corsages.

A reception followed at the home of the bridegroom's parents. A three-tier cake topped with a miniature bridal couple centered the lace covered buffet table. Flowers were used throughout the home.

Aides were Miss Vina Scharf and Miss Joan Witt, friends of the bride.

For a honeymoon trip to Washington, the bride wore a black and white print dress with matching coat and her bridal corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Donora High School and is an interviewer at the Ohio State Employment Service office.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Wellsville High School and is employed by the Dravo Construction Co. at Stratton.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Helen Irene Pritchard, 417 College St., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pritchard of Poteau, Okla., to William Moore, son of Mrs. Mabel Moore of Glenmoor and the late Ernest Moore.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Poteau High School and is employed at the A. J. Olsen Co.

Her fiance is a graduate of East Liverpool High School and works at the Hamilton Gulf Service Station in Glenmoor.

The wedding will be an event of June 3 at the home of the prospective bridegroom's mother.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Plans to send a scrapbook to the state headquarters were made at the meeting of the Dauntless Friendship Federated Club Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Mabel Naylor of Glenmoor.

Mrs. Wilana Smith was named chairman to assemble local publicity items for the book.

Mrs. Ella Hafley, chaplain, gave the opening meditation.

Mrs. Dorothy Peters, president, conducted business and received Mrs. Lucille Monroe into membership.

Gifts will be purchased for eight graduates of east Liverpool High School.

Mrs. Amelia Adams, district president, will attend the district convention May 28 at the Quinn Chapel Church in Steubenville with luncheon at the Fort Steuben Hotel.

Lunch was served 12 by the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Loretta Maxwell and Mrs. Marjorie Smith.

A picnic will be held June 16 with Mrs. Edna Banks of Glenmoor.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Two tables of canasta were in play for the HGL Club Tuesday night with Miss Mildred Gardner of W. 6th St.

Trophies were won by Miss Anne Wooliscroft, Miss Mary Geon and Mrs. Eva Mae Downard, a guest.

Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Downard.

The next meeting will be June 16 with Mrs. Elaine Binder of Prospect Ave.

6 From St. Stephen's Attend Diocese Auxiliary Séssions

Six from St. Stephen's Episcopal Church attended the 82nd annual convention of the Women's Auxiliary of the Ohio Diocese of the Episcopal Church, which was held Tuesday and Wednesday at Trinity Cathedral in Cleveland.

Present at the opening session were Mrs. W. E. Dunlap Jr., Ohio Valley Regional chairman; Mrs. James Bowen, vice chairman; Mrs. Charles Larcombe, treasurer; Mrs. Clifford C. Hindley, chairman of supplies; Mrs. Robert Witherow, chairman of united thank-offering, and the Rev. Marc Anton Nocerino, rector.

More than 600 women from 118 parishes and missions attended. The major action was a decision to raise $100,000 for the endowment fund for books for Bexley Seminary Library at Kenyon College.

Mrs. R. A. J. Wellington, president, presided for business during which the name of the group was changed to the Episcopal Church Women of the Diocese of Ohio.

Mrs. Clifford C. Cowin, who organized the local Council of United Church Women, and who is a member of the National Council of Episcopal Women, spoke on the duties of the national council and the aims and purposes of women in the church.

A golden alms basin used at the opening service of the general convention was on display.

It was used at the triennial meeting in Miami last October to receive the united thank-offering—the expression in dollars and cents of a three-year cycle of prayer and thanksgiving by the women of the Episcopal Church. The alms basin symbolizes church unity.

Workshops were held in the forenoon with lunch following in the Cathedral Hall.

Business meeting was conducted in the afternoon with dinner at the Carter Hotel.

Speakers were the Bishop Nelson M. Burroughs, and Mrs. Dorothy N. Dolbey, former acting mayor of Cincinnati, who discussed "The Responsible Christian Family."

causing his truck to leave the street and strike the tree, uprooting it.

The driver of the other truck did not remain at the scene, officers said. Bennett's tractor was a total loss. Bennett's statement was supported by three eye-witnesses—Don Kerr, 2023 St. Clair Ave., James Flowers of Hammondsville R. D. 1 and Charles Copestick, 871 Valley Ave., police said.

The Pennsylvania Ave. collision, timed at 1:28 p. m., resulted in a fracture of the upper right arm for Mrs. Isabelle Howell, 32, of 169 Fawcett St. Police said she was a passenger in a 1955 sedan driven by her husband, Charles F. Howell, 38, which was involved in a collision with a 1956 two-door sedan operated by Harry J. Shaw, 218 Indiana Ave., Chester.

The crash occurred in front of the driveway leading into a trailer park, officers said. Howell told police he was going west about 25 miles an hour when Shaw made a left turn in front of him, attempting to enter the trailer park.

Minister's Family Escapes Crash Injury

An East Fairfield minister's wife and her two small children escaped injury Wednesday when she braked her car to avoid a head-on collision on the Route 7 hill north of Rogers.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Mrs. Mark George, 28, of East Fairfield was driving south when she saw an auto, operated by James Hutchinson, 49, of Wheeling, passing another vehicle headed north.

Officers said Mrs. George lost control of the auto when she applied the brakes and it swerved into guardrails along the road. She and her son, Gary, 2, and daughter, Janet, 8-months, were unhurt, while the car received moderate damage. The mishap occurred at 9:30 a. m.

Hutchinson was cited for reckless operation.

Runaway Vehicle Victims Now 'Good'

Two women injured Tuesday night when a parked station wagon was shifted into gear and smashed into a Chester home are in "good" condition today at City Hospital.

Mrs. Lucy Kennedy of Curry St. and Mrs. Sarah Moore of Alley A, Chester, suffered cuts and bruises when Mrs. Kennedy's vehicle rammed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Finley of 3rd St.

Mrs. Kennedy, visiting in Chester, had stopped the vehicle to chase an insect inside, and Mrs. Moore had volunteered to help her when the station wagon, its motor idling, suddenly moved forward and struck the nearby home, wrecking the front wall and injuring Mrs. Finley, who was treated at the hospital and released.

Newly-Purchased Auto Catches Fire As Short Develops

A LaCroft motorist, driving a car he purchased only a few days ago, ran into trouble this morning.

Firemen said Richard Sullivan of 8th Ave., LaCroft, was driving on Lisbon St. about 10 a. m. when a short developed and set fire to the engine. Pleasant Heights firemen were called but the blaze was out on arrival.

Firemen said a battery cable worked loose and the cable fell on the voltage regulator, shorting it out.

Firemen were called to Ralston's Crossing shortly after 5 p. m. Wednesday on a call that a freight train was on fire.

Firemen said they found a fire in one car and fuel oil leaking from another and ordered the crew to leave the cars at a West End siding. Firemen checked back on the cars at 8:45 p. m.

Chief Charles Bryan and Asst. Chief Alfred Van Dyne used the aerial ladder yesterday to paint five flagpoles. The flagpoles were located at City Hospital, in the Diamond, American Legion Post 374 home in the East End, Myler Park baseball field and Spring Grove Cemetery.

New ropes were added to the poles at the American Legion home and Myler Park, Chief Bryan said.

Water service would be off completely or curtailed severely when the reservoir was drained.

However, the make-shift service system devised by the department proved much better than expected, Robinson pointed out.

"It made a liar out of me, but I'm glad it did," Robinson said. "We had to prepare our customers for the eventuality of no water, but it didn't work out that way."

Water is feeding downgrade on St. Clair Ave. from North St. in a 10-inch line, providing service for most of the affected areas. The pumping plant near the state line is working constantly to feed water direct to the mains, bypassing the reservoir. The two standpipes on Henry Ave. also are supplying water to areas they do not normally serve. The inter - connection between the three sections of the system — high service, standpipes and the low service reservoir on Thompson Ave. — made it possible to maintain the supplies, Robinson said.

Work Interrupted

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—A bulldozer breaking ground for a high school shattered a jar in which $20 in gold coins had been buried. All work stopped. Workers and spectators rushed for the coins, then scratched the earth for more. About 25 were found before the hunt finished and work resumed.

Patrol Investigates Auto-Truck Collision

The Wintersville barracks of the State Highway Patrol today was investigating a collision this morning between an auto and a truck on the new stretch of Route 7 near the Yellow Creek bridge.

Wellsville police said no one was injured and apparently only minor damage resulted. The mishap occurred about 11 a. m.

The collision reportedly involved an Ohio Edison Co. truck and a car bearing Pennsylvania plates.

The only U. S. president who lived to see his son become president was John Adams. He lived for more than a year after the inauguration of John Quincy Adams.

causing his truck to leave the street and strike the tree, uprooting it.

The driver of the other truck did not remain at the scene, officers said. Bennett's tractor was a total loss. Bennett's statement was supported by three eye-witnesses—Don Kerr, 2023 St. Clair Ave., James Flowers of Hammondsville R. D. 1 and Charles Copestick, 871 Valley Ave., police said.

The Pennsylvania Ave. collision, timed at 1:28 p. m., resulted in a fracture of the upper right arm for Mrs. Isabelle Howell, 32, of 169 Fawcett St. Police said she was a passenger in a 1955 sedan driven by her husband, Charles F. Howell, 38, which was involved in a collision with a 1956 two-door sedan operated by Harry J. Shaw, 218 Indiana Ave., Chester.

The crash occurred in front of the driveway leading into a trailer park, officers said. Howell told police he was going west about 25 miles an hour when Shaw made a left turn in front of him, attempting to enter the trailer park.

Minister's Family Escapes Crash Injury

An East Fairfield minister's wife and her two small children escaped injury Wednesday when she braked her car to avoid a head-on collision on the Route 7 hill north of Rogers.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Mrs. Mark George, 28, of East Fairfield was driving south when she saw an auto, operated by James Hutchinson, 49, of Wheeling, passing another vehicle headed north.

Officers said Mrs. George lost control of the auto when she applied the brakes and it swerved into guardrails along the road. She and her son, Gary, 2, and daughter, Janet, 8-months, were unhurt, while the car received moderate damage. The mishap occurred at 9:30 a. m.

Hutchinson was cited for reckless operation.

Harry C. Newmaker, 54, of 1010 Heck Rd., East Palestine, was cited for driving left of center after his car hit a utility pole along Route 14 yesterday morning.

SIZES 12—20

By ANNE ADAMS

When you walk or turn, the back flares dramatically! Twin pleats contrast with a closely-curved front hip — accented to create a smooth, long-waited line. Choose cotton, silk.

Printed Pattern 4678: Misses' Sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 16 takes 3¾ yards 35-inch fabric.

Send 50 cents in coins for this pattern to Anne Adams, in care of the East Liverpool Review, 49 Pattern Dept., 243 W. 17th St., New York 11, N. Y. Print plainly your name, address, size and the style number.

Speakers Are Set For Exercises At Mt. Union June 7

ALLIANCE, Ohio — Members of the Mount Union College graduating class will hear two prominent Ohio educators when they participate in the school's graduation ceremonies Sunday, June 7.

Dr. John W. Dickhaut, president of the new Methodist Theological School in Ohio outside Delaware, will present "This Is The Day" for the 150 seniors at baccalaureate services, while Paul Weaver, president of Lake Erie College, will give the commencement address, "A Biography Of Mankind."

Baccalaureate will be at 11 a. m., with commencement at 3 p. m. Both will be held in Memorial Hall.

Teenage Drag Racer Cited For Manslaughter

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A teenage drag racer accused of causing a traffic accident that killed three persons was convicted of manslaughter Wednesday.

Robert Clarence Fennewald, 18, was sentenced to a year in jail and fined $1,000 in Circuit Court.

Witnesses said Fennewald was racing at speeds of more than 100 miles an hour last Nov. 23 in North St. Louis just before the accident. They said he forced the car he was racing into the wrong lane, where it collided with another car.

Yes, It Would Have Quite A Bit Of Bearing

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP)—Darcus E. Soles of Tabor City wrote Prof. Jasper L. Memory Jr., director of the Wake Forest College summer session, that it was Miss, not Mister Soles.

"I thought that I should call your attention to this as it will probably have some bearing on the room assignment," Darcus wrote after receiving a letter from the school addressed to Mr. Soles.

Prof. Memory decided it had quite a bit of bearing. Red-faced, he reassigned her from a men's to a women's dormitory.

He Married Her Just To Win Bet At Party

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pretty Anita June Jackson, 19, said that after their marriage ceremony her husband Rex, 25, left her.

She said that three days later he met her on the street, told her he had married her to win a bet at a party, and added: "Why worry? You're not hurt."

Mrs. Jackson's testimony won her an annulment.

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

Fan Mail Termed 'Confusing'

Most television programming is motivated, we're told, by the "give the people what they want" factor—a practice that cannot be argued because television is a profit-making business that caters to mass tastes.

Marie Torre

What can be argued, though, is the yardstick used by the networks to determine the wants of the people. Since courage of convictions is not a virtue of the average television executive, industry men rely on the educated guesses of Nielsen,, Trendex, Pulse, et al, to guide them in programming decisions.

And the decimal points are watched with a deadly dedication, even though the accuracy of the rating surveys are as open to doubt as Zsa Zsa Gabor's age.

AT THE NIELSEN CO., they get their ratings through an electronic device called the Audimeter which is attached to television sets in 1,050 selected homes around the country.

Trendex gets its "instant" rating by phoning about 1,000 homes.

The American Research Bureau arrives at its multi-city rating on the basis of 500 homes.

Incredible as it sounds, the networks so completely accept these surveys reaching a minute fraction of the audience that they disregard voluminous amounts of letters in which the people gratuitously tell them what it is they want.

-:-

"THE VOICE of Firestone" is both a current and prime example. No show in recent times has created as great a stir among the letter-writing viewers.

For weeks, ever since it was learned that none of the networks would accommodate the show in prime time next season, mail protests have been dispatched to all the networks daily, and to every TV columnist in and out of town.

The columnists have noted the influx of mail, but not the networks. The fact that "Firestone" is still without a fall home indicates that television executives either are too busy to read letters, or that they can't read at all.

Another big mail puller of the day is "The Jimmy Dean Show." A couple of weeks ago the hillbilly troubadour was given notice because his ratings weren't commensurate with CBS ambitions.

Dean, anxious to make an audience test of his own, recently asked viewers to send in wrappers from one of his sponsor's products, and 84,000 letters had come in, all of them containing wrappers and glowing words about the show.

CBS OFFICIALS however, have expressed no interest in the letters. They breathlessly await word each month from Nielsen's 1,050 homes, Trendex's 1,000 homes, and ARB's 500 homes, but Dean's 84,000 letters have been tossed off as "induced mail."

Speakers Are Set For Exercises At Mt. Union June 7

ALLIANCE, Ohio — Members of the Mount Union College graduating class will hear two prominent Ohio educators when they participate in the school's graduation ceremonies Sunday, June 7.

Dr. John W. Dickhaut, president of the new Methodist Theological School in Ohio outside Delaware, will present "This Is The Day" for the 150 seniors at baccalaureate services, while Paul Weaver, president of Lake Erie College, will give the commencement address, "A Biography Of Mankind."

Baccalaureate will be at 11 a. m., with commencement at 3 p. m. Both will be held in Memorial Hall.

Teenage Drag Racer Cited For Manslaughter

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A teenage drag racer accused of causing a traffic accident that killed three persons was convicted of manslaughter Wednesday.

Robert Clarence Fennewald, 18, was sentenced to a year in jail and fined $1,000 in Circuit Court.

Witnesses said Fennewald was racing at speeds of more than 100 miles an hour last Nov. 23 in North St. Louis just before the accident. They said he forced the car he was racing into the wrong lane, where it collided with another car.

Yes, It Would Have Quite A Bit Of Bearing

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP)—Darcus E. Soles of Tabor City wrote Prof. Jasper L. Memory Jr., director of the Wake Forest College summer session, that it was Miss, not Mister Soles.

"I thought that I should call your attention to this as it will probably have some bearing on the room assignment," Darcus wrote after receiving a letter from the school addressed to Mr. Soles.

Prof. Memory decided it had quite a bit of bearing. Red-faced, he reassigned her from a men's to a women's dormitory.

He Married Her Just To Win Bet At Party

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pretty Anita June Jackson, 19, said that after their marriage ceremony her husband Rex, 25, left her.

She said that three days later he met her on the street, told her he had married her to win a bet at a party, and added: "Why worry? You're not hurt."

Mrs. Jackson's testimony won her an annulment.

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

Fan Mail Termed 'Confusing'

Most television programming is motivated, we're told, by the "give the people what they want" factor—a practice that cannot be argued because television is a profit-making business at caters to mass tastes.

Marie Torre

What can be argued, though, is the yardstick used by the networks to determine the wants of the people. Since courage of convictions is not a virtue of the average television executive, industry men rely on the educated guesses of Nielsen,, Trendex, Pulse, et al, to guide them in programming decisions.

And the decimal points are watched with a deadly dedication, even though the accuracy of the rating surveys are as open to doubt as Zsa Zsa Gabor's age.

AT THE NIELSEN CO., they get their ratings through an electronic device called the Audimeter which is attached to television sets in 1,050 selected homes around the country.

Trendex gets its "instant" rating by phoning about 1,000 homes.

The American Research Bureau arrives at its multi-city rating on the basis of 500 homes.

Incredible as it sounds, the networks so completely accept these surveys reaching a minute fraction of the audience that they disregard voluminous amounts of letters in which the people gratuitously tell them what it is they want.

-:-

"THE VOICE of Firestone" is both a current and prime example. No show in recent times has created as great a stir among the letter-writing viewers.

For weeks, ever since it was learned that none of the networks would accommodate the show in prime time next season, mail protests have been dispatched to all the networks daily, and to every TV columnist in and out of town.

The columnists have noted the influx of mail, but not the networks. The fact that "Firestone" is still without a fall home indicates that television executives either are too busy to read letters, or that they can't read at all.

Another big mail puller of the day is "The Jimmy Dean Show." A couple of weeks ago the hillbilly troubadour was given notice because his ratings weren't commensurate with CBS ambitions.

Dean, anxious to make an audience test of his own, recently asked viewers to send in wrappers from one of his sponsor's products, and 84,000 letters had come in, all of them containing wrappers and glowing words about the show.

CBS OFFICIALS however, have expressed no interest in the letters. They breathlessly await word each month from Nielsen's 1,050 homes, Trendex's 1,000 homes, and ARB's 500 homes, but Dean's 84,000 letters have been tossed off as "induced mail."

Chefalo, Ruckman Win Doubles . . .

It may look a little fishy, but the president and secretary of the National League won the doubles championship Monday night.

Pete Chefalo, president, and Claude Ruckman, secretary, combined for a 1,194 total to edge Marty Fridrick and John Canne, who finished with a 1,187.

Dave McFaul and Ed Daugherty finished with a 437 for high game out of the money.

The annual City Association banquet for the American, National and Federal League bowlers will be held Wednesday June 3 at 6:30 in the Travelers Hotel.

All bowlers are asked to pay their $1 banquet fee to their respective secretarys.

Gengarellas won the second-half championship of the National League Tuesday night by defeating Owls Club, 2,940 to 2,739.

Gengarellas, who will now meet Rearks for the league championship, fired games of 1,062, 946 and 932.

Steve Komara led the way for the Gengarella squad with a 571 series featured by games of 211 and 203, while Moe Roslovic had a 562.

Red Pickering threw a 551 scratch series and Frank Benedict turned in a 548 and a 224 games.

George Simballa, with a 588, topped the Owls Club. His 247 total was the best score of the evening.

John Canne finished with a 514 series and Chuck Stewart a 512.

Tea Pot On Top In Cosmo League . . .

THE TEA POT entry in the Cosmo League took home honors in the fourth and final round Wednesday night.

The winners finished way out in front with 36 points while Columbiana Finance and Donna's were the closest rivals with 29 points each.

Top games rolled on the final night included a 186 and 175 by Martha Simms and Ann Creaturo's 177 and 165.

The Tea Pot team will meet McNutt's Insurance in a roll-off to determine the winner of the second half on Tuesday, while the league doubles begin next Wednesday at 7 p. m.

The annual banquet for the Cosmo League will be held Wednesday June 3 at 6:30 p. m. at the St. Anthony Club in Midland. All reservations must be in by May 27.

—:—

DICK HAHN of Salem won the all-events division of the Ohio State Bowling tournament over the weekend with a total of 2,018.

—:—

THE CATS AND DOGS League will hold its mixed doubles Sunday night at the Don-Bus Alleys.

—:—

THE WOODCHOPPERS League, another Summer loop, got under way this week at the Head Pin in East End.

The home team — the Head Pin—broke on top along with "Team 4". The other two teams are Holiday Lounge and Les's Tavern.

—:—

MILLIRONS have jumped up to a six-point lead in the Harmony League at the Head Pin. The Milliron squad captured its second straight set by sweeping three straight from Muzzy's Bar.

Tigers Plunk Yanks To Cellar, 13-6

By ED WILKS
AP Sports Writer

KER-PLUNK!

The Yankees are last.

The club that has won nine American League pennants and seven world championships in 10 years is in the cellar.

You have to go back to May 25, 1940, to find a set of standings that shows the New York Yankees in eighth place at this stage of the season. And those 1940 Yankees, too, were world champions. They had won four consecutive World Series, and had swept the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati in four straight in 1938 and 1939.

Yet that New York Yankee club too was last. By Aug. 9 it still was only a .500 team (51-51), and while it was to make a brief stand in first place, it finished third — missing a fifth consecutive pennant by three games.

Detroit was the champion, by one game over Cleveland.

Of the 16 players Manager Casey Stengel used as Detroit plunked the Yankees into the cellar with a 13-6 crash Wednesday, only Enos Slaughter was in organized ball in 1940. He was the 24-year-old country boy playing outfield for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Stengel? He was managing the National League's old Boston Bees, who escaped the cellar in the last month and finished seventh.

While the nation's baseball fans eyed the bottom of the AL standings, Cleveland clung to the top with a 5-3 victory at Washington Wednesday night. The Chicago White Sox remained within half a game of the Indians by beating Baltimore 5-2. Kansas City qhipped Boston 8-2.

Right-hander Frank Lary gave up a two-run homer to Yogi Berra in the first inning, then blanked the Yankees on four hits until the ninth, when Mickey Mantle's homer and Berra's second scored four runs.

Eddie Yost had three of Detroit's 19 hits and drove in six runs with two homers, one a grand slam. That was after Charlie Maxwell singled home two runs for a tie in the fifth against loser Bobby Shantz (0-2) and Gail Harris then broke the deadlock with a homer that opened a three-run sixth.

Rocky Colavito and Vic Power each drove in a pair of runs for the Indians. Herb Score (4-2) beat the Senators on six hits.

Dick Donovan (2-2) gained his first complete game for the White Sox with a four-hitter. The Sox, who twice came from behind, won it in the fifth on singles by Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox and Sherm Lollar's sacrifice fly that made it 3-2.

A two-run single by Frank House gave the A's a 3-1 lead in the fourth. Roger Maris drove in three runs, two with his 10th homer.

American Loop Dominates Preview

Little Leaguers Draw 250 To Preview

American League teams dominated action at the annual Little League preview Wednesday at Myler Park with some 250 fans looking on.

The American League took three of the four two-inning contests and the best the National League could do was settle for a deadlock when Burbicks tied Golden Star 1-1.

The Travelers Hotel Yankees defeated McBurneys, 4-2, while Homer Laughlin measured the Medics by the same 4-2 margin.

Millirons turned in the only shutout of the evening with a 3-0 decision over Chester Legion.

Two Little Leaguers got off to a fast start when Keith Locke of the Travelers banged a home run and Dave Chetwynd of the Medics connected for a roundtripper.

The regular Little League season will get underway Monday with a full schedule of three games on tap. Burbicks will meet Chester Legion in the opener at Myler Park. Medics faces McBurneys at Columbian and Travelers and Laughlins tangle at Thompson.

The honor guard of VFW Post 66 presented the colors prior to last night's preview and invocation was given by the Rev. Russell Owens.

The "first ball" was thrown out by Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross who spoke briefly before the action got underway.

SAFETY SERVICE director Joseph F. Ross (center) gets ready to uncork the "first pitch" which got the 1959 Little League season underway Wednesday when East Liverpool's eight Little League teams performed in a preview at Myler Park. Ross is shown with H. A. (Hap) Tullis, (left) vice president of Little League, and Dick Forzano (right) Little League commissioner. If you notice, the safety director is a righthander.

Commission Recesses On Fight Debate

NEW YORK (AP)—Round and round the Ray Robinson-Carmen Basilio debate goes. Where it will stop nobody knows.

The New York State Athletic Commission, which appears about ready to strip Robinson of his title, has recessed its hearing until Friday afternoon. Basilio sweated it out Wednesday while lawyers objected and took exceptions to a stream of questions.

The issue revolved on Robinson's compliance or failure to comply with an April 30 order by the State Supreme Court and the commission to "enter into articles of agreement to defend against Basilio in 15 days (May 15) or risk vacating the title."

Robinson claims he has entered into an agreement to fight Basilio in Philadelphia Sept. 31 for promoter Sam Rose. Part of the contract was filed with the commission Monday. The rest was to have been produced Wednesday. It didn't show.

The commission ruled it was evident the Pennsylvania contract was invalid because it was not between two licensees.

When the session was all over, the chances of a Robinson-Basilio fight seemed less than ever.

Large Field Expected For Alliance Dog Show

From 500 to 700 entries are expected in the 14th annual all-breed dog show sponsored by the Columbiana County Kennel Club, Inc., on Saturday, June 6, at Alliance.

Dan McDonald of East Liverpool, president of the club, reminded local owners that entries will close Tuesday noon on May 26.

Entry blanks may be obtained from Mrs. Helen McDonald, secretary, at 865 Dresden Ave. or by calling FU. 5-5666.

The Columbiana County show, to be held at the Elks Club in Alliance, will tie in with the Rubber City Kennel Club's show at Akron on June 7.

The two events in succession will give dog owners more of an opportunity to show their dogs for championship points.

More than half the entries will come from the East, including New York and Pennsylvania. Other entries are due from Ohio and Illinois.

The annual show was held in East Liverpool five years ago, but has since shifted to Alliance.

Some of the top judges in the country will be officiating. They include William H. Acklan of Washington, C. H. Coleman of Akron, Loy F. Green of Berea, Charles Krebs of Louisville, Kay Alfred LePine of Carrollton, Mrs. Irene Miles of Mansfield and Robert E. Noltie of Toledo.

Proceeds from the show will be turned over to the Alliance Elks for their Cerebral Palsy Fund.

Machen Wins, Seeks To Halt Title Match

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Heavyweight contender Eddie Machen, victorious Wednesday night over unranked Rueben Vargas, now switches his battling to the courts, seeking to halt the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson title bout.

Eddie and his pilot, Sid Flaherty, are scheduled to appear in federal court in New York June 1 when their petition seeking to force Johansson into a return bout with Machen will be heard.

A verdict favoring Eddie could disrupt plans for the June 25 meeting in New York between champion Patterson and the Swede who kayoed Machen Sept. 14. Flaherty contends he and Eddie hold a contract calling for the return match before Inge boxes anyone else.

Wednesday night in the nationally televised 10-rounder at the Cow Palace, Machen found tough going in the early and late rounds against Vargas. But Eddie's jab kept his onrushing foe off balance sufficiently to bring him an unanimous but close and unpopular verdict.

Vargas, of Richmond, Calif., who weighed 189½, entered the ring a favorite. Machen, of Redding, Calif., weighed 197½.

Team To Practice

The Glenmoor United Presbyterian softball team will practice Friday at 6 p. m. at the field behind Glenmoor school. Anyone interested in trying out are requested to attend the practice session.

Yankees' New Position Sends Critics Thumbing

NEW YORK (AP)—The world champion New York Yankees are in last place in the American League.

Sports critics are thumbing through baseball record books to discover when last the haughty New Yorkers were in such humble circumstances at this stage of a pennant race.

Fans give varied opinions as to the causes of the strange situation. The ideas range from the opinion that the club has had it, to the hopeful—among its followers—suggestion that it is just a temporary slump that got out of hand.

The last time the Yankees were in the basement at an equivalent stage of the race was May 25, 1940. The last of the two times the club finished in the cellar was in 1912, and the last time it spent the season in the second division was in 1925.

The calmest— outwardly —man in all the confusion is Manager Casey Stengel, who maintained his aplomb even after the Detroit Tigers dumped the world champions into the cellar Wednesday by whomping them 13-6.

Quietly, and without bitterness, the man who has won nine pennants and seven world championships in his 10 seasons with the team discussed its problems.

The nearest he came to a threat was the comment: "I expect those pitchers of ours realize that they will have to do better than that (what they did Wednesday) or they can't stay around."

He had previously pointed to lack of timely hitting as the basis for the troubles. He reckoned the hitting Wednesday wasn't too bad.

That he has confidence the team is better than its record might indicate was hinted by his statement that "I think three or four clubs will pay for those runs before the season is over."

The Yankees now have won 12 and lost 19 games for a percentage of .387.

Chefalo, Ruckman Win Doubles . . .

It may look a little fishy, but the president and secretary of the National League won the doubles championship Monday night.

Pete Chefalo, president, and Claude Ruckman, secretary, combined for a 1,194 total to edge Marty Fridrick and John Canne, who finished with a 1,187.

Dave McFaul and Ed Daugherty finished with a 437 for high game out of the money.

The annual City Association banquet for the American, National and Federal League bowlers will be held Wednesday June 3 at 6:30 in the Travelers Hotel.

All bowlers are asked to pay their $1 banquet fee to their respective secretarys.

Gengarellas won the second-half championship of the National League Tuesday night by defeating Owls Club, 2,940 to 2,739.

Gengarellas, who will now meet Rearks for the league championship, fired games of 1,062, 946 and 932.

Steve Komara led the way for the Gengarella squad with a 571 series featured by games of 211 and 203, while Moe Roslovic had a 562.

Red Pickering threw a 551 scratch series and Frank Benedict turned in a 548 and a 224 games.

George Simballa, with a 588, topped the Owls Club. His 247 total was the best score of the evening.

John Canne finished with a 514 series and Chuck Stewart a 512.

Tea Pot On Top In Cosmo League . . .

THE TEA POT entry in the Cosmo League took home honors in the fourth and final round Wednesday night.

The winners finished way out in front with 36 points while Columbiana Finance and Donna's were the closest rivals with 29 points each.

Top games rolled on the final night included a 186 and 175 by Martha Simms and Ann Creaturo's 177 and 165.

The Tea Pot team will meet McNutt's Insurance in a roll-off to determine the winner of the second half on Tuesday, while the league doubles begin next Wednesday at 7 p. m.

The annual banquet for the Cosmo League will be held Wednesday June 3 at 6:30 p. m. at the St. Anthony Club in Midland. All reservations must be in by May 27.

Tigers Plunk Yanks To Cellar, 13-6

By ED WILKS
AP Sports Writer

KER-PLUNK!

The Yankees are last.

The club that has won nine American League pennants and seven world championships in 10 years is in the cellar.

You have to go back to May 25, 1940, to find a set of standings that shows the New York Yankees in eighth place at this stage of the season. And those 1940 Yankees, too, were world champions. They had won four consecutive World Series, and had swept the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati in four straight in 1938 and 1939.

Yet that New York Yankee club too was last. By Aug. 9 it still was only a .500 team (51-51), and while it was to make a brief stand in first place, it finished third — missing a fifth consecutive pennant by three games.

Detroit was the champion, by one game over Cleveland.

Of the 16 players Manager Casey Stengel used as Detroit plunked the Yankees into the cellar with a 13-6 crash Wednesday, only Enos Slaughter was in organized ball in 1940. He was the 24-year-old country boy playing outfield for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Stengel? He was managing the National League's old Boston Bees, who escaped the cellar in the last month and finished seventh.

While the nation's baseball fans eyed the bottom of the AL standings, Cleveland clung to the top with a 5-3 victory at Washington Wednesday night. The Chicago White Sox remained within half a game of the Indians by beating Baltimore 5-2. Kansas City qhipped Boston 8-2.

Right-hander Frank Lary gave up a two-run homer to Yogi Berra in the first inning, then blanked the Yankees on four hits until the ninth, when Mickey Mantle's homer and Berra's second scored four runs.

Eddie Yost had three of Detroit's 19 hits and drove in six runs with two homers, one a grand slam. That was after Charlie Maxwell singled home two runs for a tie in the fifth against loser Bobby Shantz (0-2) and Gail Harris then broke the deadlock with a homer that opened a three-run sixth.

Rocky Colavito and Vic Power each drove in a pair of runs for the Indians. Herb Score (4-2) beat the Senators on six hits.

Dick Donovan (2-2) gained his first complete game for the White Sox with a four-hitter. The Sox, who twice came from behind, won it in the fifth on singles by Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox and Sherm Lollar's sacrifice fly that made it 3-2.

A two-run single by Frank House gave the A's a 3-1 lead in the fourth. Roger Maris drove in three runs, two with his 10th homer.

American Loop Dominates Preview

Little Leaguers Draw 250 To Preview

American League teams dominated action at the annual Little League preview Wednesday at Myler Park with some 250 fans looking on.

The American League took three of the four two-inning contests and the best the National League could do was settle for a deadlock when Burbicks tied Golden Star 1-1.

The Travelers Hotel Yankees defeated McBurneys, 4-2, while Homer Laughlin measured the Medics by the same 4-2 margin.

Millirons turned in the only shutout of the evening with a 3-0 decision over Chester. Legion.

Two Little Leaguers got off to a fast start when Keith Locke of the Travelers banged a home run and Dave Chetwynd of the Medics connected for a roundtripper.

The regular Little League season will get underway Monday with a full schedule of three games on tap. Burbicks will meet Chester Legion in the opener at Myler Park, Medics faces McBurneys at Columbian and Travelers and Laughlins tangle at Thompson.

The honor guard of VFW Post 66 presented the colors prior to last night's preview and invocation was given by the Rev. Russell Owens.

The "first ball" was thrown out by Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross who spoke briefly before the action got underway.

Commission Recesses On Fight Debate

NEW YORK (AP)—Round and round the Ray Robinson-Carmen Basilio debate goes. Where it will stop nobody knows.

The New York State Athletic Commission, which appears about ready to strip Robinson of his title, has recessed its hearing until Friday afternoon. Basilio sweated it out Wednesday while lawyers objected and took exceptions to a stream of questions.

The issue revolved on Robinson's compliance or failure to comply with an April 30 order by the State Supreme Court and the commission to "enter into articles of agreement to defend against Basilio in 15 days (May 15) or risk vacating the title."

Robinson claims he has entered into an agreement to fight Basilio in Philadelphia Sept. 31 for promoter Sam Rose. Part of the contract was filed with the commission Monday. The rest was to have been produced Wednesday. It didn't show.

The commission ruled it was evident the Pennsylvania contract was invalid because it was not between two licensees.

When the session was all over, the chances of a Robinson-Basilio fight seemed less than ever.

Large Field Expected For Alliance Dog Show

From 500 to 700 entries are expected in the 14th annual all-breed dog show sponsored by the Columbiana County Kennel Club, Inc., on Saturday, June 6, at Alliance.

Dan McDonald of East Liverpool, president of the club, reminded local owners that entries will close Tuesday noon on May 26.

Entry blanks may be obtained from Mrs. Helen McDonald, secretary, at 865 Dresden Ave. or by calling FU. 5-5666.

The Columbiana County show, to be held at the Elks Club in Alliance, will tie in with the Rubber City Kennel Club's show at Akron on June 7.

The two events in succession will give dog owners more of an opportunity to show their dogs for championship points.

More than half the entries will come from the East, including New York and Pennsylvania. Other entries are due from Ohio and Illinois.

The annual show was held in East Liverpool five years ago, but has since shifted to Alliance.

Some of the top judges in the country will be officiating. They include William H. Acklan of Washington, C. H. Coleman of Akron, Loy F. Green of Berea, Charles Krebs of Louisville, Kay Alfred LePine of Carrollton, Mrs. Irene Miles of Mansfield and Robert E. Noltie of Toledo.

Proceeds from the show will be turned over to the Alliance Elks for their Cerebral Palsy Fund.

Machen Wins, Seeks To Halt Title Match

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Heavyweight contender Eddie Machen, victorious Wednesday night over unranked Rueben Vargas, now switches his battling to the courts, seeking to halt the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson title bout.

Eddie and his pilot, Sid Flaherty, are scheduled to appear in federal court in New York June 1 when their petition seeking to force Johansson into a return bout with Machen will be heard.

A verdict favoring Eddie could disrupt plans for the June 25 meeting in New York between champion Patterson and the Swede who kayoed Machen Sept. 14. Flaherty contends he and Eddie hold a contract calling for the return match before Inge boxes anyone else.

Wednesday night in the nationally televised 10-rounder at the Cow Palace, Machen found tough going in the early and late rounds against Vargas. But Eddie's jab kept his onrushing foe off balance sufficiently to bring him an unanimous but close and unpopular verdict.

Vargas, of Richmond, Calif., who weighed 189½, entered the ring a favorite. Machen, of Redding, Calif., weighed 197½.

Team To Practice

The Glenmoor United Presbyterian softball team will practice Friday at 6 p. m. at the field behind Glenmoor school. Anyone interested in trying out are requested to attend the practice session.

Yankees' New Position Sends Critics Thumbing

NEW YORK (AP)—The world champion New York Yankees are in last place in the American League.

Sports critics are thumbing through baseball record books to discover when last the haughty New Yorkers were in such humble circumstances at this stage of a pennant race.

Fans give varied opinions as to the causes of the strange situation. The ideas range from the opinion that the club has had it, to the hopeful—among its followers—suggestion that it is just a temporary slump that got out of hand.

The last time the Yankees were in the basement at an equivalent stage of the race was May 25, 1940. The last of the two times the club finished in the cellar was in 1912, and the last time it spent the season in the second division was in 1925.

The calmest— outwardly —man in all the confusion is Manager Casey Stengel, who maintained his aplomb even after the Detroit Tigers dumped the world champions into the cellar Wednesday by whomping them 13-6.

Quietly, and without bitterness, the man who has won nine pennants and seven world championships in his 10 seasons with the team discussed its problems.

The nearest he came to a threat was the comment: "I expect those pitchers of ours realize that they will have to do better than that (what they did Wednesday) or they can't stay around."

He had previously pointed to lack of timely hitting as the basis for the troubles. He reckoned the hitting Wednesday wasn't too bad.

That he has confidence the team is better than its record might indicate was hinted by his statement that "I think three or four clubs will pay for those runs before the season is over."

The Yankees now have won 12 and lost 19 games for a percentage of .387.

Three Records Fall In 7th Annual Track Meet At Midland

Moon Twp. Edges Hopewell Squad

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

A second place in the mile relay — last event of the evening — earned Moon Township the championship of the 7th annual Midland Invitational Track meet run Wednesday night at the Midland High School Stadium.

The annual meet, sponsored by Midland American Legion Post 481, shaped up to be a two-way match all the way between Moon Township and Hopewell, the same team which captured the Beaver County meet two weeks ago.

Going into the final event of the meet Hopewell held a 48 1-3 to 45¾ margin over Moon Township. The Moon Township mile relay team ran second to Beaver in the event and picked up four points, enough to pass up Hopewell which failed to score in the event.

The 10-team meet was marked by three record breaking performances and one of the poorest showings by the host Midland team.

Coach Howard Thorne's Leopards ran ninth in the meet and scored only five points.

The complete order of finish showed Beaver third with 30 1-12, Beaver Falls 23 1-12, Quaker Valley 21½, Ellwood City, 14. Coraopolis, 11½, Freedom 5¾, Midland 5, and New Brighton 1.

The meet wasn't very old until John O'Connor of Hopewell set a new standard in the high jump. O'Connor cleared the bar at 5 feet, 9½ inches to break the old record of 5 feet, 8 inches set by Anderson of Beaver in 1952.

Another record fell in the field events when Ron Cvetican went over the bar at 10 feet, 9¼ inches, bettering his own mark of 10 feet, 8 inches set a year ago at Midland Stadium.

The Beaver High School mile relay team — an all junior quartet — shattered the relay mark. The Beaver runners were clocked in 3:37.5 which erased the previous record of 3:38.5 set by four Midland thinclads, Stevenson, Turner, Petties and Lona in 1955.

Running for the Beaver relay team were two identical twins, Jim and Joe Tosh, along with Bill Blistan and Dave Higbee.

Moon Township and Hopewell each captured five events Wednesday night.

The meet had two double winners in Tom Bedick of Moon Township and John O'Connor of Hopewell.

Bedick came home first in the 120-yard high hurdles, but had to share the first place spot with a teammate Dick Oysterling who showed the same time of 17.2.

Bedick came back later to win the 880-yard run in 2:04.8.

O'Connor scored in the 120-yard low hurdles when he was clocked in 14.1. Prior to scoring in the hurdle event O'Connor had won the high jump by setting a new meet record.

Other first places picked up by Moon Township included Steve Popp in the 220-yard dash with a 22.7 performance and Hixon in the discus with a heave of 131 feet, 5 inches and a first in the 880-yard relay with R. Popp, Albock, Murphy and S. Popp making up the winning team.

Besides O'Connor who won two events for Hopewell, the County champs scored with Mel Dorsett who ran a 10.1 in the 100-yard dash, Ron Hudson with a jump of 20 feet, 5 inches in the broad jump and Cvetican who bettered the meet record in the pole vault.

A Beaver Falls runner captured the mile when Andy Neidra was clocked in 4:45.1.

Midland's five points Wednesday night came on Rudy Krivoshia's fourth place in the broad jump, a fourth in the shot put by Paul Susich and Jack Mueller's fifth spot in the 880-yard run.

About 500 fans attended the meet and the colors were presented by the honor guard of Post 481. A brief memorial service was held for Dr. H. T. McKnight, a former post adjutant.

Music prior to the start of the meet was furnished by the Midland High School concert band.

The results follow:

100-YARD DASH — Dorsett (H) won; S. Popp (MT) second; Lennox (B) third; R. Popp (MT) fourth; DeFonde (E) fifth. Time—10.1.

120-YARD HIGH HURDLES — Bedick (MT) and Oysterling (MT) tied for first; Gorshuch (H) third; Logan (B) fourth; Bryan (NB) fifth. Time—17.2.

MILE RUN — Niedra (BF) won; Bassett (C) second; Oswald (EC) third; Swick (BF) fourth; Roebuck (EC) fifth. Time—4:45.1.

440-YARD DASH—Niedra (BF) won; Newman (MT) second; Baker (EC) third; Hudson (H) fourth; Blistan (B) Higbee (B) tied for fifth. Time 54 seconds.

120-YARD LOW HURDLES—O'Conner (H) won; D'Eramo (QV) and Gorsuch (H) tied for second; Logan (B) fourth; Cook (BF) fifth. Time—14.1.

880-YARD RUN — Bedick (MT) won; Pickett (QV) second; Oswald (EC) third; Stemmler (C) fourth; Mueller (M) fifth. Time 2:04.8.

220-YARD DASH—S. Popp (MT) won; Dorsett (H) second; Cole (QV) third Chiaverini (QV) fourth; Lennox (B) fifth. Time—22.7.

SHOT PUT — Chiaverini (QV) won; Buchah (H) second; Hixon (MT) third; Susich (M) fourth; DeFonde (EC) fifth. Distance—47 feet 3 inches.

HIGH JUMP — O'Connor (H) won; Smith (C) and McCartney (H) tied for second; four way tie for third. Height—5 feet 9½ inches. (New meet record)

BROAD JUMP — Hudson (H) won; McKean (B) second; Evans (BF) third; Krivoshia (M) fourth; Lotyz (BF) fifth. Distance 20 feet 5 inches.

POLE VAULT — Cvetican (H) won; three way tie for second and third. Height — 10 feet 9¼ inches. (New meet record).

DISCUS — Hixon (MT) won; McKean (B) second; Churovia (H) third; DeDominicis (F) fourth; DeFonde (EC) fifth. Distance — 131 feet 5 inches.

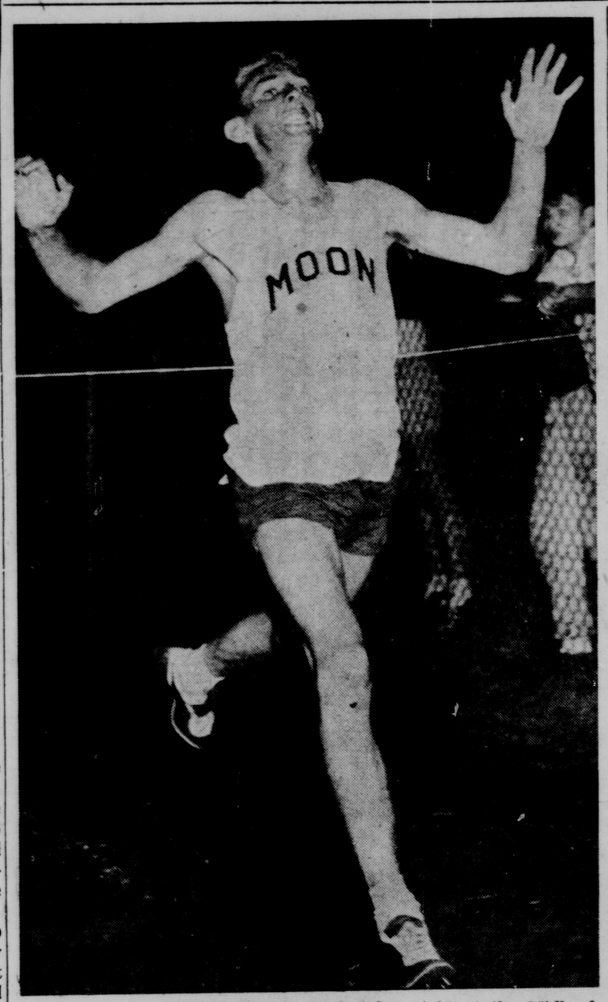
Colavito Is Spark In Tribe's 5-3 Victory



ONE OF two double winners Wednesday night at the Midland Invitational track meet was Tom Bedick, shown above, ready to break the tape in the 880-yard run. Bedick, who added another victory in the high hurdles, helped his Moon Township team to the championship in the seventh annual meet at the Midland High School Stadium.

Friend Given Seventh Loss Against Cards

By ED WILKS
AP Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals finally have made a move to see how the other half lives in that National League pennant chase.

They're still seventh, just five days free of the cellar and eight games shy of first place, but the Redbirds are on their first real winning streak of the season after whipping Pittsburgh and winless Bob Friend 11-1 Wednesday night.

It was the Cards' fourth straight success and they did it on the six-hit pitching of Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell and the second successive three-RBI game by Bill White, who has six hits in eight trips for two nights.

That put St. Louis within four games of the first division after Los Angeles slipped to fourth by splitting a twi-night doubleheader with Cincinnati. The fifth-place Reds beat the Dodgers 7-5 after an opening 8-4 defeat.

The San Francisco Giants retained second, ending Milwaukee's winning streak at six games, 6-3. Chicago's persistent Cubs remained in third with a 7-5 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Mizell (5-1) walked two, struck out four and shut out the Pirates on four hits over the last eight innings. The Cards had a six-run second inning.

Young Mike McCormick (2-2) tamed the Braves, with ninth-inning relief help from Sam Jones and three RBIs from Felipe Alou. The outfielder belted a two-run homer in the fourth off loser Bob Buhl, then doubled home a tying run and scored the clincher on Daryl Spencer's double in a two-run sixth.

Joe Pignatano belted a three-run homer as the Dodgers wrapped up the opener with six runs in the seventh inning after Roy McMillan missed second base on what would have been an inning-ending double play. Danny McDevitt (3-2) gave up 10 hits, after holding the Reds hitless for five innings, while beating Brooks Lawrence (3-4).

Don Newcombe, now 2-2 against his old mates, won the nightcap for the Reds with a six-hitter.

Ernie Banks' 10th homer, a three-run drive in the eighth, won for the Cubs and Moe Drabowsky (2-3), who needed relief after Harry Hanebrink's pinch two-run homer in the seventh.

Top Ohio Drivers Set For Races At Clinton On Friday

Some of the top drivers from Ohio and the Pittsburgh area will be on hand Friday night at the Greater Pittsburgh Speedway located at Clinton, Pa.

Norm Sawl of Cleveland, Jerry Dudley of New Philadelphia, Gib Orr of Warren, Lou Blaney of Hartford and Dean Mast of Sugar Creek head the Ohio drivers, while Rich Bauman of Ambridge and Glenn Davis of Sharon top the Pennsylvania list.

Time trials will start at 7 p. m., with the first race at 8:30.

Last Friday's races were rained out.

Three Rochester players, Rudy Migay, Gary Aldcorn and Bill Hicke, were named to the American Hockey League All-Star team.

Jim Perry Sharp With Relief Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—The two bright spots of Cleveland's just-concluded road trip were Rocky Colavito's hot bat and young Jim Perry's stout relief pitching.

Those two teamed up again Wednesday night as the Indians whipped the Washington Senators, 5-3, enabling them to return home in first place by a half game over the Chicago White Sox. The road trip showed seven victories and five defeats.

Colavito drove in two runs with a double and a single, providing the margin of victory. It raised his batting average to .349 and his runs-batted-in total to 24.

Perry relieved a tiring Herb Score in the seventh inning with the tieing runs on base. He got the final out in that frame, then struck out four Senators over the final two frames while permitting no hits.

Rocky batted .400 on the road, whacked six home runs and drove in 14 runs. Perry saved three games—he lost one—and became the Tribe's top bullpen specialist.

A walk to Vic Power and Colavito's two-out double gave the Indians a 1-0 lead in the first inning. Two innings later, the margin jumped to 3-0 on a single by Jim Piersall, Power's double and a single by Colavito.

Power drove in another run with a sacrifice fly following Granny Hamner's triple in the fifth. The final run came across in the sixth when Minnie Minoso doubled and rode home on Woodie Held's single.

Score gave up six hits and struck out seven to post his fourth victory in six decisions. He walked in a run in the third inning.

The Senators' Harmon Killebrew rapped his 15th home run—tops in the majors—in the sixth to cut Cleveland's lead to 5-2. Washington added its final run in the seventh on a walk, a single and a sacrifice fly.

Cal McLish tries for his sixth straight triumph without a loss Friday night when Detroit opens a four-game series at Cleveland Stadium.

Earle Bortell has been coaching the Georgia Tech tennis team since 1932.

Moon Twp. Edges Hopewell Squad

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

A second place in the mile relay — last event of the evening — earned Moon Township the championship of the 7th annual Midland Invitational Track meet run Wednesday night at the Midland High School Stadium.

The annual meet, sponsored by Midland American Legion Post 481, shaped up to be a two-way match all the way between Moon Township and Hopewell, the same team which captured the Beaver County meet two weeks ago.

Going into the final event of the meet Hopewell held a 48 1-3 to 45¾ margin over Moon Township. The Moon Township mile relay team ran second to Beaver in the event and picked up four points, enough to pass up Hopewell which failed to score in the event.

The 10-team meet was marked by three record breaking performances and one of the poorest showings by the host Midland team.

Coach Howard Thorne's Leopards ran ninth in the meet and scored only five points.

The complete order of finish showed Beaver third with 30 1-12, Beaver Falls 23 1-12, Quaker Valley 21½, Ellwood City, 14. Coraopolis, 11½, Freedom 5¾, Midland 5, and New Brighton 1.

The meet wasn't very old until John O'Connor of Hopewell set a new standard in the high jump. O'Connor cleared the bar at 5 feet, 9½ inches to break the old record of 5 feet, 8 inches set by Anderson of Beaver in 1952.

Another record fell in the field events when Ron Cvetican went over the bar at 10 feet, 9¼ inches, bettering his own mark of 10 feet, 8 inches set a year ago at Midland Stadium.

The Beaver High School mile relay team — an all junior quartet — shattered the relay mark. The Beaver runners were clocked in 3:37.5 which erased the previous record of 3:38.5 set by four Midland thinclads, Stevenson, Turner, Petties and Lona in 1955.

Running for the Beaver relay team were two identical twins, Jim and Joe Tosh, along with Bill Blistan and Dave Higbee.

Moon Township and Hopewell each captured five events Wednesday night.

The meet had two double winners in Tom Bedick of Moon Township and John O'Connor of Hopewell.

Bedick came home first in the 120-yard high hurdles, but had to share the first place spot with a teammate Dick Oysterling who showed the same time of 17.2.

Bedick came back later to win the 880-yard run in 2:04.8.

O'Connor scored in the 120-yard low hurdles when he was clocked in 14.1. Prior to scoring in the hurdle event O'Connor had won the high jump by setting a new meet record.

Other first places picked up by Moon Township included Steve Popp in the 220-yard dash with a 22.7 performance and Hixon in the discus with a heave of 131 feet, 5 inches and a first in the 880-yard relay with R. Popp, Albock, Murphy and S. Popp making up the winning team.

Besides O'Connor who won two events for Hopewell, the County champs scored with Mel Dorsett who ran a 10.1 in the 100-yard dash, Ron Hudson with a jump of 20 feet, 5 inches in the broad jump and Cvetican who bettered the meet record in the pole vault.

A Beaver Falls runner captured the mile when Andy Neidra was clocked in 4:45.1.

Midland's five points Wednesday night came on Rudy Krivoshia's fourth place in the broad jump, a fourth in the shot put by Paul Susich and Jack Mueller's fifth spot in the 880-yard run.

About 500 fans attended the meet and the colors were presented by the honor guard of Post 481. A brief memorial service was held for Dr. H. T. McKnight, a former post adjutant.

Music prior to the start of the meet was furnished by the Midland High School concert band.

The results follow:

100-YARD DASH — Dorsett (H) won; S. Popp (MT) second; Lennox (B) third; R. Popp (MT) fourth; DeFonde (E) fifth. Time—10.1.

120-YARD HIGH HURDLES — Bedick (MT) and Oysterling (MT) tied for first; Gorshuch (H) third; Logan (B) fourth; Bryan (NB) fifth. Time—17.2.

MILE RUN — Niedra (BF) won; Bassett (C) second; Oswald (EC) third; Swick (BF) fourth; Roebuck (EC) fifth. Time—4:45.1.

440-YARD DASH—Niedra (BF) won; Newman (MT) second; Baker (EC) third; Hudson (H) fourth; Blistan (B) Higbee (B) tied for fifth. Time 54 seconds.

120-YARD LOW HURDLES—O'Conner (H) won; D'Eramo (QV) and Gorsuch (H) tied for second; Logan (B) fourth; Cook (BF) fifth. Time—14.1.

880-YARD RUN — Bedick (MT) won; Pickett (QV) second; Oswald (EC) third; Stemmler (C) fourth; Mueller (M) fifth. Time 2:04.8.

220-YARD DASH—S. Popp (MT) won; Dorsett (H) second; Cole (QV) third Chiaverini (QV) fourth; Lennox (B) fifth. Time—22.7.

MILE RELAY — Beaver won; (Blistan, Higbee, Jim Tosh, Joe Tosh); Moon Township second; Beaver Falls, third; Coraopolis, fourth; Quaker Valley fifth. Time—3:37.5 (New meet record).

SHOT PUT — Chiaverini (QV) won; Buchah (H) second; Hixon (MT) third; Susich (M) fourth; DeFonde (EC) fifth. Distance—47 feet 3 inches.

HIGH JUMP — O'Connor (H) won; Smith (C) and McCartney (H) tied for second; four way tie for third. Height—5 feet 9½ inches. (New meet record)

BROAD JUMP — Hudson (H) won; McKean (B) second; Evans (BF) third; Krivoshia (M) fourth; Lotyz (BF) fifth. Distance 20 feet 5 inches.

POLE VAULT — Cvetican (H) won; three way tie for second and third. Height — 10 feet 9¼ inches. (New meet record).

DISCUS — Hixon (MT) won; McKean (B) second; Churovia (H) third; DeDominicis (F) fourth; DeFonde (EC) fifth. Distance — 131 feet 5 inches.

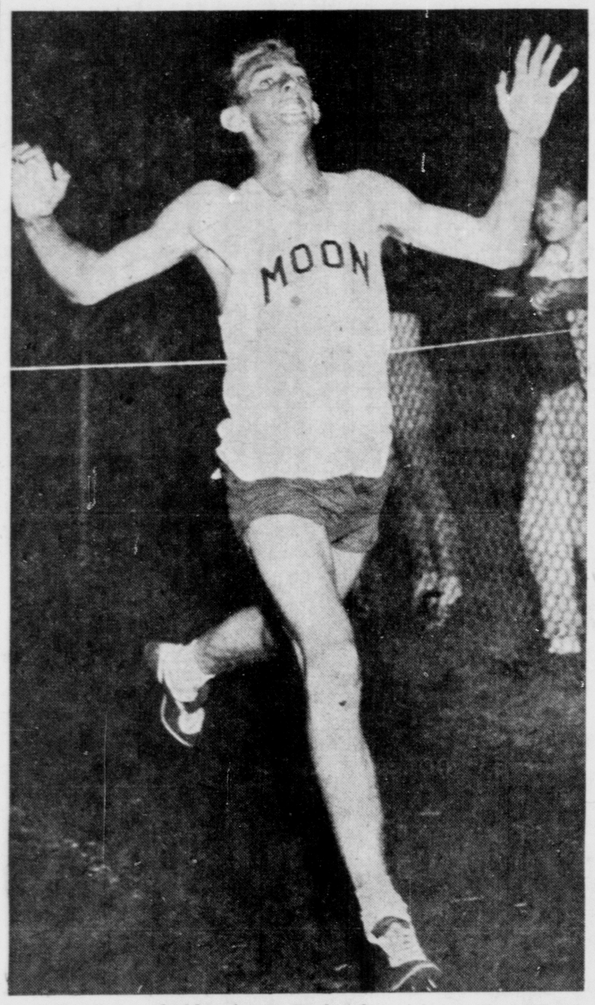
Colavito Is Spark In Tribe's 5-3 Victory



ONE OF two double winners Wednesday night at the Midland Invitational track meet was Tom Bedick, shown above, ready to break the tape in the 880-yard run. Bedick, who added another victory in the high hurdles, helped his Moon Township team to the championship in the seventh annual meet at the Midland High School Stadium.

Friend Given Seventh Loss Against Cards

By ED WILKS
AP Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals finally have made a move to see how the other half lives in that National League pennant chase.

They're still seventh, just five days free of the cellar and eight games shy of first place, but the Redbirds are on their first real winning streak of the season after whipping Pittsburgh and winless Bob Friend 11-1 Wednesday night.

It was the Cards' fourth straight success and they did it on the six-hit pitching of Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell and the second successive three-RBI game by Bill White, who has six hits in eight trips for two nights.

That put St. Louis within four games of the first division after Los Angeles slipped to fourth by splitting a twi-night doubleheader with Cincinnati. The fifth-place Reds beat the Dodgers 7-5 after an opening 8-4 defeat.

The San Francisco Giants retained second, ending Milwaukee's winning streak at six games, 6-3. Chicago's persistent Cubs remained in third with a 7-5 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Mizell (5-1) walked two, struck out four and shut out the Pirates on four hits over the last eight innings. The Cards had a six-run second inning.

Young Mike McCormick (2-2) tamed the Braves, with ninth-inning relief help from Sam Jones and three RBIs from Felipe Alou. The outfielder belted a two-run homer in the fourth off loser Bob Buhl, then doubled home a tying run and scored the clincher on Daryl Spencer's double in a two-run sixth.

Joe Pignatano belted a three-run homer as the Dodgers wrapped up the opener with six runs in the seventh inning after Roy McMillan missed second base on what would have been an inning-ending double play. Danny McDevitt (3-2) gave up 10 hits, after holding the Reds hitless for five innings, while beating Brooks Lawrence (3-4).

Don Newcombe, now 2-2 against his old mates, won the nightcap for the Reds with a six-hitter.

Ernie Banks' 10th homer, a three-run drive in the eighth, won for the Cubs and Moe Drabowsky (2-3), who needed relief after Harry Hanebrink's pinch two-run homer in the seventh.

Top Ohio Drivers Set For Races At Clinton On Friday

Some of the top drivers from Ohio and the Pittsburgh area will be on hand Friday night at the Greater Pittsburgh Speedway located at Clinton, Pa.

Norm Sawl of Cleveland, Jerry Dudley of New Philadelphia, Gib Orr of Warren, Lou Blaney of Hartford and Dean Mast of Sugar Creek head the Ohio drivers, while Rich Bauman of Ambridge and Glenn Davis of Sharon top the Pennsylvania list.

Time trials will start at 7 p. m., with the first race at 8:30.

Last Friday's races were rained out.

Three Rochester players, Rudy Migay, Gary Aldcorn and Bill Hicke, were named to the American Hockey League All-Star team.

Jim Perry Sharp With Relief Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—The two bright spots of Cleveland's just-concluded road trip were Rocky Colavito's hot bat and young Jim Perry's stout relief pitching.

Those two teamed up again Wednesday night as the Indians whipped the Washington Senators, 5-3, enabling them to return home in first place by a half game over the Chicago White Sox. The road trip showed seven victories and five defeats.

Colavito drove in two runs with a double and a single, providing the margin of victory. It raised his batting average to .349 and his runs-batted-in total to 24.

Perry relieved a tiring Herb Score in the seventh inning with the tieing runs on base. He got the final out in that frame, then struck out four Senators over the final two frames while permitting no hits.

Rocky batted .400 on the road, whacked six home runs and drove in 14 runs. Perry saved three games—he lost one—and became the Tribe's top bullpen specialist.

A walk to Vic Power and Colavito's two-out double gave the Indians a 1-0 lead in the first inning. Two innings later, the margin jumped to 3-0 on a single by Jim Piersall, Power's double and a single by Colavito.

Power drove in another run with a sacrifice fly following Granny Hamner's triple in the fifth. The final run came across in the sixth when Minnie Minoso doubled and rode home on Woodie Held's single.

Score gave up six hits and struck out seven to post his fourth victory in six decisions. He walked in a run in the third inning.

The Senators' Harmon Killebrew rapped his 15th home run—tops in the majors—in the sixth to cut Cleveland's lead to 5-2. Washington added its final run in the seventh on a walk, a single and a sacrifice fly.

Cal McLish tries for his sixth straight triumph without a loss Friday night when Detroit opens a four-game series at Cleveland Stadium.

Earle Bortell has been coaching the Georgia Tech tennis team since 1932.

High School, College Thinclads Busy In Ohio

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ohio's fleetest cinder stars on the high school and collegiate fronts battle for supremacy this weekend.

On tap Friday and Saturday are the state scholastic finals at Columbus, the Ohio Conference championships at Granville, and the Mid - American Conference title tests at Oxford.

The high school meet is the 52nd since Columbus North won the 1908 inaugural with 19 points. Springfield's Wildcats will be going after their third straight Class AA championship, and have the talent to make a good fight for it.

Xenia Woodrow Wilson, the 1958 Class A king, appears ready to abdicate since the Cadets scored only seven points and finished 11th in their district qualifier as Yellow Springs Bryan ran up a 35-point winning total.

Springfield expects its greatest competition from Cleveland East Tech, Cleveland Glenville and Dayton Roosevelt. Chagrin Falls is among the Class A favorites—but the field appears wide open.

Western Michigan, which last year ended Miami's 10-year reign as Mid - American Conference track-field champion, will be challenged this time by the Redskins and the resurgent Bobcats of Ohio University.

Ohio Wesleyan's Battling Bishops are odds-on favorites to grab their third straight Ohio Conference track toga in the 56th annual meet on Denison's cinders. Of the sprawling loop's 14 members, only Marietta's Pioneers will not compete. Heaviest opposition for the talent-laden Wesleyans are slated to be Wooster, Muskingum, Oberlin and Akron.

In all, three meets in the preliminaries will be held Friday, the finals Saturday.

Along with the track-field meet, the high schools will decide their 32nd annual baseball, 33rd annual golf, and 40th annual tennis championships.

Cincinnati Elder, defending Class AA diamond king, is among the four qualifying teams, but Goshen's Class A titlists of 1958 lost in the district playoffs. The eight surviving teams are all that remain of 864 starters.

Shaker Heights won last years' high school golf title, with Bob Zimmerman of Dayton Fairmont taking the individual title. Tennis winners were Jim Tenney of Ottawa Hills in the singles, and John Kline and Gordon Smith of Mansfield in the doubler)

The Mid-American circuit also will decide tennis and golf titles at Oxford. Western Michigan is defending the tennis laurels, and Ohio University, which has copped the golf crown seven of the last 12 years, is favored to repeat on the links.

Newcombe Gains Split For Reds With Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It was just 10 years ago Wednesday that Don Newcombe made his first major league pitching appearance.

In the succeeding years he became one of the National League's top hurlers but for the last couple of years or so he hasn't had much success.

He observed that 10th pitching anniversary Wednesday night, however, by hurling his second straight complete game victory and his third triumph of the season against four defeats.

It was a 7-5 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers in the windup of a divided twi-night doubleheader. The Dodgers clobbered Brooks Lawrence in the opener, 8-4.

The split gave the Reds an even break in the four game series and today they headed for Pittsburgh and the windup of a three-week road trip.

Even though he went all the way and won, Newcombe was troubled with home runs. He allowed only six hits but three of them were home runs, two by Charlie Neal and one by Wally Moon.

Gus Bell and Roy McMillan hit homers for the Reds in the second game and Duke Snider and Joe Pignatano homered for the Dodgers in the opener.

Both games were marked by big scoring innings. The Dodgers got six runs in the seventh inning of the first contest and the Reds got five in the third inning of the second game.

Bob Purkey is expected to get the Cincinnati pitching assignment when the Reds open their series at Pittsburgh Friday night.

MacPhail Sees Yanks Making Trade Soon

BALTIMORE (AP) — Lee MacPhail, last year a top hand in the Yankee front office and now general manager of the Baltimore Orioles, expects the New Yorkers to start talking trade in earnest.

"Unless they go on a long winning streak right away, I expect them to make a major trade before the June 15 deadline," MacPhail said.

The Yankees, now in last place, open a four-game weekend series here Friday and the prospect of a Baltimore-New York trade was on nearly everybody's mind at Memorial Stadium.

Yesterday's Stars

Hitting — Eddie Yost, Tigers, drove in six runs with a single and two homers, one a grand-slam, in 13-6 victory over the Yankees that dropped the world champions into last place.

Pitching — Wilmer Mizell, Cardinals, gained his fifth victory with a six-hitter, shutting out the Pirates on four hits over the last eight innings for 11-1 win.

Tourists spend 77 million dollars annually in Hawaii.

Dave Brookes Will Oppose Rod Thorn

PARKERSBURG — Rod Thorn, fabulous Princeton star, may display his basketball wares in the annual North-South All-Star Classic which will be staged here and at Williamson the first week in June.

Sports Editor Brad Kincaid of the Parkersburg Sentinel said in his column that Thorn has given his verbal okay to play in the best two-of-three series sponsored by the Parkersburg and Williamson Moose Lodges.

The first game will be played here June 5 and the second at Williamson on June 6. Site of the third game, if needed, will be decided by a flip of a coin.

Thorn will play for the South team coached by Jim Melmige, Matewan High mentor. The South has won the classic the past three years at Williamson.

Dave Brookes, Chester's cage star from last season, who was named to the North squad last week, will be an opponent of Thorn.

Already selected to play for the South are Mike Wolfe of Dupont, Joe Haught of Huntington East and Roy Phillips of Matewan.

The North, coached by Sam Mandich of Parkersburg, lists so far Mike Friend and Jim Miller, both of Parkersburg; Steve Yambor of Fairmont St. Peter's and Brookes.

Sponsors of the non-profit series hope to realize enough money to award a college scholarship to one of the participants — all high school seniors who will be graduated this spring.

Face Cuts Fingers; Out Four Days Or So

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Pittsburgh's ace relief pitcher, Elroy Face, cut two fingers on his pitching hand in an accident Wednesday.

Face dropped a glass of water in his hotel room. He started to pick up the brokenglass and cut himself on the top of the last two fingers on his right hand.

The Pirates said Face should be able to pitch in four days or so.

Observation Ordered

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Columbus man who police say tried to molest a 6-year-old boy after abducting him has been ordered to Lima State Hospital for 60 days of observation. William Echols, 25, was captured shortly after he grabbed the boy off the street April 1. Echols pleaded guilty in Criminal Court here Wednesday to charges of child stealing and felonious assault.

Speedway Notes Lack Of Veteran Drivers For '500'

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The Indianapolis Motor Speedway is suffering from an acute shortage of experienced drivers, with 44 cars still to make qualification runs for the 500-mile race May 30.

Only about 30 men with the ability and experience to drive at more than 140 miles an hour were available for those 44 cars. They will get their chance to qualify Saturday and Sunday.

Fourteen cars qualified last weekend, leaving 19 places open in the 33-car starting lineup. After 19 more cars have qualified, the slower ones may be bumped from the lineup by faster qualifiers.

The driver shortage may lead to considerable car hopping in the final qualifications. A car may qualify only once, but a driver whose car is eliminated may try again in another.

Three of the 61 cars originally entered have been wrecked beyond repair.

Drivers and mechanics predicted that 141 miles an hour would make the field.

Accidents in practice runs this year have killed two drivers. Track officials defended the testing procedure. Steward Paul Johnson said 139 drivers have passed the test since he came here as an observer in 1939, and only two have had a serious accident in their rookie year.

Strikers Ask All Union Workers To Quit In Sympathy

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Striking carpenters have urged all union workers at the missile test center here to walk out today in a sympathy gesture.

Willard Van Hoose, Carpenters Union negotiator, also said the union rescinded its agreement allowing 1,500 Transport Workers and Teamsters Union workmen to cross picket lines to perform emergency missile work.

These two unions, plus 1,000 building tradesmen, honored the pickets when 115 carpenters struck Friday in a wage dispute with contractors.

Missile launchings have not been affected by the strike. But several million dollars worth of military construction is halted.

The Carpenters, who now average $2.85 an hour, are asking for a one-year contract with a 25-cent-an-hour wage hike retroactive to April 1, when the old contract expired. The contractors have offered a staggered 35-cent boost over a two-year period, with no retroactive pay.

Mental Patient Due 30 Days Observation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A mental patient accused of strangling her mother while on a weekend visit home from a psychiatric hospital will undergo 30 days observation at another institution. Miss Phyllis Gerard, 34, will be returned to Criminal Court here after her examination at Lima State Hospital.

She pleaded innocent Wednesday to a second-degree murder charge. Police said she admitted choking to death her mother, Mrs. Jean J. Gerard, 65, last Saturday at their home here.

Hospital Strikers Vote To Continue Walkout

NEW YORK (AP)—Nonprofessional workers at six hospitals have voted overwhelmingly — 1,784 to 14 — to continue their 14-day-old walkout in a bid to win union recognition.

A previously secret 11-point truce program was read Wednesday night to members of Local 1199, Retail Drug Employes Union before balloting started.

Local President Leon J. Davis indicated the strike may spread to other hospitals.

High School, College Thinclads Busy In Ohio

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ohio's fleetest cinder stars on the high school and collegiate fronts battle for supremacy this weekend.

On tap Friday and Saturday are the state scholastic finals at Columbus, the Ohio Conference championships at Granville, and the Mid - American Conference title tests at Oxford.

The high school meet is the 52nd since Columbus North won the 1908 inaugural with 19 points. Springfield's Wildcats will be going after their third straight Class AA championship, and have the talent to make a good fight for it.

Xenia Woodrow Wilson, the 1958 Class A king, appears ready to abdicate since the Cadets scored only seven points and finished 11th in their district qualifier as Yellow Springs Bryan ran up a 35-point winning total.

Springfield expects its greatest competition from Cleveland East Tech, Cleveland Glenville and Dayton Roosevelt. Chagrin Falls is among the Class A favorites—but the field appears wide open.

Western Michigan, which last year ended Miami's 10-year reign as Mid - American Conference track-field champion, will be challenged this time by the Redskins and the resurgent Bobcats of Ohio University.

Ohio Wesleyan's Battling Bishops are odds-on favorites to grab their third straight Ohio Conference track toga in the 56th annual meet on Denison's cinders. Of the sprawling loop's 14 members, only Marietta's Pioneers will not compete. Heaviest opposition for the talent-laden Wesleyans are slated to be Wooster, Muskingum, Oberlin and Akron.

In all, three meets in the preliminaries will be held Friday, the finals Saturday.

Along with the track-field meet, the high schools will decide their 32nd annual baseball, 33rd annual golf, and 46th annual tennis championships.

Cincinnati Elder, defending Class AA diamond king, is among the four qualifying teams, but Goshen's Class A titlists of 1958 lost in the district playoffs. The eight surviving teams are all that remain of 864 starters.

Shaker Heights won last years' high school golf title, with Bob Zimmerman of Dayton Fairmont taking the individual title. Tennis winners were Jim Tenney of Ottawa Hills in the singles, and John Kline and Gordon Smith of Mansfield in the doubler)

The Mid-American circuit also will decide tennis and golf titles at Oxford. Western Michigan is defending the tennis laurels, and Ohio University, which has copped the golf crown seven of the last 12 years, is favored to repeat on the links.

Dave Brookes Will Oppose Rod Thorn

PARKERSBURG — Rod Thorn, fabulous Princeton star, may display his basketball wares in the annual North-South All-Star Classic which will be staged here and at Williamson the first week in June.

Sports Editor Brad Kincaid of the Parkersburg Sentinel said in his column that Thorn has given his verbal okay to play in the best two-of-three series sponsored by the Parkersburg and Williamson Moose Lodges.

The first game will be played here June 5 and the second at Williamson on June 6. Site of the third game, if needed, will be decided by a flip of a coin.

Thorn will play for the South team coached by Jim Melmige, Matewan High mentor. The South has won the classic the past three years at Williamson.

Dave Brookes, Chester's cage star from last season, who was named to the North squad last week, will be an opponent of Thorn.

Already selected to play for the South are Mike Wolfe of Dupont, Joe Haught of Huntington East and Roy Phillips of Matewan.

The North, coached by Sam Mandich of Parkersburg, lists so far Mike Friend and Jim Miller, both of Parkersburg; Steve Yambor of Fairmont St. Peter's and Brookes.

Newcombe Gains Split For Reds With Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It was just 10 years ago Wednesday that Don Newcombe made his first major league pitching appearance.

In the succeeding years he became one of the National League's top hurlers but for the last couple of years or so he hasn't had much success.

He observed that 10th pitching anniversary Wednesday night, however, by hurling his second straight complete game victory and his third triumph of the season against four defeats.

It was a 7-5 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers in the windup of a divided twi-night doubleheader. The Dodgers clobbered Brooks Lawrence in the opener, 8-4.

The split gave the Reds an even break in the four game series and today they headed for Pittsburgh and the windup of a three-week road trip.

Even though he went all the way and won, Newcombe was troubled with home runs. He allowed only six hits but three of them were home runs, two by Charlie Neal and one by Wally Moon.

Gus Bell and Roy McMillan hit homers for the Reds in the second game and Duke Snider and Joe Pignatano homered for the Dodgers in the opener.

Both games were marked by big scoring innings. The Dodgers got six runs in the seventh inning of the first contest and the Reds got five in the third inning of the second game.

Bob Purkey is expected to get the Cincinnati pitching assignment when the Reds open their series at Pittsburgh Friday night.

MacPhail Sees Yanks Making Trade Soon

BALTIMORE (AP) — Lee MacPhail, last year a top hand in the Yankee front office and now general manager of the Baltimore Orioles, expects the New Yorkers to start talking trade in earnest.

"Unless they go on a long winning streak right away, I expect them to make a major trade before the June 15 deadline," MacPhail said.

The Yankees, now in last place, open a four-game weekend series here Friday and the prospect of a Baltimore-New York trade was on nearly everybody's mind at Memorial Stadium.

Yesterday's Stars

Hitting — Eddie Yost, Tigers, drove in six runs with a single and two homers, one a grand-slam, in 13-6 victory over the Yankees that dropped the world champions into last place.

Pitching — Wilmer Mizell, Cardinals, gained his fifth victory with a six-hitter, shutting out the Pirates on four hits over the last eight innings for 11-1 win.

Tourists spend 77 million dollars annually in Hawaii.

He'll Serve As Salutatorian.

DORIS TAYLOR
Earns Valedictorian's Role.

IRONDALE — A girl and a boy will share top honors for Stanton Local High School's commencement exercises Monday night at 8:15 in the high school auditorium.

Valedictorian of the 17-member Senior Class is Miss Doris Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Taylor of Toronto R. D. 2, and salutatorian is Boyd Penn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Penn of Irondale, Supt. C. P. Henderson announced.

Miss Taylor has been a member of the high school band for six years and participated in the Senior Class play. She expects to enter Asbury College at Wilmore, Ky., in September.

Penn is undecided about future plans. Third honor student is Jeffrey Wardeska, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wardeska of Irondale. He has been a member of the band six years, participated in the Senior Class play, and will enter Mt. Union College at Alliance this fall to prepare for a career in engineering.

Speaker for commencement will be Dr. R. L. Wobus, pastor of the Spring Creek Christian Church of Sidney. The Senior Class will present a program entitled "The Light of Truth." All seats for commencement are reserved, the superintendent said.

Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday night at 8 with Dr. W. J. Smart of the Methodist Church as principal speaker. Class Day was held today in the school.

Other graduating seniors include Gale Boggs, Ronald Brammer, Judith Ferry, Donald Fraley, John Grafton, Lola McGary, Elaine Nightingale, Sue McGivern, Scott Patton, Loyd Penn, William Perkins, Martha Rose, Thomas Pisarsky and Jane Young.

Columbiana Boy Ranks In Exams

Wayne Thomas Armbrust of Columbiana was the only county high school student to place among the first 10 in each subject division of the 1959 district-state scholarship tests, E. E. Holt, state superintendent of schools, has announced.

Armbrust, who achieved a seventh-place rank in the biology division, is among 240 students who took top honors from among the 21,312 participants in the test conducted on 23 college and university campuses.

A total of 855 high schools were represented. Toledo Devilbiss had three first-place winners, more than any other school. The finals were given May 2, while the preliminary tests given to more than 200,000 pupils were held in April.

Robert Thomas Johnson of Jefferson Union High School ranked ninth among the students in the plane geometry division.

NEW YORK (AP) — J. Wilbur Lewis, 66, president of the Union Dime Savings Bank, collapsed and died at the bank's 100th anniversary party Wednesday night.

Wellsville FOP Lodge, Civilians Plan Carnival

The Wellsville Fraternal Order of Police and FOP Associates Lodges will hold their annual carnival Monday through Memorial Day at Central Park.

The affair will open Monday at 6 p. m., according to Bernard Ference, chairman. The Powelson Amusement Co. of Coshocton will provide 10 adult rides and 4 children's rides.

All concessions will be operated by members of the two lodges. A matinee is planned Saturday from 1 to 5 p. m. with rides reduced to a dime.

IBOP Sues Company Over Trenton Building

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters has filed a $25,000 civil action against a contractor in Superior Court at Trenton, N. J., alleging faulty workmanship in construction of its East Coast headquarters in Trenton.

The union sued Kehoe-Downs, Inc., of Trenton, alleging that floors "heaved" at the headquarters after the contractor completed the $109,947 project.

In its complaint, the IBOP alleges it lost rental income as a result of the alleged faulty work and that it must replace the floor.

Crew Walks River Banks Hunting Man

MOAB, Utah (AP)—A six-man crew walked the rocky banks of the Colorado River southwest of here today in the hunt for a missing boater.

They were looking for Frank A. Rich, 65, of Lakewood Village, Calif. Rich, his wife, son and daughter-in-law were thrown into rapids of Cataract Canyon Sunday when their pleasure boat capsized.

Rich was last seen clinging to the overturned 15-foot boat as it hurtled down the boiling rapids about 40 air miles southwest of here. The other members of his family were rescued. Wreckage of the boat was spotted in the canyon later.

Warren Native Dies

TORONTO (AP) — Frank A. Thumm, a native of Warren, Ohio, who became head of a firm specializing in the manufacture of golf clubs, is dead at 73. Thumm came to Canada 48 years ago, settling in Winnipeg, and at his death Monday was president of Burke-Thumm Ltd., Screw - Machine Products. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. B. Clayton and Miss Emma Thumm, both of Warren.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a newlywed. We will be married seven months tomorrow. The original Mrs. Buttinsky lives next door to my mother. She's been a solid fixture in my mother's kitchen (gossipping night and day) since I was old enough to remember.

Although I never liked her, Mom always insisted I be polite and call her Auntie Belle.

I drop by to see Mom almost every day and Auntie Belle is always there. She insists on patting my middle and says, "Are you pregnant yet?" This gets me so mad I could chew nails.

It so happens I am two months along but I don't want to tell anyone for awhile. How can I get around this nosey old woman's question? If I say no she'll figure out later that I lied.—FURIOUS.

Dear Furious: The next time "Mrs. Buttinsky" asks you this all-too-personal (and none of her business) question simply say, "When I'm ready to make an announcement you'll be among the first to know."

Merely because some people have the crust to ask anything doesn't mean you owe them the information.

Wasteful Americans

Dear Mrs. Landers: I was born and reared in Europe and came to this wonderful country seven years ago. I'm not writing to seek advice, or to give it. I wish only to express myself on a subject which has caused me deep concern.

The office in which I work as a translator is air-conditioned and beautifully furnished. The management provides writing instruments, paste, all standard office supplies and the best of mechanical equipment. In Europe one seldom sees this.

It annoys me to watch the employes throw out half-used bottles of paste, almost-new pencils and erasers, carbon paper and bonded stationery by the pound.

We were taught "to waste is to sin." What is there in American culture that seems to smile at wanton disregard for property if people don't pay for it themselves? Can you reply?—MISS SWISS.

Dear Swiss Miss: We Americans are vastly more wasteful than our brothers and sisters in other parts of the world. Perhaps it's because for so long we've had more. Add to this the adage, "That which we get for nothing has no value" — and you have a good answer to your question.

If it's true that the employes with whom you work throw away almost-new materials, someone from "up front" (like the purchasing agent) should be told. He will be happy to have a friendly talk with "the sinners." Suggest it.

The Big Blowup

Dear Ann: My husband and I have been quarreling since last summer. Please settle this argument.

I have worked for 20 years out of the 26 we've been married. We pool our money and everything is "ours." Almost every year we take a trip to visit his folks.

Last summer I had a big fight with his brother. He said he'd never go home again to visit if I'm there. He lives 200 miles away. We live 1,700 miles away. I figure he can go home almost any time.

My husband just told me he wants to make the trip without me this year. Do you think it's right for him to spend our $400 to go alone? I get along fine with everyone in the family except this one brother.

My husband went so far as to say if I went he would stay at home — and this is final. Please give me your frank opinion. — MYLDRED.

Dear Myldred: Your husband is behaving like a child with a high fever. You should make the trip together. If his brother wants to stay away that's his business. But why let him wreck your vacation plans?

Tell your husband YOU plan to make the trip and that you hope he'll accompany you. Go alone if he insists on being mulish and let both brothers behave like iddy biddy babies if they want to.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

2-Car Crash Injures Palestine Councilman

EAST PALESTINE — Two men were injured and one car was demolished in a collision at N. Market and E. Martin St. Tuesday afternoon at 4:15, police reported.

George Vidovich, 19, of Enon Valley R. D. 1, driving south, made a turn into E. Martin St. and struck a car operated by Councilman D. B. Davis, 52, of 136 E. North Ave.

Vidovich suffered a cut of the chin and mouth while Davis received possible finger fractures and chest bruises. They were treated by a physician.

Vidovich pleaded guilty to making an improper turn and was fined $10 and costs by Mayor Paul Merwin. His 1953 tudor sedan was demolished, while Davis' 1957 sedan received $400 damage, police said.

11 Shots Given Pupils

LISBON — Ten immunizations and one vaccination were given at Fairfield-Waterford Schools Tuesday morning, the final third-round immunizations for schools in the Columbiana County Health District, according to Dr. C. S. Palmer, health commissioner. Seven vaccinations and 18 immunizations were given at a third-round pre-school clinic at United Local Monday.

Charges Reduced, Driver Fined $100

Leroy F. Black, 22, of 2314 Harvey Ave. was fined $100 and costs Wednesday in Municipal Court when he pleaded guilty to a charge of being in physical control of an auto while intoxicated, reduced from an original charge of drunken driving.

Black had pleaded not guilty to the drunken driving charge when arraigned following his arrest May 12. He was freed on a $500 bond. In the hearing yesterday in which the charge was reduced at the suggestion of Assistant Solicitor Richard J. Clark, Black was represented by Atty. W. S. Foulks.

Meanwhile, Gale H. Clutter, 41, of 2020 Ohio Ave. was fined $300 and costs and sentenced to 10 days in jail when he pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of alcohol. His operator's permit also was suspended for six months. He was arrested at 9:53 p. m. Tuesday on Pennsylvania Ave.

Home Economics Unit Names New President

LISBON — Mrs. George Fisher of Columbiana was elected president of the Columbiana County Home Economics Association at a meeting Tuesday night in the Lisbon Youth Center. Mrs. Jean Williams was elected treasurer.

County Commissioner R. Max Gard spoke on antiques. Business included a discussion of career day for interested students, sponsored in March by the association. Amendments to the constitution also were discussed.

The next meeting will be a picnic Sept. 15. The place will be announced later.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a newlywed. We will be married seven months tomorrow. The original Mrs. Buttinsky lives next door to my mother. She's been a solid fixture in my mother's kitchen (gossipping night and day) since I was old enough to remember.

Although I never liked her, Mom always insisted I be polite and call her Auntie Belle.

I drop by to see Mom almost every day and Auntie Belle is always there. She insists on patting my middle and says, "Are you pregnant yet?" This gets me so mad I could chew nails.

It so happens I am two months along but I don't want to tell anyone for awhile. How can I get around this nosey old woman's question? If I say no she'll figure out later that I lied.—FURIOUS.

Dear Furious: The next time "Mrs. Buttinsky" asks you this all-too-personal (and none of her business) question simply say, "When I'm ready to make an announcement you'll be among the first to know."

Merely because some people have the crust to ask anything doesn't mean you owe them the information.

Wasteful Americans

Dear Mrs. Landers: I was born and reared in Europe and came to this wonderful country seven years ago. I'm not writing to seek advice, or to give it. I wish only to express myself on a subject which has caused me deep concern.

The office in which I work as a translator is air-conditioned and beautifully furnished. The management provides writing instruments, paste, all standard office supplies and the best of mechanical equipment. In Europe one seldom sees this.

It annoys me to watch the employes throw out half-used bottles of paste, almost-new pencils and erasers, carbon paper and bonded stationery by the pound.

We were taught "to waste is to sin." What is there in American culture that seems to smile at wanton disregard for property if people don't pay for it themselves? Can you reply?—MISS SWISS.

Dear Swiss Miss: We Americans are vastly more wasteful than our brothers and sisters in other parts of the world. Perhaps it's because for so long we've had more. Add to this the adage, "That which we get for nothing has no value" — and you have a good answer to your question.

If it's true that the employes with whom you work throw away almost-new materials, someone from "up front" (like the purchasing agent) should be told. He will be happy to have a friendly talk with "the sinners." Suggest it.

The Big Blowup

Dear Ann: My husband and I have been quarreling since last summer. Please settle this argument.

I have worked for 20 years out of the 26 we've been married. We pool our money and everything is "ours." Almost every year we take a trip to visit his folks.

Last summer I had a big fight with his brother. He said he'd never go home again to visit if I'm there. He lives 200 miles away. We live 1,700 miles away. I figure he can go home almost any time.

My husband just told me he wants to make the trip without me this year. Do you think it's right for him to spend our $400 to go alone? I get along fine with everyone in the family except this one brother.

My husband went so far as to say if I went he would stay at home — and this is final. Please give me your frank opinion. — MYLDRED.

Dear Myldred: Your husband is behaving like a child with a high fever. You should make the trip together. If his brother wants to stay away that's his business. But why let him wreck your vacation plans?

Tell your husband YOU plan to make the trip and that you hope he'll accompany you. Go alone if he insists on being mulish and let both brothers behave like iddy biddy babies if they want to.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

2-Car Crash Injures Palestine Councilman

EAST PALESTINE — Two men were injured and one car was demolished in a collision at N. Market and E. Martin St. Tuesday afternoon at 4:15, police reported.

George Vidovich, 19, of Enon Valley R. D. 1, driving south, made a turn into E. Martin St. and struck a car operated by Councilman D. B. Davis, 52, of 136 E. North Ave.

Vidovich suffered a cut of the chin and mouth while Davis received possible finger fractures and chest bruises. They were treated by a physician.

Vidovich pleaded guilty to making an improper turn and was fined $10 and costs by Mayor Paul Merwin. His 1953 tudor sedan was demolished, while Davis' 1957 sedan received $400 damage, police said.

Farmers Warned Horn Flies About Due To Bother Cattle

The insect alert from Ohio State University extension entomologists has been received by Floyd Lower, Columbiana County agriculture extension agent, who said it warns that horn flies are due in their May invasion.

These small flies will start to become numerous late this month on both dairy and beef cattle.

Through the summer these flies will cluster on the back and neck of cattle. They pierce the skin of the animal to suck blood, causing pain and annoyance, and interfering with feeding by the animals.

The result is loss of weight and reduced milk production. Dairy cows may be treated with 50 per cent Methoxychlor powder applied by hand dusting. Use one tablespoon of the powder to the neck and back of each animal every three weeks. Rub lightly into the hair.

For beef cattle, set up a back rubber. The cost is about $10 or less but it will provide a lot of relief for the beef herd. A bulletin is available at the extension office in Lisbon.

Flea beetles will attack potatoes as soon as they come through the ground, making pin-holes in the leaves. Potatoes should be sprayed as soon as they can be rowed. Use Dieldrin ¼ pound actual combined with DDT ½ pound actual, or try Thiodan at ½ pound actual per acre.

Now is the time to look for insects in wheat or shelled corn that was carried over the winter. It is necessary to fumigate with carbon tetrachloride-carbon disulfide (80-20), or ethylene dichloride-carbon tetrachloride (75-25) to eliminate existing infestations. Fumigate when the air temperature is 70 degrees or above.

Now is also a good time to clean up pockets of old grain in bins, wagon beds, loaders and old spilled grain or forgotten grain in sacks which are the reservoirs of reinfestation.

Hunt down, sweep up and burn old grain and old grain dust.

Not Chicken Feed

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) —When Roy Wilmuth opened his new chicken feeder he found $1,000 in it. He had bought the feeder at the hardware store of Ralph Stanley over the weekend. He returned the money to Stnley, who explained he had hidden it to keep burglars from finding it.

State-Employed Workers Get Pay Day In Michigan

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Payday meant just that today for Michigan's nearly 27,000 state-employed workers.

Contrary to the situation two weeks ago, there was sufficient money in the state treasury to meet the $5,100,000 biweekly payroll.

The May 7 payday was bypassed in the state's cash crisis.

Since then an increase in incoming tax receipts has closed the gap.

Auditor Gen. Frank S. Syzmanski indicated a decision will probably be reached this week on whether to release $6,700,000 to the state's three major universities — Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State — to meet month-end payrolls.

Meanwhile, the Michigan Legislature continued its debate on ways to meet the state's cash emergency.

Concern At Wellsville Ships Refractory Press

A new refractory press, designed to replace hand molding on a wide variety of shapes, was shipped today to a Pennsylvania brick firm by the Stephenson Co. of Wellsville.

The giant press, designed to operate either mechanically or with steam, was shipped this afternoon to the Kittanning Brick Co. at Adrian.

The press was built special for the firm. It is 27 feet high and has a maximum press stroke of 74 inches. It cost approximately $12,000.

Stephenson specializes in clay machinery equipment and is one of the leaders in construction and design of heavy equipment.

Kaycees Push Plans For Anniversary Event

Further plans for the 59th anniversary of the Carroll Council 509, Knights of Columbus, were discussed at a meeting Tuesday night at the K. of C. Home.

James Buchheit, grand knight, who conducted the meeting, will preside at the celebration June 10 which will feature a dinner at 6 p. m. at the K. of C. home.

A local delegation headed by James McGowan, district deputy, will attend the 60th annual state convention, Saturday, Sunday and Monday at Toledo.

The next meeting will be Tuesday night.

Officers Elected By Glenmoor PTA

Mrs. Richard Badger was elected president of the Glenmoor Parent-Teacher Association at the final meeting of the term Tuesday night. She succeeds Lewis Stoddard, retiring president.

Other officers include Jay Wynn, vice president; Mrs. Merle Kirkbride, secretary, and Mrs. Donald Owens, treasurer.

Businesss was conducted by Stoddard. The Rev. Robert Tanguy, pastor of the Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church, read devotions taken from Ps. 145 and offered prayer.

Robert Cunningham, chairman of the playground committee, reported a balance of $250.20 and a donation of $3.61 from the fourth grade pupils.

A highlight of the program was a skit by members of Girl Scout Troop 46, of which Mrs. Phyllis McDowell and Mrs. Nadine Muscari are leaders. The troop is sponsored by PTA.

Officers will be installed at the meeting Sept. 15.

Cleveland Area Retail Sales Hit $2.3 Billion

CLEVELAND (AP)—Retail sales in the Cleveland metropolitan area —including Cuyahoga and Lake counties—totaled $2,308,266,000 last year. According to Sales Management Magazine's 1959 survey of buying power, which has just been published, the area had 1,758,100 population and 529,300 households as of Jan. 1.

The survey said effective buying income totaled $3,881,576,000 and averaged $7,333 — or $1,328 higher than the national average.

Mutual Strike Aid Pact For Airlines Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board has approved formally a pact of six airlines to help each other financially when hit by strikes.

The pact, in effect since last October, was given tentative approval by the CAB last Jan. 26. Wednesday's formal 4-1 decision ordered one change in the agreement between American, Capital, Eastern, Pan American, TWA and United Air Lines.

The board objected to a provision in the agreement requiring a struck airline to route traffic to the other airlines in the pact. The CAB said this provision was not essential to the basic plan, did not serve the interest of the traveling public and must be deleted as a condition to approval.

Robert Cunningham, chairman of the playground committee, reported a balance of $250.20 and a donation of $3.61 from the fourth grade pupils.

A highlight of the program was a skit by members of Girl Scout Troop 46, of which Mrs. Phyllis McDowell and Mrs. Nadine Muscari are leaders. The troop is sponsored by PTA.

Officers will be installed at the meeting Sept. 15.

Mutual Strike Aid Pact For Airlines Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board has approved formally a pact of six airlines to help each other financially when hit by strikes.

The pact, in effect since last October, was given tentative approval by the CAB last Jan. 26. Wednesday's formal 4-1 decision ordered one change in the agreement between American, Capital, Eastern, Pan American, TWA and United Air Lines.

The board objected to a provision in the agreement requiring a struck airline to route traffic to the other airlines in the pact. The CAB said this provision was not essential to the basic plan, did not serve the interest of the traveling public and must be deleted as a condition to approval.

State-Employed Workers Get Pay Day In Michigan

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Payday meant just that today for Michigan's nearly 27,000 state-employed workers.

Contrary to the situation two weeks ago, there was sufficient money in the state treasury to meet the $5,100,000 biweekly payroll.

The May 7 payday was bypassed in the state's cash crisis.

Since then an increase in incoming tax receipts has closed the gap.

Auditor Gen, Frank S. Syzmanski indicated a decision will probably be reached this week on whether to release $6,700,000 to the state's three major universities — Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State — to meet month-end payrolls.

Meanwhile, the Michigan Legislature continued its debate on ways to meet the state's cash emergency.

Concern At Wellsville Ships Refractory Press

A new refractory press, designed to replace hand molding on a wide variety of shapes, was shipped today to a Pennsylvania brick firm by the Stephenson Co. of Wellsville.

The giant press, designed to operate either mechanically or with steam, was shipped this afternoon to the Kittanning Brick Co. at Adrian.

The press was built special for the firm. It is 27 feet high and has a maximum press stroke of 74 inches. It cost approximately $12,000.

Stephenson specializes in clay machinery equipment and is one of the leaders in construction and design of heavy equipment.

Kaycees Push Plans For Anniversary Event

Further plans for the 59th anniversary of the Carroll Council 509, Knights of Columbus, were discussed at a meeting Tuesday night at the K. of C. Home.

James Buchheit, grand knight, who conducted the meeting, will preside at the celebration June 10 which will feature a dinner at 6 p. m. at the K. of C. home.

A local delegation headed by James McGowan, district deputy, will attend the 60th annual state convention, Saturday, Sunday and Monday at Toledo.

The next meeting will be Tuesday night.

Cleveland Area Retail Sales Hit $2.3 Billion

CLEVELAND (AP)—Retail sales in the Cleveland metropolitan area —including Cuyahoga and Lake counties—totaled $2,308,266,000 last year. According to Sales Management Magazine's 1959 survey of buying power, which has just been published, the area had 1,758,100 population and 529,300 households as of Jan. 1.

The survey said effective buying income totaled $3,881,576,000 and averaged $7,333 — or $1,328 higher than the national average.

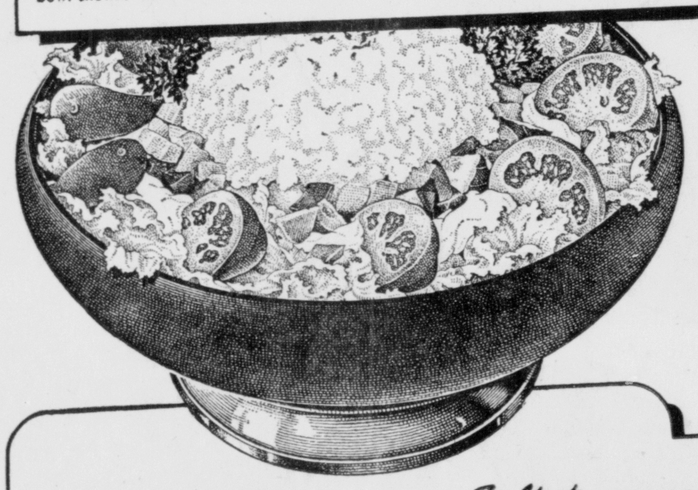
WIN A BEAUTIFUL MAHOGANY FINISH AND SILVERPLATE SALAD BOWL 1000 PRIZES!

EASY! Just make and name your favorite of these salads. Win the beautiful salad bowl shown. Bowl is 11½ inches wide, 4 inches deep; dark mahogany finish tulipwood with beautiful silverplate base. 1000 bowls given away. See easy rules below.

NAME THESE SUPER SALADS



1 Sealtest COTTAGE CHEESE AND VEGETABLE SALAD

Wash and chill all vegetables. Stem and seed 1 medium green pepper; trim 3 scallions and 3 radishes; scrape 2 medium carrots and 2 stalks of celery. Coarse chop all these and 1 medium cucumber. Sprinkle in ½ tsp. ground basil and 3 tbsp. Italian dressing. Mix thoroughly. Fold 2 tbsp. finely chopped onion, ½ tsp. onion salt into 2 cups Sealtest Cottage Cheese. Mound seasoned cheese over 6 cups shredded crisp lettuce in garlic-rubbed salad bowl. Ring the mound with marinated vegetables and liquid. Spoon ½ cup mayonnaise around vegetables to form outer ring. Garnish with peeled tomato wedges, parsley sprigs. Sprinkle chopped parsley over cheese.

4 to 6 servings

2 Sealtest COTTAGE CHEESE AND FRUIT SALAD

Fold 1 tsp. grated orange rind, ½ cup drained crushed pineapple, and ½ cup orange pieces into 2 cups Sealtest Cottage Cheese.

In a salad bowl, toss 4 cups bite-size pieces crisp lettuce and 2 cups small pieces of watercress with 2 tbsp. French dressing. Mound cheese mixture over greens. Surround cheese with groupings of fresh orange sections, sliced strawberries and small white grapes. Garnish with sprigs of mint. Top cheese with 1 whole strawberry, halved.

4 to 6 servings

3 Sealtest COTTAGE CHEESE AND MEAT SALAD

Fold 2 frankfurters (thinly sliced), ¼ cup thin sliced radishes, ¼ cup thin sliced small green stuffed olives, 2 tbsp. finely diced celery, 1 tbsp. mayonnaise and 1 tsp. prepared mustard into 2 cups Sealtest Cottage Cheese. Chill.

In salad bowl toss 4 cups bite-size pieces crisp lettuce, 2 cups bite-size pieces crisp chicory, ¼ cup diced green pepper and 1 small onion sliced crosswise with 2 tbsp. Italian dressing. Mound cheese mixture over chilled greens. Garnish with slices of frankfurter, olives, radishes and chopped parsley.

4 to 6 servings

6 At Chester Seek Vacated Water Position

Six applications for the post of Chester water works superintendent were acknowledged by Council at a meeting Wednesday night.

Applying for the job so far are Jess Selmon, now pumper and meter reader; Roy Walker, present street commissioner; Charles E. Hartenbach of Columbia Dr.; Lewis Govey of Church St.; Richard Barnhart of Carolina Ave. and John Owen of Lycia Ave.

Council officially accepted the resignation of Harold Ash from the water works post. Ash plans to accept a job with the Columbia Gas Co. in this area.

Council will meet in special session Friday night at 8 to appoint a superintendent and to discuss the summer street improvement program.

A representative of the River Asphalt Corp. of Newell submitted a price of $1.23 a foot or $11 a ton for resurfacing streets. Property owners wishing to share in paying for improvement of streets or alleys may notify their councilman or the street commissioner.

Council gave final approval of a fire protection levy amounting to 50 cents a month, retroactive to Jan. 1 and continuing through 1960. Proceeds will be used to complete payment of a new $20,000 fire truck purchased in February.

The fire levy charge will be noted on water bills sent quarterly to water consumers, while separate levy notices will be mailed to residents or business operators without water service.

Council also passed on final reading an ordinance repealing five obsolete city laws and another ordinance defining the boundaries of the city.

A complaint was referred to the sewer committee concerning water backing up in the basement of Mrs. Walter Hewitt of Columbia Dr.

Councilmen John Abrams and Charles Kology reported new clay grinding machinery is to be put in operation in a week at the Metsch Refractories Co. in a move to eliminate a dust condition in the neighborhood.

Council approved the purchase of a new check valve on the tar kettle equipment of the street department after Walker reported the present valve cracked.

No action was taken on a request from Donald Hood, former councilman, to have all city employes placed under a municipal civil service program.

City officials will participate in a cornerstone laying for an addition to the First Christian Church Saturday afternoon.

Acting Mayor Roy Cashdollar presided. Mayor Burton Ward, convalescing after a mild heart attack in April, attended.

A movie, "Plan for Prosperity," depicting the benefits of community planning, was screened by Walter Jordan, manager of the Monongahela Power Co.

250 Attend BPW Club Observance

Some 250 attended the dinner program of the Business & Professional Women's Club Wednesday night at the St. Aloysius Parochial School to mark its 20th anniversary in community activity.

Shown, left to right, are Mrs. Ethel Lynn Wambaugh, president and charter president; Mrs. Chloe Maloney of Jackson, president of the Ohio Federation; Dr. Marjorie Fraser Webster of Washington, immediate past chairman of the career advancement committee of the National Federation, and Mrs. Nessie Dunlop, program co-ordinator and president-elect of the local club.

Other guests speaking briefly were Mrs. Agnes Merritt of Columbus, first vice president and state president-elect; Mrs. Marguerite Davis of Uhrichsville, director of District 8; Mrs. Marian Rankin of Youngstown, director of District 4, and Mrs. Katherine Stanford of Sebring, state membership director.

Mrs. Louise Brookman Taylor gave the invocation and Mrs. Mary McCullough the benediction.

Background music was presented by Mrs. Marian Gerace at the organ.

Mrs. Eileen Brown sang "One Fine Day" and "Love Is Where You Find It," accompanied by Mrs. Gerace.

Mrs. Wambaugh extended the welcome and gave recognition to visiting BPW delegations from Columbiana, Salem, Steubenville, Dennison, Uhrichsville, Kent, Sebring, Beaver Falls, Aliquippa, Youngstown and the newly organized Panhandle Club of Hancock County.

Local groups represented were City Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Women's Club, Garden Club, Quota Club, Women's Club, Helen Gould Literary Club, Coterie Club, Girl Scout Council, Monday Literary Club, the Newell Women's Club and the Wellsville Arts Club.

Dr. Webster, principal speaker, discussed "Achieve Through BPW." She was introduced by Mrs. Dunlop.

Recognition was given to recipients of awards as outstanding women, including Mrs. Eda Golding, Mrs. William Ogilvie and Mrs. M. D. McCutcheon, who were present and Mrs. Mae Bryan, Mrs. Robert Hall and Mrs. J. Donald Thompson who were unable to attend.

Charter members still active were introduced, including Miss Ruth Burrell, Miss Gdays DeBolt, Miss Kathryn Marran, Miss Myrtle McCoy, Mrs. Gertrude Reese and Mrs. Wambaugh.

Guests and charter members were presented corsages and the speaker and state president and president-elect were given pottery.

A garden theme predominated in decorations with pink crockery baskets filled with pink and red geraniums suspended from the ceiling. Potted geraniums and blue tapers in crystal holders completed the table settings. Souvenirs were inscribed cups and saucers and wallets and handkerchiefs. Miniature corsages were attached to the name cards.

A table display featured scrapbooks, publicity pictures and achievements of the club.

Mrs. Dunlop was general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Reese, Mrs. Gertrude Lowe, Miss Grace Woodward, Mrs. Helen Moore, Mrs. Alice Bair, Mrs. Ethel Harvey, Mrs. Donna Allison and Mrs. Wambaugh. Women of the parish served the meal.

Installation of officers will be held June 10 at a dinner meeting at the Travelers Hotel.

Heat Blamed In Death

CLEVELAND (AP)—The heat was blamed for the death Wednesday of Willie Tippit, 61, Cleveland. He collapsed while at work at the Klausner Barrell Co. and was pronounced dead at St. Alexis Hospital. Wednesday's peak of 91 degrees set a record for May 20 here.

Board Airs Pupil Change

Tentative plans for the transfer of 32 students from the Fairview School area to No. 16 School were discussed at a meeting of the Southern Local Board of Education Wednesday night at the No. 16 School.

The Fairview School and most of its surrounding area has been merged with Wellsville, but about 32 students who attended the school reside in the area not merged. They will probably be accommodated in the No. 16 classrooms next fall.

Extension of a music instruction program to Highlandtown, No. 16 and Wayne Schools next term was approved by the board. Previously, such instruction has been handled by classroom teachers but a regular music supervisor will visit the schools.

The purchase of lumber for bookcases at No. 16 School was approved, along with installation of private telephone lines at the school and Highlandtown School now served by party lines.

The board adopted the school calendar for 1959-60, similar to the county school schedule except for Easter vacation, which will be April 14-19.

In other action, the board approved a co-operative plan with the Parent-Teacher Association in obtaining playground equipment. The next meeting will be June 17.

Band Mothers Seat Officers

Mrs. Victor Cline, retiring president of the ELHS Band and Orchestra Mothers, installed new officers at the final meeting of the term Tuesday night in the band room of the Memorial Auditorium. The officers include:

Mrs. Wayne Russell, president; Mrs. Clare Manypenny, vice president; Mrs. Vincent Gerace, secretary, and Mrs. Lawrence Johnston, treasurer.

Mrs. Maxine Fudurick, retiring vice president, presented a gift to Mrs. Cline on behalf of the association.

The retiring president presented tokens of appreciation to all senior mothers for their co-operation during the term.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Donald Alexander and business was conducted by Mrs. Cline.

Don Allen, supervisor of instrumental music of East Liverpool schools, spoke for the benefit of the new members. Mrs. Cline told of the various projects sponsored by the group.

Mrs. Bertram Wakefield, chairman of the Lake Marwin project, asked members who can devote some time at the concession stand during the summer, to sign up.

Refreshments were served 35.

The next meeting will be Sept. 15.

Hancock PTA Group Hears Guest Speaker

The Hancock County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations heard an address by Dr. Corma Mowrey, director of the division of professional services of the West Virginia Education Association, and installed new officers Tuesday night.

The group met in Swaney Memorial Library in New Cumberland.

Mrs. Matthew Javersak of Weirton was installed as president. Other officers include Mrs. Anthony DiBart, first vice president; George Vanniere, second vice president; Albert Shroades, third vice president; Mrs. Frank Koloziejski, secretary, and John Clovis, treasurer.

Workshops will be held for PTA units in Grant District June 12 at the Chester Central School. Mrs. Jane McNeil was dinner chairman.

4-H Leaders To Meet

LISBON—The Columbiana County Junior Leadership 4-H Club will meet tonight at 8 at Lisbon Grange. The program will include discussion of junior leadership responsibility. Square dancing will follow business. Jim Skeels of Lisbon R. D. 4, president, will preside.

The largest oil tanker ever built in Europe, the 68,500 ton W. Alton Jones, was recently launched in Sweden. It was built for the American Cities Service Co.

Rev. J. H. Varner Jr. Installed As Pastor For Bethel Church

The Rev. Joseph H. Varner Jr. was installed as pastor of the Bethel Presbyterian Church Monday night and the sermon was given by the Rev. George Jenkins, general presbyter of the Steubenville presbytery.

The charge to the pastor was given by his father, the Rev. Joseph H. Varner of Wooster and the Rev. Boyd S. Burd of Bethesda Presbyterian Church gave the charge to the people.

The Rev. A. K. Davidson, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church of East Liverpool and moderator of the presbytery, presided.

The invocation was offered by the Rev. Ralph Johnson, former pastor, and the psalter selection was given by the Rev. E. E. Bacon of the Oak Ridge Presbyterian Church.

Scripture was read by the Rev. Richard Beidler, stated clerk of the Presbytery and pastor of the Yellow Creek Presbyterian Church. The choir sang "Awake" and the newly installed pastor pronounced the benediction.

Rev. Varner Jr. was graduated from Wooster college with a BA degree in 1937. He received a BD degree from Oberlin College graduate school of theology in 1940 and another BD degree from Bexley Hall Divinity School of Kenyon College in 1943. Most of Rev. Varner's former ministry was spent in Western United States, his latest work being at Sandy, Utah. Rev. Varner has an interest in writing and is a member of the Gem State Authors' League in Idaho and occasionally has had verses published.

Rev. Varner's parents will reside with him at the Bethel manse after June 1. The elder Rev. Varner is a Presbyterian minister and was at one time stated clerk of the Wooster Presbytery. In 1950 he was "Presbyterian Minister of the Year" in Ohio. Prior to his retirement, he was chaplain at Apple Creek Hospital near Wooster.

Ohio Man Elected

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Carl Estep of Portsmouth, Ohio, has been elected president of Division 1493, Amalgamated Assn. of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employes of America. The union's division includes drivers and terminal employes of Atlantic Greyhound Bus Lines in the District of Columbia, Ohio and eight other states.

Warning To Seniors

HAVERHILL, Mass. (AP)—Police Chief William A. Ross said today high school seniors found guilty of traffic violations after their prom Friday night will lose their diplomas as well as their licenses.

Industry To Become Borough

Slates Completed For Townships

Results of the primary Tuesday for nominations by both parties for some 15 offices for Industry Township which will become a borough next January, have been announced by the Beaver County Board of Elections at Beaver.

Both parties had six candidates each for four councilmen and the Republicans also had a race for school director with two candidates. All other positions were unopposed on both tickets.

Democrats John Gregor, John M. Siranovich, Matthew Bertovic and Steve Suchanec won the nominations for four Council posts for four-year terms over Paul O. Walton and Evan Schuster. Their vote:

Gregor	180
Sironovich	131
Bertovic	179
Suchanec	164
Walton	105
Schuster	103

Seeking Republican nominations for Council, James Muns, George Ross, Ross Strohm and Edward B. White won over Arnold F. Robbins and Anthony Kress. Their vote:

Muns	236
Ross	211
Strohm	209
White	165
Robbins	157
Kress	88

For nominations for three Council posts of two years each, both parties had three candidates each. Democrats receiving nominations were Allen Craft, Robert Madish and C. R. Dunlap. Their vote:

Craft	202
Madish	199
Dunlap	185

Republicans receiving nominations to Council for two two-year terms were William Ralph Jr., Archie Judd and Earl W. Stephenson. Their vote:

Ralph	250
Judd	241
Stephenson	230

Charles P. Henderson, received 206 votes for the Democrat nomination for the one school director opening. Write-ins received only two or three votes.

Betty Jane Brucker won the Republican nomination for school director over Robert V. Preston. Their vote:

Brucker	190
Preston	91

Both Harry H. Davis, Democrat, with 203 votes, and Guy L. Lange, Republican, with 252 votes, were unopposed for their party's nomination for burgess, except for minor write-ins.

Rose Carroll with 211 votes was unopposed for the Democratic nomination for assessor. Rose Miller, with 263 votes, was unopposed for the Republican nomination.

For the one auditor post, for six years, both John Flediga, Democrat with 205 votes, and Richard Herter, Republican with 270 votes, were unopposed.

Democrat Joseph Mulach with 210 votes received his party's nomination for the auditor post for four years. Republican Harry P. Craik received 259 votes. Both were unopposed.

Receiving nominations for auditor for 2 years were Veronica Benek, Democrat with 211 votes, and Fredrick Wilton, Republican with 269 votes. Three write-ins got one vote each.

For one justice of the peace, Democrat Nicholas Chuldenko received 181 votes and Republican George C. Baacke 251.

Grace W. Doyle, Democrat with 225 votes, and Earl J. Hineman, Republican with 273 votes, were unopposed for nomination for tax collector.

9 Nominations Made For Frankfort Springs

Frankfort Springs Borough nominated for nine offices including four Council posts, school director, auditor, assessor, justice of the peace and burgess. All were write-in candidates.

O. B. Stevenson won the Democrat nomination for burgess with 17 votes and the Republican nomination with 15.

Charles Coulter, Dwight Chambers, Robert Brodmerkel and Robert Hamilton received Council nominations. Their votes:

Charles Burd received both the Democrat and Republican nominations for school director with 17 votes each.

Betty Spence received the Democrat nomination for auditor with 17 votes and the Republican nomination with 20 votes.

Dorthy Burd won on both tickets for assessor with 19 votes each.

Jean Chambers received the justice of the peace nomination with one vote. A roll-off will be necessary for Republicans Harry Spence, Brodmerkel, Rex Kraft, Eugene Lombard and Joann McCracken, who tied with one vote each for the justice of the peace nomination.

2 Contests Mark Ohio Township Vote

Ohio Township nominated for one supervisor and one auditor. Both parties had two candidates each for supervisor. Though no Democratic petitions were filed for auditor, there were some 24 write-in candidates and the lone Republican came from the 2nd precinct.

George E. Quiring won over Victor Simpson for the Democratic nomination for supervisor. Their vote:

Quiring	126
Simpson	99

Republican Richard Rice won over Arthur Hum for their party's supervisor nomination. Their vote:

Rice	95
Hum	67

Nellie Anthony of the 2nd Precinct won over other write-in candidates for the Democratic nomination for auditor. She received 13 votes and the nearest write-in candidate, Mary Muhic, had 4.

Republican Thomas C. Reed, unopposed, received 79 votes for auditor.

Hanover Township Has Only One Contest

Hanover Township, nominated for a supervisor, school director, auditor and two justices of the peace. Candidates of both parties were unopposed except for a three-man Republican race for school director. The Democratic nominations for justice of the peace and school director were made by write-in.

Democrat Ralph K. Davidson received 77 votes and Clyde Sarver, Republican 126, for supervisor.

Noel B. Alloway and Ada Hobbs, both write-ins received the Democratic nominations for justice of the peace, 27 and 19 votes, respectively. Their vote:

Republicans John R. Andrews and Rowena G. Bishop, were nominated with 82 and 112 votes, respectively.

Democrat Charles R. Ross received the nomination for school director over Robert Hobbs, both write-ins. The vote:

Ross	36
Hobbs	22

J. Kenneth Ramsey won over Eugene Lombard and Albert Weltner in a three-man race for the Republican nomination for school director. Their vote:

Ramsey	68

Dog Warden Explains Injured Pet's Gassing

William Long, Wellsville dog warden, today denied that he illegally shot a dog that he picked up last week as reported by Councilman Richard Brown at a meeting of Council Tuesday night.

Long said the dog was injured, which gave him the right to destroy it. He also explained that the animal was gassed and not shot.

Brown contended that Long should have held the dog for three days before destroying it. But he pointed out that the dog warden has no place to house dogs and said the city is searching for a suitable place to serve as a pound.

Long said monoxide gas fumes from an auto exhaust system was used to destroy the animal. It had a broken shoulder and leg and was bleeding badly, Long said. "I thought it had been hit by a car sometime during the day," Long said. He later learned the dog had been struck about a week earlier.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE FOR BIDS.

Sealed bids will be received by the Director of Public Service-Safety of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, until twelve o'clock noon, Eastern Daylight Savings Time, May 29, 1959, for the sale to the City of One Hundred (100) parking meters (5 cent per hour type) according to specifications on file in the office of the Director.

Said bids above mentioned shall contain therein an offer by the bidder for the purchase by the bidder from the City of One Hundred (100) Dual-Meter Company (5 cents per hour) parking meters which are hereby offered for sale and will be sold simultaneously and in a single contract with the purchase of the new meters. It is stipulated that the sale price of the City meters will be subtracted from the purchase price of the new meters as a means of determining the lowest and best bidder according to law.

Each bid must contain the full name of every person or company interested in the same and be accompanied by a certified check on some solvent bank in the amount of 5% of the bid for the new meters payable to the Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool as a guaranty that if the bid is accepted, a contract shall be entered into and its performance properly secured. Should any bid be rejected such check will be forthwith returned to the bidder, and should any bid be accepted such check will be returned upon the proper execution and securing of the contract.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

LEGAL NOTICE

Harry Evans and Anita K. Evans whose present place of residence is unknown and cannot by reasonable dilligence be ascertained but whose last known place of residence was 777 Midway Lane, East Liverpool, Ohio, will take notice that on the 18th day of May 1959, plaintiff, Olive Jane Dray, filed her petition against them in the Court of Common Pleas at Columbiana County, Ohio. The same being Case Number 45274 and being an action for money only and being an action to declare null and void a certain conveyance to the defendant, Anita K. Evans, for certain real estate in said petition described as follws:

Situated in the Township of Liverpool, County of Columbiana, State of Ohio, and being located in the Northwest Quarter of Section 35, Township 6 and Range 1, and bounded and described as follows:

Known as and being Lot No. 19 in the Homestead Acres Division as shown by Plat Book 5, Page 59 of the Columbiana County Plat Records.

The prayer of said petition is for judgment against the defendant, Harry Evans, for money only and to declare the conveyance to the defendant, Anita K. Evans, null and void and that said property be declared the property of said Harry Evans; that the same be sold and the proceeds of such sale be applied to plaintiff's judgment.

Said defendants are required to answer said petition on the 1st day of August, 1959, or judgment will be taken against them.

A 3 bedroom, brick veneer home, at 3244 St. Clair Ave. The home has been reduced to rock bottom. The home is complete with carpeted living room, hardwood floors, gas furnace, city water and sewer, basement garage, and large back yard that is beautifully landscaped. The owner is tired of driving out of town to work, but must sell before he can move, so the price has been reduced to $21,400.

An extra large 2 bedroom, 1 story, brick veneer, home on MIDWAY LANE that is just 3 years old. This dream home is perfect for a small family who likes room to breathe. There is a large kitchen and dining area with loads of cupboard room, a living room with open fireplace that's sure to appeal, a full basement, cedar closets, city sewer and water, gas hot-air furnace, and a good lot with beautiful landscaping. $22,500.

The person to see this one year old red brick veneer on a 130x 180 lot on the edge of town will have to like it. 3 bedrooms, 2 stone fireplaces, all hardwood floors, attached garage and blacktop drive. Better call us to see it today. $21,000.

THE HOME IS 7 YEARS OLD, WITH 3 LARGE BEDROOMS, DESIGNED WITH CROSS VENTILATION IN EACH ROOM, AND EXTRA LARGE LIVING-ROOM, DINING AREA, BUILT-IN BREAKFAST NOOK, AND A BEAUTIFUL AND SPACIOUS KITCHEN WITH CUPBOARD ROOM TO SPARE. A LARGE MAIN FLOOR UTILITY ROOM, AN ENTANCE FOYER, AND A COVERED BACK PORCH WITH PATIO. THE HOME IS COMPLETE WITH A SMALL DEN OR STUDY, ATTACHED GARAGE, THE MOST MODERN RADIANT HEAT, AND BRUCE BLOCK HARDWOOD FLOORS. THE LAWN IS THE CLOSEST THING WE'VE SEEN TO A PUTTING GREEN ON A GOLF COURSE, AND WE FEEL SURE YOU'LL AGREE THAT THE OWNER HAS DONE JUSTICE TO THE ARCHITECTURAL PROFESSION IN DESIGNING AND BUILDING THIS HOME. THE PRICE IS THE ONLY ITEM IN THIS HOME THAT IS BELOW PAR.

Elementary Music Students Will Perform In 2nd Concert

Students from all the elementary buildings in East Liverpool will participate in the second all-city elementary instrumental music concert Saturday at 7:30 p. m. at the Memorial Auditorium.

This will mark the final concert of the year for the music organizations as follow:

The cadet band, consisting of 65 members of the sixth grade pupils, who will play their instruments for the second year.

The orchestra, 48 members, made up of all the elementary pupils playing string instruments, plus the most advanced woodwind, brass and percussion students in the sixth grade.

The beginning band, 97 members, consisting of fifth graders who began playing their instruments at the start of this school term.

The all-city band, 162 students, a combination of all the fifth and sixth grade students from the two bands.

The concert is under the direction of Peter D'Argenzio, instrumental music director at Westgate Junior High School; Gene Lindauere, instrumental music instructor in the elementary schools and director at Westgate, and Vincent Maola, music instructor at East Junior High School.

A rehearsal will be held Saturday at 1 p. m. at the auditorium.

$87,202 Injury Action Is Settled

LISBON — Trial of a $87,202 action claiming personal injury in an auto-truck collision was halted at noon Tuesday when an out-of-court settlement was reached. Common Pleas Judge Raymond Buzzard excused the jury. The case began Monday.

Harry Vorhees of East Sparta sought the amount, claiming injuries to himself, wife and daughter in the accident Sept. 25, 1955, on Route 30 near the junction of Route 170, northwest of East Liverpool.

The three causes of action named as defendants Richard G. Strebig of Fort Wayne, Ind., the International Harvester Co., of Chicago and Howard Sober, Inc., of Lansing, Mich. Strebig was working for Sober, Inc., driving International trucks to Philadelphia.

The jury included Minnie Selliance and Albert McMillen of East Liverpool, John Jack of Wellsville, Leland Guy and Calvin Funk of Salem; Emerson Davis, Dorothy Crawford and Frank Rudibaugh of Lisbon; Graydon Metz of Columbiana, Betty Wycoff of Beloit R. D., Janet Colella of East Palestine and Paul Waithman of Winona. Russell Pearson of Salem was the alternate.

2 Professors Address Medical Group Meeting

Two Ohio State University Professors were guest speakers at the Columbiana County Medical Society meeting Tuesday night at the Wick Hotel in Lisbon. Forty county physicians attended.

Dr. Arthur James, professor of surgery and president of the Ohio State Cancer Society, and Dr. D. George Hamwi, professor of medicine, discussed "Surgical and Medical Treatment of Thyroid Diseases."

The health poster contest planned for the County Fair also was discussed.

The next meeting will be June 16.

Hospital Change Due Officer Hurt In Crash

State Highway Patrolman Richard Delagrange of Salem, injured in a collision between his cruiser and a truck on Route 14 near Washingtonville early in April, is to be transferred this week from Salem City Hospital to the Cleveland Clinic.

Delagrange suffered leg and pelvis injuries in the crash, and has been in the hospital since. He is due specialized treatment at Cleveland hospital.

270 Autos Inspected In Palestine 'Check'

EAST PALESTINE — Some 270 autos were inspected in a volunteer safety checkup sponsored by the Rotary Club Tuesday at the Junior High School parking lot.

Howard Parker, chairman, said 36 autos were rejected for mechanical faults, chiefly in turn signals or rear lights. Another check in the two-lane inspection area is slated Saturday from noon to 6 p. m.

A great portion of Mammoth Cave in Kentucky is still unexplored. The passages explored extend about 150 miles.

Cattlemen Will Hear Hereford Researcher

LISBON — L. P. McCann, director of research of the American Hereford Association at Kansas City, Mo., will be the guest speaker at the Columbiana-Mahoning Beef committee's annual twilight meeting, June 2 at 7 p. m. at the Howard Smith Farm of Salem R. D. 4.

Albert R. Pugh, county extension agent in agriculture, said Arnold Olson, manager of Rutledge farm near New Philadelphia, will conduct the fitting and showing demonstration for 4-H and Future Farmers of America members. Olson was formerly with Hillcrest Farms at Chester, and has fitted and showed many champions throughout the United States.

The meeting was planned by the Columbiana - Mahoning Beef committee in co-operation with the Agriculture Extension Service.

The astronomical system was discovered by Polish scientist Copernicus in 1540.

$87,202 Injury Action Is Settled

LISBON — Trial of a $87,202 action claiming personal injury in an auto-truck collision was halted at noon Tuesday when an out-of-court settlement was reached. Common Pleas Judge Raymond Buzzard excused the jury. The case began Monday.

Harry Vorhees of East Sparta sought the amount, claiming injuries to himself, wife and daughter in the accident Sept. 25, 1955, on Route 30 near the junction of Route 170, northwest of East Liverpool.

The three causes of action named as defendants Richard G. Strebig of Fort Wayne, Ind., the International Harvester Co., of Chicago and Howard Sober, Inc., of Lansing, Mich. Strebig was working for Sober, Inc., driving International trucks to Philadelphia.

The jury included Minnie Selliance and Albert McMillen of East Liverpool, John Jack of Wellsville, Leland Guy and Calvin Funk of Salem; Emerson Davis, Dorothy Crawford and Frank Rudibaugh of Lisbon; Graydon Metz of Columbiana, Betty Wycoff of Beloit R. D., Janet Colella of East Palestine and Paul Waithman of Winona. Russell Pearson of Salem was the alternate.

2 Professors Address Medical Group Meeting

Two Ohio State University Professors were guest speakers at the Columbiana County Medical Society meeting Tuesday night at the Wick Hotel in Lisbon. Forty county physicians attended.

Dr. Arthur James, professor of surgery and president of the Ohio State Cancer Society, and Dr. D. George Hamwi, professor of medicine, discussed "Surgical and Medical Treatment of Thyroid Diseases."

The health poster contest planned for the County Fair also was discussed.

The next meeting will be June 16.

Hospital Change Due Officer Hurt In Crash

State Highway Patrolman Richard Delagrange of Salem, injured in a collision between his cruiser and a truck on Route 14 near Washingtonville early in April, is to be transferred this week from Salem City Hospital to the Cleveland Clinic.

Delegrange suffered leg and pelvis injuries in the crash, and has been in the hospital since. He is due specialized treatment at Cleveland hospital.

270 Autos Inspected In Palestine 'Check'

EAST PALESTINE — Some 270 autos were inspected in a volunteer safety checkup sponsored by the Rotary Club Tuesday at the Junior High School parking lot.

Howard Parker, chairman, said 36 autos were rejected for mechanical faults, chiefly in turn signals or rear lights. Another check in the two-lane inspection area is slated Saturday from noon to 6 p. m.

A great portion of Mammoth Cave in Kentucky is still unexplored. The passages explored extend about 150 miles.

Cattlemen Will Hear Hereford Researcher

LISBON — L. P. McCann, director of research of the American Hereford Association at Kansas City, Mo., will be the guest speaker at the Columbiana-Mahoning Beef committee's annual twilight meeting, June 2 at 7 p. m. at the Howard Smith Farm of Salem R. D. 4.

Albert R. Pugh, county extension agent in agriculture, said Arnold Olson, manager of Rutledge farm near New Philadelphia, will conduct the fitting and showing demonstration for 4-H and Future Farmers of America members. Olson was formerly with Hillcrest Farms at Chester, and has fitted and showed many champions throughout the United States.

The meeting was planned by the Columbiana - Mahoning Beef committee in co-operation with the Agriculture Extension Service.
